SPOKANE, July 1 -(AP)- The Spokane Indians roared back into first place in the Western International league tonight by sweeping a long double header from the Salem Senators, 6 to 3, and 16 to 1 while Bremerton dropped two to Vancouver, 14-7 and 4-2.

The second game went only six and one half innings as the midnight curfew halted proceedings. The twin bill lasted five hours.

The nightcap was one of Ferris field's wildest. Among other weird things, the Tribe scored five times in the first inning Spokane runners came home on one passed ball and Salem pitchers walked eleven men in the first four frames.

Only the opener bore a resemblance to professional basebail as big Bob Costello hung up his 13th victory of the campaign

Chief Levi McCormack hit three-run homer and socked a five of the six Spokane runs.

The twin loss was costly for 21/2 games behind the leading In- my air forces during the war to dians and left them two games temper dusty air fields. behind second-place Bremerton. The Israelite House of David's bearded baseball beauties and the Harlem Globetrotters' negro sharpies, two of the top exhibition clubs in the country every season, tonight tangle in their are tilt at Waters park at 8:15 o'clock. Unlike many of these postwar barnstorming troupes, tonight's participants are indexed as authentically two of the more capable as well as highly entertaining units to jam crowds into ball parks. Last week the Davids played before 8,264 in Spokane and 2,000 more were turned away from that tilt. The historic Davids are managed by the veteran "Doc" Tally who now confines his activities to coaching third base and participating with George (Andy) Anderson, another oldtime Davidite in the comical "pepper" game. Tally and Anderson have rounded up a classy gang of players to take care of the run-making. On the other side, Mgr. Paul Hardy's Trotters, steeped in novelties and lip as well as negro talent, present a team which sports an .800plus winning percentage against all types of competition. The Davids themselves are over the .800 level.

Senator Business Manager George Emigh has announced that regular prices will prevail for the game and glee.
