

Seen and Heard...

By Ieryme English

TIDBITS OF NEWS... A thrilling summer ahead for Jane Walsh and Mary Catherine Wilhelm of Eugene, University of Oregon coeds, who leave in June for New York City for the summer... They have subtlet Prof. and Mrs. James Drury's apartment in Greenwich Village... They hope to see all the sights, attend stage plays, tour the parks, museums, etc... Mrs. Drury and her boys have just returned from the east and he will follow...

Exciting news... received by Mrs. Winston Williams the other day... A cable from her army captain husband, who is now in Frankfurt, saying she will be able to sail in July for Germany... followed by a phone call on Monday, her birthday... She will drive cross-country, taking her car to Europe... A thundering herd... at least that's what it sounded like the other day at Chi Omega house when a dozen or more coeds stampeded down the stairway, dashing outside to see Dorothy Hobson's new Buick... Dorothy was the calmest of the group, and decided to keep the salesman waiting as he had kept her waiting over a year... Dorothy is the only one that can drive in her family, so it looks as though the Chi Omegas are going to have a gay spring... House hunting... are the Sidneyn Kings, who with daughter Barbara will be leaving in June for Portland to live... Sidney will be with the Oregon Motor association.

on Mrs. Richard Kriesel, Mrs. Harvey Quist and Mrs. James Clark... The two younger Lockheed girls taking it all in... brunette Gail wearing cotton pedal pushers and blouse in gay colors, her birthday present... and Donna in a perky white plaid cotton... Mrs. Robert Cannon in a good-looking cinnamon wool two piece dress with accordeon pleated skirt... The honor guests are enroute to Toronto for the King's Plate race (comparable to of... Pretty summer white suits our Kentucky Derby)... as Mr. Lochead's brother bred horse ever to be entered in the race... JUST LIKE HIS FATHER... Little Jimmy Nicholson, III, wore a miniature pink boutoniere for his christening last Sunday just like those of his father and god-fathers.

Mu Phi Epsilon, national music honorary on the Willamette university campus, will present a musicale on Sunday, May 18 at the Willamette university music hall at 3 o'clock. The interested public is invited to attend.

Mrs. William Galloway has invited the Alpha Xi Delta alumnae to her home, 905 Leslie street, Tuesday night at 8 o'clock. Miss Jean Williams from the extension division at Oregon State college will speak on her experiences with the Red Cross during the war. All Alpha Xi Deltas are invited.

A GARDEN SETTING... Gorgeous were the floral decorations at the formal dance of Dwight Quisenberry and Don Phillips a week ago... A farewell party for the boys who are graduating... Bordered the orchestra was box hedge with potted geraniums... In every corner and entrance way were snowballs, spirea, and hawthorne... Over in the fireplace in the entrance hall a leg-horn hat filled with flowers... Punch and cake served downstairs... Ivy and roses decorating the punch bar where P. D. Quisenberry and Charles Huggins presided... and William Phillips the hat check man...

The dancers... Don Phillips escorting pretty, brunette Patricia Burrell, who wore a yellow frock with large orchids printed on the bodice and skirt and an orchid in her hair... Barbara Hendrickson, in yellow marquisette, squired by Dwight Quisenberry... Jim Phillips and Joan Randall came up from the University of Oregon for the dance...

Others spotted... A pretty print cotton on Donna Lawrence... A chic black and white checked taffeta on Barbara King... A lovely off-shoulder pink gown worn by Marianne Bonesteel... Shell pink with lace eyelet trim chosen by brunette Charlotte Alexander... Irene McLeod in quaint frock of white faille with panier effect, full skirt and tiny shoulder straps... and a striped cotton for blonde, Suzanne Huggins...

A PERFECT MATCH... Mrs. Ronald Jones' becoming sheer wool dress matching the beautiful pink rhododendrons in her garden last Sunday when their gardens were open... A beautiful sunny day... guests coming from 12 to 7... A lovely setting... the pool, outdoor fireplace, white wrought iron furniture... trees, pink dogwood... Informal gardens... edging one bed were strawberries in bloom.

A GALA PARTY... The John Locheads were hosts for a garden supper last Sunday for their house guests, the Patrick Thynes of Hollywood... She, a niece, tall and slender and wearing a black pique frock with flared skirt and white stitching... Mrs. Thyne's best friend, Mrs. Percy Jenners of Vancouver, B. C., flew down for the party... She was smartly dressed in a black gabardine suit with long double breasted jacket, jet buttons and white pique revers... Joan Lochead and college friends came dashing in for supper enroute back to college after a weekend in Hillsboro... The collation... something to talk about, everything one could think
