

Younger Set Celebrates Birthdays

Members of the very young set are busy this week entertaining with birthday parties.

Conie Collins celebrated her birthday Wednesday afternoon at a party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl G. Collins, on Market street. A few of her friends were invited to luncheon in the garden.

Fifth Birthday
Judy Fortmiller, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. E. V. Fortmiller, will be a party hostess this afternoon at their Fairmount Hill home in honor of her fifth birthday. Games will be in play with birthday cake and refreshments following.

Honoring Judy will be Susan Wilson, Bucky Schmidt, Gregory Stadler, Nancy Miller, Steven Dawson, and Carol Ramsden.

Party on Saturday
Bobby Stevenson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn O. Stevenson, will celebrate his fourth birthday at a garden party Saturday afternoon at their Market street home. A May pole will center the birthday table with May Day favors for the guests.

Bobby's guests will be Jimmy and Barbara Roth, Johnny and Jerilyn Hughes, Barton McSherry, Tommy Martin, Butch Tuma, Monte and Michael Adams, Deena Welden, and Susan Lewis and Douglas Burns of Portland, and Patsy Stevenson.

Additional guests will be Bobby's grandmother, Mrs. George Irvine, Mrs. Opal Hagenbush, Mrs. Edward Roth, Mrs. John Hughes, Mrs. Irl McSherry, Mrs. C. T. Martin, Mrs. Wayne Adams, Mrs. Robert Welden, and Mrs. Jay Burns and Mrs. David Lewis of Portland.

Golfers Play for Low Net

A warm, sunny day greeted over fifty women golfers for Ladies Day at the Salem Golf club Wednesday morning. Prizes were awarded for low net with Mrs. W. T. Waterman winning in class A; Mrs. Brazier Small, class B; and Mrs. Joseph E. Albrich, class C.

Luncheon followed the day's play at the clubhouse. New golfers welcomed were Mesdames Brazier Small, Kenneth Bell, Donald Murdock, Donald Lutz, George Mirich and Homer L. Goulet.

Auditions and syllabus examinations will be given in Salem June 5 by the Oregon Music Teachers association.

Date Set for June Rites

Sunday, June 22 has been set as the date for the coming marriage of Miss Dolores Hamilton and Courtney Jones. The couple's engagement was announced in March. Miss Hamilton is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Hamilton and her fiancé is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Jones, all of Salem.

The rites will take place at the Calvary Baptist church at 5 o'clock with Mr. Charles Durden officiating. A reception will follow the nuptials.

Both Miss Hamilton and her fiancé are graduates of Salem high school. He attended Williamette university and Oregon State college and is a member of Kappa Sigma. He served in the navy V-12 during the war.

Chapter Honors Mothers

Mothers day and Music week were jointly commemorated by members of Chadwick chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, at the Tuesday night meeting. Mrs. Rose Babcock, representing mothers of the chapter, was escorted to the east and spoke briefly. Mrs. David Cameron sang two solos, dedicating them to the late Mrs. Walter Denton. Milton Myers also spoke a brief word of greeting.

Mrs. Fred Keeler and H. R. Robinson, worthy matron and patron, presided. In charge of refreshments and decorations were Mr. and Mrs. Albert C. Gragg, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Holt, Miss Merle DeVaul, Mrs. J. C. Lindley, Mrs. J. H. Jennings and Mrs. James O. Barrell.

The Merry Times Birthday club will meet with Mrs. H. C. Bell, Carlton way, for a dessert luncheon Friday at 1:15 p.m. Mrs. J. F. Schonberg's birthday will be observed.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hamilton of Seattle are expected in the capital Friday for a several days visit with the Ralph and Clarence Hamiltons and Mrs. C. S. Hamilton.

New Officers Are Elected

Mrs. Walter Barsch was elected president of Salem Soroptimist club Wednesday noon at a luncheon meeting in the Golden Pheasant restaurant. She succeeds Mrs. Marie Ling.

Other new officers are Miss Irene DeLisle, first vice-president; Mrs. Glen McCormick, second vice-president; Miss Lucille Bushnell, secretary; Miss Lena Blum, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Ellen Gabriel, treasurer; and Mrs. Ethel Lau, director.

The club announced the 30 records donated by KSLM and several albums purchased by the club have been given to Hillcrest school. Soroptimists last winter gave the school two record players.

Chairmen Are Appointed

Mrs. Joe Hopkins, president of the Beaver navy auxiliary VFW, appointed her committee chairmen for the year at the meeting Tuesday night. Appointed were Mrs. Peery Buren, membership; Mrs. James Ritchie, hospital; Mrs. Wallis Atkinson, finance; Mrs. Arvid Parson, Americanism; Mrs. Eva Tucker, sewing; Mrs. William Hyder, social; Mrs. Jess McNeil, post-war; Mrs. Dudley Bullock, rehabilitation, and Mrs. James Ritchie, poppy.

A box social for June 13 at the Mayflower hall was announced and a report on the veterans' hospital was given by Mrs. Jessie Sanders. Mrs. Leon Hanson, district president, installed Mrs. William Hyder, treasurer, and Mrs. Jess McNeil, trustee.

Credit Women Attend Tea

Mrs. Ethel Gallinger, president of the Salem Credit Women's Breakfast club, and Mesdames Alia Myers, Louise Jones, Lillian Wilgers and Lorna Lucas, members of the Salem club, attended a tea in Portland Sunday at the home of Miss Louise McMahon.

The affair was in honor of the three Oregon officers of the Pacific Northwest council of Credit Women's Breakfast clubs. The Portland club was hostess and honor guests were Mrs. Mabel Bliss, Portland, council president; Mrs. Bessie Kayser, Salem, treasurer; and Mrs. Nondus Clark, Portland, corresponding secretary.

NORTHWEST Poultry Picture

No, our chickens aren't shrinking in size but they are in number. There are over 1 million less chickens on Oregon and Washington farms now than last year. At the same time Oregon and Washington population has increased 28% in the last few years, resulting in a critical shortage of poultry and eggs in this area. Poultry growers are urged to increase their flocks and help alleviate this situation. See your local Triangle dealer and let him help you plan.
