Reports Heard

Mrs. Jeannette Van Santen, newly elected president of the West Salem VFW auxiliary, presided at the business meeting Thursday. Committee reports were heard and a report on the district meeting held in Dallas on Wednesday was given by Mrs. Elizabeth Hoffman and the president.

Mrs. Avona Osborne was appointed poppy chairman. Mrs. Charlotte Curtis was a guest. The post and auxiliary will continue to hold business meetings on the 2nd Thursday of each month and a social affair on the 4th, it was announced.

Expected in the capital next weekend for a several weeks visit are Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Epley of Youngstown, Ohio, who will be house guests of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. James L. Cooke. Mrs. Epley has visited the Cookes before, but this will be his first trip to Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil H. Bassett (da Laverne Casey) who were married on April 12 at the First Christian church by the Rev. Dudley Strain. The bride is formerly of Saco and her husband is from Bangor, Maine. A reception followed at the Dale Thompson home. The couple will reside at 444 S. High st. Mr. Bassett is associated with Hunt's photo studio. He attended Trenton university and has been employed by the war department. (Hunt's photo studio).

Garden Tea Plans Made

Detailed plans are underway for the garden tea to be given by the Salem branch of Zonta International, at the home of Mrs. Chester Cox May 21, as a benefit for the Helen Yockey Memorial Fund. This money is being raised to completely furnish and equip a pediatric ward in the Salem General hospital, as a memorial to the late Helen Yockey, an active member of the Salem Woman's Service club, and an ardent worker for the hospital.

All organizations, both men and women, are being issued invitations to attend the tea and view the gardens of Mrs. Cox. Hours have been set from 3 until 9 o'clock, to accommodate business people. The gardens are to be lighted in the evening. The entire Zonta club is acting as a committee to be in charge of the affair, with Mrs. C. W. Stacey acting as coordinator. Mrs. Theodore Madsen, jr., president of the club is directing the various groups.

Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Lindgren will leave by train Thursday for Detroit, Mich., where they will visit their son-in-law and daughter and family, and Mrs. E. W. Norman, Mary and Judith.

Mrs. Lloyd Wood was hostess to the Dine and Do club Thursday for a luncheon served to Mesdames P. O. McFarland, Walter Conbay, Albert Stredwick, John Sloan, Lawrence Bagger, John Derrick, Gerald Lappen, Dean Brenehan, P. T. Andregg, Delbert Goode and A. Ellis. The next meeting will be with Mrs. J. Clair West in October.
