

Seen and Heard...

By Jerome English

TRAVEL NOTES. . . . Friends of Tom Brand, son of Judge and Mrs. James T. Brand, now in Neurenberg, Germany, will be interested to know he is now on the high seas, bound for Europe to spend the summer. . . . He will be met in Paris by his mother. . . . In the fall he will return to his studies at Stanford, stopping here en route south. . . .

Homeward bound. . . . soon will be Major and Mrs. Farley Mogan and two and a half months old daughter, Martha Nell, who will be flying home from Frankfurt, Germany. . . . expecting to arrive in Salem by July 10. . . . Mrs. Frank Mogan, who has been living in her son's house while he was in the army, has already engaged an apartment which she will take on their arrival. . . .

July sailing date. . . . Mrs. Winston Williams received her port call this week for Frankfurt, where her army captain husband is stationed with the signal corps. . . . She and her mother, Mrs. Thomas Holman, leave Monday by car for New York. . . . Grace will report at Fort Hamilton July 18. . . . They will take a jaunt to Connecticut to visit the old Litchfield homestead. . . . Grace plans to visit her father's relatives in England while in Europe. . . . Mrs. Holman will return home by train. . . .

HONOR GUESTS. . . . at the delightful tea Mrs. W. E. Hutchens gave on Monday for Joy Randall, now Mrs. John Johnson. . . . the honor guest were a white two-piece outfit. . . . blonde Harriet Hawkins, Bill Duncan's bride-to-be, in a becoming navy blue bolero dress with white, ruffled blouse. . . . and Mrs. Dick Hackett, who flew up from Stockton with her eight months old girl, Susan, for her cousin John's wedding. . . . During the tea Mrs. James Linn had the time of her life caring for Susan and wheeling her around the block. . . . Mrs. Robert Duncan over from Silverton to greet Harriet, who has a busy summer ahead furnishing her future home in Silverton. . . . which incidentally is the first house Bill ever lived in. . . . right around the corner from his parents. . . .

Mothers and daughters. . . . Mrs. Karl Becke and Miriam, who has been busy getting settled in her new cottage, E. S. Covert and Virginia, smart in beige silk crepe with draped skirt and black straw sailor. . . . accompanying them was Evelyn Johnson in a pretty print. . . . Mrs. Gordon McGilchrist in black accented with pink cuffs with her pretty daughter, Beverly, who marries Bland Simmons in the fall. . . . The young folks are excited about living in their new trailer house (a gift of Bland's father) at Corvallis in the fall, which will be next to another Phi Phi sister and her husband. . . . Bland flew Sunday to Stanford after serving as best man for Courtney Jones when he married Dolores Hamilton. . . .

A frosted green gaudy cloth with scalloped border on the tea table. . . . roses and Esther Reed daisies for the centerpiece. . . . Sweet were Martha Marshall, Joan Marie Miller and Sharon Brown assisting in their pretty formals. . . . and Joan Randall in a black taffeta bustle dress sprinkled with embroidered flowers. . . .

WEDDING ECHOES. . . . Dozens of Salem people in Hood River last Sunday for the marriage of pretty, brunette Mary Kathryn Finney and Stuart Compton at Riverside church. . . . An all white wedding, even to the men's white coats and bridesmaids dresses. . . . for a touch of color arm bouquets of roses carried by the girls. . . . Stunning was Mrs. Henry V. Compton in a shell pink faille tunic suit with ripple back, pink flowered hat with tulle, long, pink gloves and carrying her gardenia corsage. . . . Barbara Compton in a black and white linen ensemble with becoming black picture hat of horsehair braid adorned with white flowers. . . .

Gorgeous view. . . . of the Columbia river and the mountains from the Finney home, where guests mingled inside and in the garden for the reception. . . . The bridal couple almost got away with no rice, leaving by the side door. . . . then dashing up the street and speeding away in their new car, a wedding gift, to Lake Louise and Banff. . . . A gala reunion for the Compton family at the Columbia Gorge hotel during the weekend. . . . his cousins coming from Boise and her brother and family from Seattle. . . . The Lester Newmans, who with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Wells, attended the nuptials, had quite a surprise the night before when they were in Portland at Donald's cousin's wedding. . . . After being seated they noticed Donald and Marie Ann up front, who hadn't told them they were driving up from Modesto for the two ceremonies. . . .

