

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pedersen (Phyllis Howland) who were married on June 1 at the Leslie Methodist church. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Rose Howland and her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Soren Pedersen of Corvallis. The couple will live in Corvallis. (Kennell-Ellis).

Miss Wilson Is Married

The First Evangelical United Brethren church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Edith Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Wilson, to Richard L. Dorn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Dorn, on June 14 at 8 o'clock with the Rev. Wilmer Brown officiating at the double ring ceremony. The Rev. Oscar Brown sang.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown with a net yoke, bustle and three-quarter length sleeves. Her fingertip veil was held in place with a half hat of net with ruffled trim. She carried a white Bible topped with orchids.

Miss Flora Schlager was maid of honor and wore an ice blue gown and bridesmaids were Miss Florence Gilbert and Miss Marjory Wilson, sister of the bride, who wore rose and powder blue dresses respectively. The girls all wore matching flowered headbands and carried gardenias. Sharon Bynum was flower girl for her aunt and Mack Bynum was ring bearer.

Ross McDowell was best man and groomsmen were Clifford Boehmer and Aman Adams. William Kuntz served as usher.

A reception was held at the home of the groom's parents, Miss Marjory Wilson was in charge of the guest book and Florence Gilbert assisted in the serving.

When the couple left on their trip the bride was wearing a navy blue suit with white accessories and pinned to her suit was an orchid. Mr. Dorn and his bride will reside in Salem until September, when they will go to Corvallis, where he is attending Oregon State college.

The Jason Lee WSCS will meet Wednesday in the church parlors with board meeting at 10:30 a.m., followed by business meeting at 11 and luncheon at 12:30 served by members of the January-July circle. The lesson on "Our Homes For Children" will be presented at the afternoon session which convenes at 1:45 p.m. Mrs. George Pro will lead the devotions. All interested women are invited to attend.

Dr. and Mrs. A. D. Woodmansee have as their house guests, her cousin and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Moug and sons, Jack and Bill, of Los Angeles. They spent the Fourth of July weekend at the Woodmansee beach home at Neakowin. The travelers will remain for the week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Barrett are entertaining as their house guests their brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Noble Leland of Wendell, Idaho.

Golden Wedding Celebrated

MONMOUTH—Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Layton were honored at a golden wedding dinner celebrating their 50th anniversary, in the social rooms of the Evangelical church Wednesday night. Tables, centered with gold candles and yellow blooms, seated 90 relatives and friends. The affair was arranged by the church congregation as a surprise for the Laytons, and a gift was presented to them.

Wedding vows were renewed with the Rev. H. R. Scheuerman reading the candle-light service before an altar banked with yellow flowers. Lighting the candles were Antoniette and Nanette Fletcher; flower girls were Gloria Scheuerman and Carol Evans. Lois Evans carried the ring. Ruth Lierman played the wedding music. Soloists were Mrs. James McNisch and Mrs. George Grazen. E. A. Stebbins acted as toastmaster at dinner and responses were given by congregation members. A three-tiered cake was served by Mrs. Layton and her daughter, Mrs. Rothgeb.

The Laytons were married at Du Pont, Ohio, June 26, 1897. They came west to Washington in 1906, then lived several years in Idaho, and established the family home at Monmouth in 1906. Their children are: Mrs. Arthur Power and Donald V. Layton, Bremerton C. J. Layton, Astoria; Mrs. Carmen Rothgeb, Dallas; and Mrs. Edward Spalinger, Oak Ridge. They have 13 grandchildren.

Women of the First Presbyterian church will hold a picnic luncheon at one o'clock at the home of Mrs. C. E. Siegmund, 3455 Garden Road on Wednesday. The Four Corners bus leaves Ladd and Bush bank on the hour and cars will also be at the church to take members and friends.
