

Miss Raines Bride of Friday

Stately, colonial First Presbyterian church was the setting for the wedding of Miss Cherie Raines, daughter of Mrs. Edward N. Snyder of Anchorage, Alaska, and Wallace Harry Bonesteel, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace H. Bonesteel, Friday afternoon. It was at 4 o'clock that Dr. Chester Hamblin officiated at the nuptials. Miss Edith Fairham sang and Mrs. Ralph Dobbs was at the organ.

The altar was banked with pink and white gladioluses and white tapers. The pews were marked with clusters of the same flower, baby breath and ivy tied with white satin ribbon and in the windows were ivy bells.

Lighting the tapers were Miss Sara Ann Ohling and Miss Shirley Slater. Preceding the bride to the altar were Miss Betty Dahlberg, Portland, the honor maid, and Misses Marianne Bonesteel, sister of the bride, and Betty Paulson, as bridesmaids. The five young girls all wore identical frocks of aqua moire taffeta designed with high, round necklines, buttons down the front, cap sleeves and full skirts. They had long matching taffeta mitts and in their hair were taffeta bandeaux braided with blue net.

The maid of honor carried a cascade bouquet of pink gladioluses with bouvardis tucked in the blossoms and the attendants' crescent shaped bouquets were of the same flowers.

On the arm of her father, Lt. Col. Dee W. Raines of Long Island, N. Y., the bride walked down the aisle wearing a handsome gown of white satin fastened with a full skirt terminating in a train and finished in back with a bustle. The fitted bodice was designed with a marquisette yoke and satin bertha caught in front with a bow knot. Buttons extended down the back and the sleeves were long. For "something old" she wore an heirloom veil made train length with a wide panel of French lace down the back. A wreath of orange blossoms held her veil in place. Her cascade bouquet was of white gladioluses and bouvardia.

Cousin Is Best Man
John Golding Walls of Seattle stood with his cousin as best man and sealing the guests were Gordon Cline of Burlingame, Calif., James Phillips and Richard Hendrie.

The bride's mother was unable to be present for the ceremony. Mrs. Bonesteel attended her son's nuptials in an aqua crepe gown enhanced with a lace yoke and sleeves of the material and draped skirt. Her flowers were Duchesse red roses and in her hair she wore an arrangement of roses and plumes.

The couple greeted their guests at a reception at the bride's sorority house, Alpha Chi Omega. Receiving with the bridal party was Mrs. William E. Kirk, the Alpha Chi house mother, who wore a peony gown with gardenia corsage. Mrs. E. F. Bonesteel presided at the coffee urn and Mrs. G. Frederick Chambers was at the punch bowl. Mrs. John Walls of Seattle, aunt of the groom, cut the cake. Mrs. Merrill Ohling invited the guests to the dining room and assisting were Mesdames William L. Phillips, Raymond and Russell Bonesteel, F. Ernest Bonesteel of Longview and Philip Allison. Serving were Misses Sara Ann Ohling, Shirley Slater and Mrs. Emory Hendrickson. Miss Beverly Kenney passed the guest book and Miss Leah Lowry the dream cakes. Miss Dorothea Steusloff was in charge of the gift room. Miss Margaret Ann Hartsock greeted guests at the door.

When the newlyweds left on their wedding trip the bride donned a duty pink gabardine suit with cuff sleeves and cutaway jacket. Her accessories and straw hat with veiling were white. Pinned to the shoulder of her suit was a white orchid. After July 1 the couple will be at home at 703 North Liberty street.

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Parker have had as their house guests this week her brother and sister-in-law, Colonel and Mrs. Tyler J. Walker of Mill Valley, Calif. Colonel Walker recently returned from Japan, where he had been chief dental surgeon with the 8th army. The Walkers are now visiting relatives in Portland and will return to Salem next Sunday before going south.

Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald H. Jacobs were his brothers and families, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Jacobs and Travis of Holyroad, Kansas, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Jacobs and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Jacobs of Portland. This was the first visit in six years that the brothers, Donald and C. W., had been together.

