

Miss Joan Remington Married

Donald Edward Beecroft slipped a slender gold band on the third finger of Miss Joan Remington's left hand Saturday night. It was at 7 o'clock that the wedding ceremony took place at the First Evangelical United Brethren church with the Rev. Wilmer Brown reading the ritual. Easter lilies banked the altar and the pews were marked with white pinnies and the aisle was lighted with white tapers. Miss Donna Unruh and Mrs. David Nyberg wearing full skirted pink marquisette dresses lighted the candles. Miss Ruth Bedford was the organist and the Rev. George Millian sang.

The brunette bride, on the arm of her father, Roy W. Remington, was a picture in her white marquisette gown fashioned with eyelet organza ruffled jabot at the neckline tapering down to the waistline in front. The sleeves were long and adorned with the ruffled eyelet. The full skirt ended in a train. From a Juliet cap of net fell her three-quarter length tulle veil and she carried a prayer book marked with a white orchid.

In the bridal party were Miss Delphine Riney and Miss Jeanne Gooden, as bridesmaids, who wore mist blue marquisette frocks, and Mrs. Robert Wood (Nancy Wallace), the matron of honor, wearing a shell pink marquisette gown. The dresses were designed identical with full skirts, sweetheart necklines and three-quarter length sleeves. The girls wore satin bandeaux with clusters of flowers at the side to match their frocks and carried colonial nosegays.

Brother is Best Man
Gordon W. Beecroft was best man for his brother and seating the guests were Lyman Sundin, jr. and Roger Probert.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Karl Nyberg chose a black crepe gown with cap sleeves and draped skirt, long, black gloves, and black picture hat. Her flowers were red rosebuds. Mrs. Beecroft attended her son's marriage in a black and white silk print gown with white net hat, white accessories and corsage of yellow roses.

The couple greeted their friends at the reception which was held in the church parlors. Mrs. Gordon W. Beecroft was in charge of the dining room. Mrs. A. E. Zehelberger poured and Mrs. Albert A. Cohen cut the bride's cake. Serving were the Misses Betty Vorsteth, Dorothy Boyes, Betty Dutton and Mrs. Alvin Boyd. Misses Frances Reid and Irene Krattel were at the gift table and Judith Rae Remington passed the guest book.

For traveling the bride wore a fuchsia wool suit with dolman sleeves and cardigan style jacket. Her black open crown hat was of straw adorned with ribbon trim and her accessories were black. Pinned to her suit was a white orchid. Mr. and Mrs. Beecroft will be at home in Salem after July 15 at 1243 State street.

Miss Wilson Will Marry

At 3 o'clock Monday afternoon, June 30, at a simple ceremony at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Franklin Wilson, Miss Carolyn Wilson will become the bride of Dr. Wendell M. Keck of Stockton, California. The double ring ceremony will be read by Dr. Joseph Adams, minister of the First Methodist church, in the presence of the immediate families of the bride and groom.

The bride will be given in marriage by her father, and the ceremony will be performed before the fireplace banked with flowers. The couple will be unattended. For her wedding the bride will wear an afternoon dress of rose crepe with a corsage of white gladioluses.

Following the nuptials the couple will leave for a two weeks' trip to Victoria and Vancouver, B. C. For her going-away outfit the bride has chosen a brown-striped suit with beige felt hat and dark brown accessories.

Miss Wilson, a graduate of Willamette university with graduate work at University of California and at Oregon State college, has been a teacher in the Salem senior high school.

Dr. Keck, the son of Mrs. Warren C. Keck and the late Mr. Keck, received his bachelor of arts degree from Willamette University and his master's and doctor's degrees from Stanford university. At present he is a professor in the English department of Stockton Junior college at Stockton, California, where the couple will make their home after spending the summer in Salem.

Couple Will Wed Today

At one o'clock this afternoon at St. Mark Lutheran church Miss Roselyn M. Judkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Judkins, will become the bride of Francis E. Rothweiler, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Rothweiler. The Rev. M. A. Getzenauer will officiate and Ronald Sheets will sing. Mrs. Raymond Barton will be the organist.

The bride, who will be given in marriage by her father, will wear a white satin gown with net skirt, long sleeves and sweetheart neckline. Her long, tulle veil will fall from a halo of lace and she will carry white gladioluses and pink roses. Marjorie Wolf will be flower girl, Janet Kallio train bearer and Gary Kallio ring bearer.

Mrs. Roy Rothweiler will be the honor attendant and will wear a green taffeta gown with yellow roses in her hair. Roy Rothweiler will be his brother's best man. Ushers will be Larry McCormick and Arvo Kallio.

A reception will be held in the church parlors. Miss Jean Monaghan will pass and Miss Lynn Woodward will assist. For her daughter's nuptials Mrs. Judkins will wear a black gown with white accessories and corsage of red and white carnations. Mrs. Rothweiler will wear a black and yellow print gown with corsage of yellow roses.

After a wedding trip to California the couple will be at home in Salem at 3995 Auburn road.

Miss Clark A Bride

At a ceremony at the First Congregational church Saturday night at 8 o'clock Miss Corinne Adele Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack G. Clark of San Francisco, who came north for the rites, became the bride of Donald R. Hamilton, son of Elmer Hamilton of Salem and Mrs. Helen Southwick of Seattle. The Rev. Seth Huntington officiated at the double ring rites. Mrs. Hildur Skinner of Riverside, Calif., was the soloist. Lighting the tapers were Miss Suzanne Skinner of Riverside and Miss Patricia Selander of Coos Bay, who wore pastel suits. The pews were marked with white gladioluses and bows.

Mr. Clark gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a white gabardine suit with peplum style jacket and a Dutch white lace hat trimmed with seed pearls and white velvet. Her matching bag of white lace over satin had velvet draw strings. She carried a casmerade bouquet of white roses, Stephanotis and bouvardia.

Mrs. James Isbell was the honor attendant and wore a leaf green suit with peach maline and flowered bandau and nosegay. Bridesmaids were cousins of the bride, Misses Mary Ellen and Carol Jane Handelin of Coos Bay, who wore dusty rose and pastel green suits, respectively. They wore bandeaux of green and yellow and carried nosegays with matching frills. Gerald Clark, brother of the bride, was best man and ushers were James Isbell and Robert Hamilton.

Mrs. Clark attended her daughter's wedding in a cedar rose suit with brown accessories, and brown hat with crown of rose feathers. Her corsage was of salmon gladioluses and bouvardia. Mrs. Southwick attended her son's marriage in an aqua suit with pink brown accessories and corsage of white roses and pink bouvardia.

At the reception which was held in the fireplace room Mrs. Hilmore Handelin cut the cake. Mrs. George Shields presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. J. P. Hamilton poured coffee.
