

Garden Rites For Jane Crider

DALLAS — In a setting of a half-circle of fir trees and a white-decked arch hung with white wedding bells in the garden of "Homestead" at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon, occurred the marriage of Miss Jane Crider, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Crider, to Robert L. Bauman, son of Mrs. Ethel Bauman of Lebanon. Justice Harry H. Belt of Salem read the ceremony. Rev. Earl Benbow read the prayer. Mrs. Bruce Spaulding was the soloist with Mrs. Melvin L. Gilson accompanying.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a white marquisette gown with a yoke of illusion edged with a wide tertia of knife-pleated marquisette. The tight-fitting bodice was made princess style with long pointed sleeves and tiny buttons down the front to a low pointed waistline from which fell the full gathered skirt and court train. The double fingertip veil was held in place by a Juliet cap of net with clusters of orange blossoms at each side. She carried a cascade bouquet of bouvardia, white baby gladioluses and sweetpeas. For "something old" she carried a point lace handkerchief that her grandmother Crider had carried at her marriage.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Karl H. Retzer, of Washington, D. C., sister of the bride, wore a pale yellow marquisette gown fashioned with a bustle and a cascade of deep ruffles, matching mitts and a hat of cornflowers, yellow net and long blue satin streamers. She carried a white basket of blue bachelor buttons, agapanthus and yellow daisies and blue satin ribbon. Miss Elizabeth Stott of Portland, maid of honor, wore a pink and blue tulle gown with a peg-top skirt and an off-shoulder design, branching mitts and yellow net. She carried a basket similar to the matron of honor tied with yellow satin ribbon.

Sisterhood Form Aisle

Misses Elizabeth Bowes, Patricia Hastings, Barbara Ashla, Katherine Lambert, Hoann Hutchinson, all of Portland; Margaret Sarazin of Nyssa, Betty Southwick of Lebanon and Marland Houck of Seattle, Gamma Phi Beta sisters-of-the-bride at Oregon State college, wearing pastel gowns, marked the aisle for the bridal party with white satin ribbon attached to nosegays.

James La Forest of McMinnville was the best man, Jack Crider, brother of the bride, Jerry Moody and Richard Michelson, both of Lebanon, were ushers. For her daughter's marriage, Mrs. Crider chose a gown of ashes of roses with rose applique and leaves of green sequins, black accessories and a spray of double pink bouvardia and pink baby roses. Mrs. Bauman wore a turquoise crepe gown fashioned with a side peplum, turquoise accessories and a corsage of American Beauty rose.

The reception followed the ceremony with bride's cake served in the dining room. Mrs. Harry H. Belt and Mrs. A. B. Starbuck presided at the punch bowl; Mrs. Eerie Fulgham, Mrs. Carl Gerling, er, sr., Mrs. Anson B. Cornell of Eugene and Mrs. Edward Piaseck of Salem poured. Mrs. Oscar Hayter, Mrs. Maurice Dalton and Mrs. Thomas Scroggins of Sheridan cut the cake. Mrs. Walter Vassel, Mrs. C. B. Sundberg, Mrs. Robert Clubb and Mrs. Charles Greenwood cut the iced. Assisting were Mrs. Robert J. Woods, Mrs. James E. Smith, Mrs. J. C. Tracy, Mrs. William C. Retzer, Mrs. Van Crider, Jean Taylor and Magy Harris of McMinnville; Joan Wassenson of Vancouver, Wash.; Florine Inglis, Jean Smith, and Shirley Phelps, Mrs. Warren Hunter, Mrs. Jack Eakin, Jr., Barbara Belt and Patricia Lewis of Portland.

When the couple left for a motor trip south the bride was wearing a wood green wool gabardine suit with suede brown accessories... a corsage of brown baby orchids. They will make their home in Portland where the groom is attending school.

Nuptials at St. Joseph's

S. Joseph's Catholic church was the setting for the marriage of Miss Germaine Godard of Los Angeles, and John Trumm, son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Trumm, of Salem on June 28. Father Gerald Linabren performed the 9 o'clock nuptial mass and Wayne Meusey was the organist.

For her wedding the bride chose a white lace gown with train, sweetheart neckline, long sleeves and full skirt. Her lace edged fingertip length tulle veil was caught to her hair with a ruffled coronet of net. She carried a white prayer book topped with a white orchid. Her only ornament was a string of pearls, a gift of the groom.

Mrs. William A. Trumm was the honor attendant and wore a shell pink marquisette gown with sweetheart neckline, fitted bodice and bustle bow. In her hair she wore a fluted bandeau of ribbon and carried a bouquet of white gladioluses and pink sweet peas. William A. Trumm was best man for his brother.

For her son's marriage Mrs. Trumm wore a forest green suit with white accessories and corsage of rosebuds and gardenias.

A wedding breakfast at the Marion hotel followed the ceremony. The tiered cake was flanked by bouquets of sweet peas.

The newlyweds left for Crescent lake on their wedding trip. For going away the bride wore a pastel blue suit with white accessories and orchid corsage. They will be at home in Salem for the summer and in the fall will go to Corvallis, where he will attend Oregon State college.

Picnic Held by Blue Lake Folk

Some 250 employees of Blue Lake Packers, West Salem, held a picnic at Dallas City park on Sunday. A basket lunch was served buffet style, and a short program was followed by games and contests. Charles Martin acted as master of ceremonies, and W. E. Ayers, production manager, introduced Elmore Hill, who is to succeed him in that position.

Committee for the picnic included Verla Becett, personnel manager as chairman, assisted by

Miss Baney Weds in South

From Santa Ana, California, comes news of the wedding of a Salem girl, Miss Jo Eileen Baney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Baney of Santa Ana, on June 19 at the Salvation Army citadel at 8 o'clock. Major John Allen performed the double ring ceremony before a setting of summer flowers. Mrs. Leonard McKee was the pianist and Chester Miller sang.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, J. H. Baney, wore a white faille gown with sweetheart neckline, long sleeves, peplum, and court train. Her fingertip length tulle veil fell from a cap adorned with stephanotis. She carried a white bible marked with white orchids and stephanotis.

Miss Muriel Baney, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and wore a turquoise dress. Bridesmaids were Miss Mary Lou Allen and Miss Betty Kennedy, who wore pink frocks. The attendants carried pastel nosegays. Lighting the tapers were Misses Beverly Putnam and Beverly Jones of Whittier, Calif., whose frocks were pink.

Leland Davenport was his brother's best man and ushers were Merle and Gerald Davenport, also brothers of the groom. A reception followed the nuptials. Mrs. V. O. Weathers of Albany, sister of the bride, Mrs. M. D. Putnam of Whittier, Calif., sister of the groom, Mrs. Walter Beckland and Mrs. Fred Davenport assisted.

The couple went to Laguna Beach on the honeymoon and for traveling the bride wore a pastel blue gabardine suit with white topper and white accessories. The newlyweds will be at home at 1023 West Highland avenue, Santa Ana, Calif.

The new Mrs. Davenport is a graduate of Salem high school. Her husband attended schools in Santa Ana and served in the army during the war. He is now on the staff of the Santa Ana Register.
