

How those Davidson Bakery people must like their baseball! Sponsors of the Portland games for several years, the Davidson outfit will join with Signal Oil in backing Al Schuss' casts of the Senator frays, which are tentatively set to begin July 4th.

Rollin' Along

By JERRY STONE

LOU KUBIAK

his head and sadly muttered: "Politics." . . . Play Ball, Kids schedules, secured the playing fields and distributed the players and now it's up to the kids to carry the torch as the A leaguers debut tonight.

able to take his pitching turn for several days as the flu bugs have him bedded down in a Vancouver hotel room.

Hal Summers, a dissatisfied ball player when he left the Solons, has been optioned by Portland to the Augusta club of the Class A South Atlantic league.

Solons Leave 15 on Sacks, Lose to Vancouver, 7 to 4

Eliason Defeated In Second Start

VANCOUVER, B. C., June 24 (AP)—The Vancouver Capilano tied up their series at one piece with Salem tonight when they defeated the third-place Senators 7-4 in a Western International league baseball game.

Jr. A's Open Tonight

Once again it comes time for the kids to grab their share of the local baseball stage as the Junior A leaguers—five teams and 80 players strong—open their campaign tonight at Olinger and Leslie fields.

Yank Netters In 3rd Round

Americans Sweep All Matches at Wimbledon

WIMBLEDON, June 24 (AP)—All eight seeded favorites, from American Jack Kramer on down to his fellow countryman Bob Falkenburg, advanced to the third round of the Wimbledon tennis tournament today.

Harlem-David Clash Slated

ONE REASON for the upward surge of the St. Louis Cardinals in First Sacker, Stan Musial (above) who once again is whacking the ball with deadly abandon.

Legion Plans Booster Club

Capital post 9, American Legion, this week is inviting its members to join a Junior American Legion baseball boosters club to raise funds for junior league baseball activity in Salem and for helping underwrite the August 1-2-3 playoffs in the state juniors' tournament here.

Divoters Face Busy Schedule

Another big week looms for the Salem Golf club, with the program calling for a feed-fest as features of the weekly Men's club outings Thursday night plus the usual divot play, nature to be announced later.

'A' Ball Sked

July 2—Valley Motor vs. Eagles at Olinger; Shrock's vs. Curly's at Leslie; July 9—Eagles vs. Shrock's at Olinger; Mayflower vs. Valley Motor at Leslie.

Mrs. Frank Smith Is Honored at Mill City

MILL CITY — Mrs. Charles Kelly entertained members of the Friendship class of the Presbyterian church Friday, Mrs. Frank Smith, who will leave about August 1 to reside in Sheridan, was given a shower of gifts.

Softys Resume Sked Tonight

City league softballers, after a one night's respite, resume action at Leslie tonight, with Papermakers opposing Moory's Druggists in the initial contest, and the unbeaten Master Breads crossing bats with the Pink Elephant crew in the nightcap.

WIL Scores

Table with columns for team names and scores, including Yakima, Victoria, Rompie, Kasperovitch, Spokane, Tacoma, and others.

SENATOR SWAT

Table with columns for player names and statistics, including Barr, Wilson, Moore, Skeber, Beard, Anderson, Peterson, and Spater.

Major Scores

Table with columns for league names and scores, including National League, St. Louis, Philadelphia, Cincinnati, and others.

Ruffian Trims Herb Parks

Stockey Knelson, the tough guy from the hills of Tennessee, needed all of his rough-house tricks last night in the army before he finally subdued Canadian Herb Parks in their bruising winner-take-all grudge match.

Robinson KO's Doyle in 8th

CLEVELAND, June 24 (AP)—Ray (Sugar) Robinson, coolly and skillfully defending his well-earned title for the first time, knocked out Challenger Jimmy Doyle tonight and sent him to the hospital in a "critical" condition.

She'd Be Valuable If

ATLANTA, June 24 (AP)—Hats is hair—a man, that is—but when Mrs. H. R. Burz showed up with her tricky number at the Atlanta baseball park it almost broke up the ball game.

Jim Ferrier Pockets PGA Links Title; Braves Really Threat for NL Pennant

Harbert Bows 2-1 in Finals

Remarkable Display on Greens Decides Match

DETROIT, June 24 (AP)—Big, blond James Bennett Elliott (Jim) Ferrier, who sinks putts even longer than his name, today won America's 29th PGA championship.

The Australian-born resident of San Francisco defeated Melvin (Chick) Harbert of nearby Northville, Mich., 2 and 1, in the 36-hole title round, to become the first foreign-born entrant to win the classic since Tommy Armour, the Silver Scot, turned the trick in 1930.

Vico, Reich Team for Win

PORTLAND, Ore., June 24 (AP)—A three-run ninth-inning outburst carried the Portland Beavers to a 6-5 win over the Hollywood Stars tonight in the opener of their Coast league series.

Table with columns for team names and statistics, including Hollywood and Portland.

Ruth III Again

NEW YORK, June 24 (AP)—Babe Ruth returned to the hospital today on the advice of his physicians for further treatment.

Baseball's BIG SIX

Table with columns for team names and statistics, including Boston, Cleveland, Philadelphia, St. Louis, and others.

Table of Coastal Tides

Table with columns for time, high, and low tide for various locations.

RODEO ROYALTY and prepared to supply St. Paul's annual wild west show with plenty of gulchtrude July 3-4-5 are the feminine trio pictured above.

Some Record Has Rookie Scheib

PHILADELPHIA, June 24 (AP)—Young Carl Scheib won't reach voting age in 1947 but he currently is the owner of a pitching record that, if continued, will make him a top candidate for "rookie of the year."

Bruins Arrive For Crew Race

SEATTLE, June 24 (AP)—The Bruins of UCLA dropped in by air today while the 11 other crews which will battle Saturday in the Lake Washington Regatta's second annual 2,000 meter sprint were rolling across north Idaho and eastern Washington on the last lap of a train jaunt to the west coast.

Army Aces to Play 2 Games

WASHINGTON, June 24 (AP)—The war department said today that permission has been granted Felix (Doc) Blanchard and Glenn Davis, Army's renowned "touch-down twins" to play in two charity football games late this summer—one sponsored by the Chicago Tribune at Chicago August 23 and the other by the New York Herald Tribune at New York September 3.

The Standings

Table with columns for league names and statistics, including WI League, COAST LEAGUE, and NATIONAL LEAGUE.

CONTRACT AWARDED

Contract for construction of a railroad grade separation structure on the Sunset highway approximately 1 1/2 miles north of Oreco was awarded by the state highway commission Tuesday to Birkenmeier and Sarnell, Portland, on a low bid of $35,390. Three other bids were received.

Stop Redbirds' Splurge, 9-6

Spahn Wins Another Buns, Giants Victors

By the Associated Press It's so different that it is hard to take seriously, but every day it is coming home more forcefully to the seven other National league baseball clubs that Billy Southworth and his Boston Braves actually may be the team to beat in the long pennant chase.

Schwartz Accepts

CHICAGO, June 24 (AP)—Mar-chie Schwartz, coach at Stanford university, tonight accepted an invitation to represent the far west on the coaching staff that will prepare the All-Star Collegians for their charity game with the Chicago Bears, champions of the National league at Soldier Field, August 22.

Free Demonstration Kelly & Isham Boats

SALEM BOAT HOUSE 9 to 5 Every Day

Advertisement for Rainier Extra Dry Beer, featuring a bottle of beer and the slogan 'THE MOST REFRESHING BEER'.