Lazor Winner as Tacoma Misplay Fatal: Bremertons Foe Tonight

TACOMA, June 12 .- (Special)-An overthrow at first base on at tempted completion of a 10th inning double play which permitted Mel Nunes to score tonight netted the Salem Senators a 4-3 decision over the Tacoma Tigers. The triumph gave the Solons the series, two games to one, and strengthened their hold on the Western Inter-Indians Gain national league's third place position. Tomorrow night the Salem's move to Bremerton for a four-game series with the loop-On Bremerton leading Bluejackets.

Vince Lazor went the route for Jack Wilson's crew tonight, giving up but seven hits in registering his fourth win against three

The Solons opened fast with three counters in the first frame off Mitchell Chetkovich. That trio came on doubles by Nunes and Hal Summers, Bob Moore's single and an error. The Tigers came back with one in the fourth via Glenn Stetter's two-base wallop and Earl Kuper's bingle -- and tied it up in the sixth on singles by Tedeschi, Stetter and Paton plus a Salem error.

The way was paved for the big break in the 10th as Nunes and Moore singled with one out. Lou Kubiak then hit a potential twinkill ball on which the bad throw

Moore topped the Senators' hitsmen with three for five.
