Summer Social Whirl ...

Entertaining during the summer months centers around parties for visitors and travelers.

Mr. and Mrs. William A. McAfee of Sacramento, who came north each summer for a visit with their Salem friends, are now guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Charles D. Wood. The Woods were hosts for a buffet supper Saturday night at their West Lefelle street home for the McAfees.

Mr. and Mrs. William T. Waterman will be hosts for a buffet supper party Wednesday night in compliment to the visitors. The affair will follow a round of golf at the Salem Golf club. Twenty-four guests have been bidden to the party.

Mrs. Robert Sprague has invited a group of matrons to her country place on Croisan Creek Friday afternoon for the pleasure of Mrs. Melvin T. Hurley, who is leaving the middle of July for Boston to join Dr. Hurley. Guests have been bidden to a 1:15 o'clock au revoir luncheon with an afternoon of cards following.

Mrs. Hurley and her children, Nancy and Timothy, have been guests at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Sprague. She will fly east and stop in New Jersey for a visit with her brother and sister-in-law, the Wallace Spragues. Dr. Hurley has accepted a fellowship in orthopedic surgery at the Lahey clinic for the ensuing year.

Table Setting Exhibit

One of the larger affairs slated for the mid-summer season will be the Spinners' table setting exhibit on Saturday, July 26, in the Mirror Room of the Marion hotel. The exhibit will be open to clubs, business organizations and individuals. Anyone wishing to display a tea, luncheon, breakfast, buffet, dinner, occasional or children's tables may call Kathleen Hug, 4666, or Carmen Campbell, 7963.

Miss Janice Nelson, vice-president, is in general charge of the benefit affair. Judging will be from 12 to 2 o'clock and tables will be open for the public to view from 2 to 9 o'clock. Tickets may be obtained at the door or from members.
