

Visitors Are Guests in Capital

The summer season always brings many visitors to the capital for sojourns with their families and friends.

Mrs. Gerald Bonington and daughter, Beatrice Ann, are arriving today from their home in Berkeley, Calif. for a visit with her brother and sister-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Rusk Blatchford. Accompanying the travelers north are Mrs. Ben Rickli and daughter, Jean, also of Berkeley, who visit relatives in Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Reed of Houghton, Saskatchewan have arrived in the capital from Alaska for a several weeks visit with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Leshar. This is their first visit in Salem in 17 years. The Reeds are also visiting other members of their family in Washington during their stay in the states.

A guest at the home of Mrs. B. O. Schucking this week is Alfred deMoro of Detroit, Michigan, who is with the Florist Telegraph Delivery association in Detroit. He came west to hold a floral clinic in Portland on Monday and one in Eugene on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Shaffer and daughters, Mary Gayle and Margaret Ann, are expected in the capital today from Kent, Wash. to spend the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel B. Gillette. Mr. Shaffer will attend the Willamette university board of trustees meeting on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Brewster have as their house guests their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dwayne Brewster of Guntine, Calif. Mr. Brewster graduated from Salem high school and received his B.S. degree in chemistry at Willamette university. He is now director of the department of analytical research for the Avocet company in San Francisco. His wife is also a research chemist for the same firm. While here Mr. Brewster received his Master of Science degree at Oregon State college last Sunday.