Miss Nelson Is Married

Miss Clarine Nelson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Nelson of Salem, and Mrs. Merle Dickens, son of Mr. and Mrs. Merle Dickens of Salido, California, were married Sunday, June first, in a double ring candlelight ceremony, at 3 o'clock at Christ Lutheran church. The Rev. R. A. Krueger officiated.

The bride wore a white brocade marquisette gown with elbow length sleeves and a long train. Her fingertipped veil was edged in lace and fell from a bonnet of roses. Her only accessories were three strands of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom. She carried a bouquet of white sweet peas with a lavender orchid.

She was given in marriage by her father. Her only attendant was her twin sister, Clarice Nelson. She wore a pink taffeta gown with a net overskirt and a white net braided band in her hair. She carried a nosegay of assorted pastel flowers with pink rosebuds looped on long white satin streamers.

Best man was Maynard Nelson, brother of the bride. Duwayne Knutson and Gordon Knutson, both of Aurora, lighted the tapers and ushered.

The mother of the bride wore a blue dress with a blue hat and white accessories. The mother of the groom wore a gray suit with black accessories. Both had pink carnation corsages.

Mrs. John Meier played the wedding march and accompanied Richard Mellum who sang. A reception followed at the parsonage with Mrs. Clarence Knutson of Aurora pouring.

A Breakfast And Shower

Miss Rita Harr will be a hostess Sunday morning at her apartment at the Olympic for the pleasure of Miss Joy Randall, popular June bride-elect of John Johnson. The couple's marriage will be a week from tonight at the First Presbyterian church.

The hostess has invited ten of Miss Randall's friends to breakfast with a miscellaneous shower honoring the bride-to-be.

Day Programs
Plan for Camp
A day camp program, for the benefit of girls unable to take in the regular summer camps, is being inaugurated by the Salem YWCA this summer, July 7 through August.

Registration opened Friday at the YW building. The program is for girls from 11 to 18 or those from sixth grade through high school.

Sponsors are the Y-Teen committee of the YW, with Mrs. Howard Post chairman, and the camp committee with Mrs. Arthur Madsen chairman.

The camp will be conducted from 10 to 4 o'clock Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of each week.

There will be arts and crafts groups, music groups, charm schools, round-table discussions, sewing and other interest groups. Fees will be small. Dorothy Wilson, University of Washington student, and Mary Ana Bollinger, Oregon State student, will be on the staff for the day camp program.

Volunteers interested in working with younger girls and who have interests in some phase of the program are invited to contact the YW.

Shoemakers To Celebrate

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin F. Shoemaker will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary on Sunday afternoon at a reception in the garden of the Court Street Christian church. Their friends are being invited through the press to call between 3 and 5 o'clock. In case of rain the affair will be held in the church parlors. Arranging the reception are Mesdames W. H. Lyman, O. P. Wegner, Kirk Simpson, H. Margi, Bruce Cooper, Toni Gosser, Darrell Herren and Miss Florence Brock.

Benjamin F. Shoemaker and Alice Wray were married on June 23, 1897 at a double wedding ceremony in which her sister, Hattie, and Charles Andrews were married in the old home Christian church of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milbird Wray in Concord, Minn. In 1900 they moved to Iowa where he attended Drake university Bible college and in 1911 came to Twin Falls, Idaho. After serving churches in Idaho and Washington they came to Court Street Christian church in January, 1929. Where they have resided with the exception of over three years in Scotts Mill. He retired from the active ministry on January, 1936.

