

Miss Moran Now Mrs. Hobbs

White with a touch of pink were the colors selected by Miss Catherine Moran for her marriage to Ernest Hobbs, Tuesday night at the First Congregational church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Moran and her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Hobbs. It was at 8 o'clock that the Rev. Seth Huntington performed the ceremony before a setting of white gladioluses, stock and snapdragons. The aisle was lighted with tapers and the pews were marked with satin ribbons. In white summer frocks and carrying a candel with a gardenia, the Misses Jane Carson, Patsy Nickens, Peggy Sears and Margaret Newton lighted the tapers. Miss Elizabeth Nelson was the soloist and Jean Hobson Rich the organist.

The blonde bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a handsome gown of white satin fashioned with a low neckline and inset of shirred marquisette edged with a bertha of Irish point lace. The sleeves were long and tiny buttons extended down the back. The skirt was full and ended in a train. From a satin bandeau with a tiara of satin and pearlized orange blossoms cascaded her train length tulle veil. Her only ornament was a strand of pearls, a gift of the groom. She carried pink roses tied with pink satin ribbon.

Preceding the bride to the altar were Miss Peggy Paxson, the maid, and Misses Barbara and Gloria McClintock, bridesmaids. Miss Paxson wore white organdy, the full skirt edged with a wide ruffle and the low neckline outlined in a bertha ruffle. The bridesmaids wore white marquisette frocks with tiered ruffled skirts and ruffled berthas. The girls wore white Juliet caps with shoulder length veils and carried white satin muffs to which were pinned pink roses.

Richard Eckley was best man and seating the guests were Jerry Montgomery and Edward Fitzsimons.

For her daughter's nuptials Mrs. Moran chose a moon blue printed jersey gown with blue gloves and Mrs. Hobbs attended her son's marriage in a pearl grey crepe gown with turquoise gloves. Their corsages were pink roses and white bouvardia.

At the wedding reception which followed in the fireplace room Mrs. Edna Olson and Mrs. Orvie McCrary presided at the coffee urn. Mrs. Delmer Bates cut the bride's cake and Mrs. Luella Newton was in charge of the gift table. Miss Dolores Hamilton passed the dream cakes and Miss Suzanne Small the guest book. Serving were Misses Harriet Huston, Madeline Keene and Dolores Clement.

When the couple left on their honeymoon the bride donned a white linen suit with pearl button trim, white straw cloche adorned with field flowers in front, white accessories, and a red topper. After a trip to Victoria and other Canadian points the newlyweds will be at home at the Deveraux apartments, and in the fall will move to Corvallis where he will attend Oregon State college.

Miss Bowen Is Engaged

Adding her name to the list of brides-elect is Miss Vivian Bowen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Bowen, in a betrothal engagement to William Lind, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Lind, has been announced. No plans have been made for the wedding.

Miss Bowen and her fiancé are graduates of Salem high school. During the war he served in the army. Miss Bowen is employed at Jaquith Music co. and her fiancé at the state highway department.

The Book-of-the-Month club held its annual picnic luncheon on Tuesday afternoon at the country home of Mrs. James P. Smart. This was the last gathering of the group until fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Claybourne Dyer motored to Oregon City Tuesday night to be dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Nickerson.