TEA TIME on Friday when Mrs. C. B. McCullough entertained for her son's wife, Mrs. John McCullough. . . . The hostess in a pretty pink silk with black print and the honor guest wearing black with a side draped adorned with salmon pin flowers. . . . Beautiful view of the city as well as the lovely terraced garden from the living and dining windows. . . . Sweet and dainty. . . . the tea table with pink and white centerpiece of roses, bouvardia, snapdragons, sweet peas and candy tuft. . . . two ruffled nosegays on the buffet. . . . and gorgeous glads and begonias arranged on a low table before the fireplace. . . .

Pretty as a picture was Mrs. Carl Porter, who poured, in a black silk gown with pleated skirt and large straw hat of deep peony red with shell pink ruffled eyelet edging the brim and black roses on the crown. . . . Mrs. John Hughes distinctive in a navy blue faille suit with jacket full in back. . . . and Mrs. Ralph Cooley in a stunning two-piece faille ensemble of striped mint green and burgandy with green hat and shoes. . . .

Zosel Rites Of Interest
A wedding of interest to Salem friends of the bride will take place in McMinnville Monday night when Miss Sally Zosel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Zosel of McMinnville, formerly of Salem, becomes the bride of Richard S. Boyd, son of Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Boyd of Naches, Wash. The rites will be performed at the First Methodist church at 8:30 o'clock with Dr. Earle B. Parker, formerly of Salem, officiating. . . .

The bride, to be given in marriage by her father, will wear a white satin Empire style gown with train and short veil. She will carry a cascade bouquet of lilies, roses, bouvardia and carnations. . . . Miss Ruth Wahlgren of Eugene will be the honor maid and will wear a blue gown. Roger Paquette of McMinnville will be best man and ushers will be Russell Hadley and Richard Noakes. . . . For her daughter's nuptials Mrs. Zosel will wear a watermelon red gown with white gloves and the groom's mother will wear a navy blue gown. . . . A reception will follow in the church parlors. Mrs. Walter Zosel of Salem will pour and Mrs. Albert Gragg, Salem, will be in charge of the dining room. Mrs. Lloyd Wilson, formerly of Salem, will cut the bride's cake. Miss Patricia Zosel and Miss Carroll Jean Gragg will be among those assisting. . . . Others attending from Salem will be Mr. Zosel, Mr. Gragg, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Needham and Don Zosel. . . . The bride attended Linfield college and is a graduate nurse from Emanuel hospital. Her husband-to-be is a graduate of Linfield college and took graduate work at the University of Oregon. . . .

Mrs. Virgil E. Schuetz (Bonnie Fay Webb) whose marriage was an event of June 17 at St. Joseph's Catholic church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Manning F. Webb of Turner, and her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Schuetz of Portland. The couple will live in Salem. (Kennell-Elis).

and University of Washington. The past year he has been principal of the Dayton high school. During the war he served in the South Pacific. The couple will live in Chicago, where he will attend the University of Chicago, to obtain his master's degree in education. . . .

Birthday Party On Saturday

Miss Ruth Skinner was hostess at a birthday luncheon Saturday for Mrs. Hilary Etzel. The affair was at the Spa. Gifts were opened, and an informal afternoon followed. . . . Guests were Mrs. Etzel, Miss Elaine Taylor, Miss Rita Harnn, Cleo and Pauline Kurin, Miss Ardelle Scott, Miss Ann Anderson, Miss Eileen Karskador, Mrs. Orville South, Mrs. Richard Grabenhorst, Mrs. Robert Barnett, Mrs. Frank Crawford, Mrs. Lucille McNeill, Mrs. Homer Lyon, Jr., Mrs. Roy Ostrin and the hostess. . . .

Spinsters will meet Monday night at the Fairmount Hill home of Miss Harriet Hawkins at 8 o'clock. Further plans will be made for the table setting contest to be held later in the summer. . . .

At Church Nuptials

Miss Dorothy Brewer and Bruce A. Lockard were married at a pretty ceremony Saturday night at the Court street Christian church at 8 o'clock with the Rev. Harold Lyman officiating. Miss Edith Fairham was the soloist and Miss Beverly Lyman played the wedding music. Lighting the tapers were Miss Betty Paulsen, who wore aqua, and Miss Barbara Brundidge in a pink gown. . . .