They came back to the Court Street church while their son-in-law and daughter, Rev. and Mrs. D. W. Daniels, were located with the church, to serve as assistant and caretaker, where they are still serving. Mrs. Shoemaker has served many years as missionary state secretary in Idaho, Washington and Oregon and as Bible superintendent at Court Street Christian until this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Shoemaker have three daughters, Mrs. M. H. Price (Kathryn), who lives in Seattle, Miss Gertrude Shoemaker, a missionary of the Christian church in the Belgian Congo, Africa, having served there since 1927, and Mrs. D. W. Daniels (Margaret), whose husband is pastor of the Christian church in Medford. The Shoemakers have six grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Au Revoir Party

The Lloyd Riches home on North Summer street was the scene of a gala informal farewell party Friday night when their daughter, Patricia, entertained for her brother, Robert, who is leaving to spend the summer at McChord Field, Wash. with the ROTC.

Dancing was enjoyed during the evening with a late supper served by the hostess and her mother. Saying au revoir to Robert were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Riches, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Wyckoff, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Torgeson, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Boise, Robert Phillips and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Riches.

Betrothal Is Told

Adding her name to the list of brides-elect is Miss Patricia Mae Hedges, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hedges, whose engagement to Ralph H. Stinnett, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Stinnett of Turner, has been announced. The wedding is planned for August.

Miss Hedges is a graduate of Salem high school and is now with the Lam Scaling bureau. Her fiancé served with the army paratroopers during the war and is now with the Credit Bureaus.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Paynter and son, Warren, have returned from southern California where they visited their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Paynter. They went on to Mexico before returning north.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Jones entertained the staff members and their families of the Oregon state Farmers Union at a buffet supper on the terrace of their country place on the Pacific Highway Thursday night.

Marion County Republican Women will meet at the chamber of commerce Monday night, June 23. Important business will be discussed during the business session. Mrs. R. L. Wright is president.

Girl Scout troop 10 was entertained at the Arthur Bone's country home at Eola Friday afternoon for a barbecue luncheon. The girls cooked their own meal out-of-doors. Accompanying the troop were the leaders, Mrs. Paul Bales and Mrs. James Payne.

A Church Ceremony

At a ceremony Friday afternoon at the Court street Christian church at 2 o'clock Miss Alice B. Barham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse A. Barham, exchanged vows with Philip G. McHarness, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Charles McHarness of Spokane. The nuptials were performed by Mr. Milton Faxon of Toledo. Mrs. Walter Barham was the soloist and Miss Leona Van Tassel the accompanist.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a brocade satin gown fashioned with long sleeves, sweetheart neckline, buttons down the back and a full skirt which ended in a train. Her fingertip length tulle veil fell from a sweetheart shape crown outlined in seed pearls. She carried a white Bible marked with an orchid and bouvardia streamers.

Miss Marybelle Stanley of Toledo was the bride's only attendant and wore a pastel blue nylon gown made with full sleeves and sweetheart necklines. She carried an old fashioned nosegay of snapdragons, sweet peas and larkspur. Thomas R. Baker of McMinnville was best man and the bride's brother, J. Walter Barham, was the usher.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Barham selected a blue and white print jersey gown with white accessories and corsage of white flowers. The groom's parents were unable to come down for the ceremony.

At the reception which followed Mrs. Paul Barham poured and Mrs. Leon Schiedemann cut the cake. Mrs. Charles Meyer was in charge of the bride's table. Assisting were Misses Iris Proudfoot, Mary Lou House and Vivian Barham. Mrs. J. D. Justis, sister of the bride, passed the guest book and Daniel Barham was in charge of the gifts.

After a honeymoon trip the couple will be at home in Toledo, where he is on the high school faculty. For going away the bride wore a seafoam green suit with black and white accessories.

The Salem Writers' club met on Wednesday night with Mrs. Robert Hutcheon as hostess. Members present were Mrs. Blanche Jones, Mrs. Jessie C. Singleton, Mrs. N. F. Anderson, Mrs. Julia Lytle, Perry Reigelman, Robert Rawson and the hostess.

Mrs. Philo Hall and her children, David and Susan, of Aberdeen, South Dakota have arrived in the capital for a several weeks visit with her parents, the A. H. Nohlgrens, at their Salem Heights home.