John H. Brewer gave his daughter in marriage. Her gown was of white satin fashioned with leg-o-mutton sleeves, a fitted bodice with lace yoke enhanced with quilted satin flowers, buttons down the back and a court train. Her fingertip lace edged veil cascaded from a beaded crown. Her bridal bouquet was of white roses centered with an orchid. . . .

Mrs. David Potter was her sister's matron of honor and wore a pink net dress and carried a pastel nosegay. Mr. Potter was best man and ushers were Donald Brewer and Robert Woodburn. The groom is the son of Mrs. Marie Hyde of Los Angeles, who was unable to come north for the ceremony. . . .

At the wedding reception in the church parlors Mrs. B. F. Shoemaker cut the cake and Mrs. Clyde Verbeck poured. Miss Arleta Verbeck passed the guest book and Miss Mildred Gingrich was at the gift table. . . .

When the newlyweds left on their honeymoon to Victoria and Vancouver, B. C. the bride wore a three-piece black gabardine suit with white accessories and orchid corsage. Mr. Lockard and his bride will live in Salem. . . .

Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Fisher and daughter, Susan, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Dolph Reeves of Lebanon, will return today from a week's fishing trip to East and Diamond lakes. . . .

Announcing

The Formal Opening In Our New Location

724 S. W. Park

MONDAY,

JUNE 30th

Julia Query bonnets and bags

Jane Ambrose, Associate BEacon 9521 Formerly in The Broadway Bldg.

Willamette University College of Music

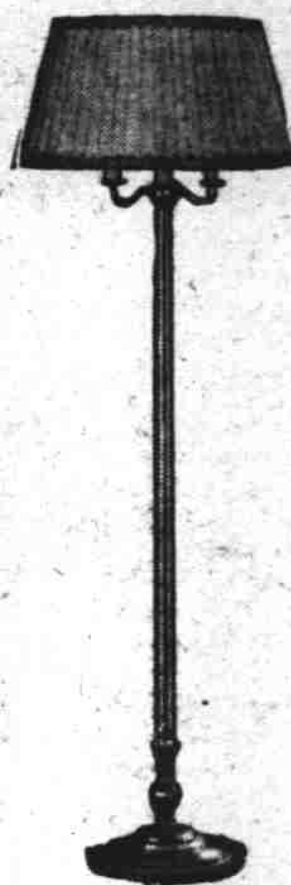

Summer Session June 23—August 30

Private instruction available in VIOLIN, VOICE, PIANO

Melvin H. Geist, Dean B.M.: M.M.
Frank Fisher, Violin, B.M.: M.M.
Bennett Ludden, Piano, A.B.: B.M.: M.M.
Ralph Dobbs, Piano
Denise Murray, Voice, A.B.: M.A.

The College of Music is an institutional member of the National Association of Schools of Music. Registration should be completed Monday, June 23, 1947 For information call: Registrar's Office Willamette University—9255

A Factory Special by Keystone

6 Way Floor Lamps
Swing Arm Lamps
Torchier Lamps

(Complete with Rayon Shades and Globes)

15.95 to 17.50

Note the features of these nationally famous lamps:

- ★ Plated bronze finish
- ★ Sturdy construction
- ★ Massive base
- ★ 6-way lighting

The Supply Is Limited so Shop Early Tomorrow.

SALEM LIGHTING AND APPLIANCE COMPANY

236 North High

Salem, Oregon

SALE STARTS MONDAY 10 A. M.

KAYS

GREATEST DRESS EVENT

2 FOR 1 DRESS SALE

Bring your neighbor, friend or relative and share in the tremendous savings now offered on beautiful spring dresses.

See our racks of the most wanted styles in all the latest shades and fabrics.

BUY ONE DRESS AND GET THE SECOND ONE FREE

No Refunds - No Exchanges - No Approvals

- KAYS -

460 State Street

Salem, Oregon

RADIO SERVICE

On All Makes

HEIDER'S

All Work Guaranteed 425 Court St. Call 7523

The Beauty Bar

201 First National Bank Bldg. Formerly Beauty Hacienda Under the New Management of Nan Williams and Zana Hales

Features
Nestle Permanents and Halliwell Cold Waves

Other $5.00 and up Phone 3925

Only 3 More Days

THE BIGGEST

"Month-Enders"

AT

LEON'S 234 N. LIBERTY IN SALEM

Shop the Windows — Compare Values