Senators Thump Stars, 11-3, For Sixth Straight Success

Lefty Mossor Gets 12th Win

Townies Gain on Vics; Play Twin-Bill Tonight

YAKIMA, July 12-(AP)-Salem's Senators ran wild against two Yakima hurlers here tonight to capture their second straight game in the five game series, 11 to 3, and run their current winning streak to six games, within one of their longest success strings of the Lefty Wandell Mossor was on the mound for the Salem club last night, and when Mossor toes the hill in Yakima, it means another loss for the Stars. Mossor wasn't as effective as usual but he had enough to keep his Indian sign on the Stars. He allowed seven hits and coasted to his 12th win of the season as against five losses.

Mossor didn't need to have too much, for his mates gave him plenty to work on. They scored once in the first, twice in the third, singles in the fourth and fifth, and went wild with six more in the seventh. Big blow in that rally was a triple by Lou

Bob Moore, Ed Barr, and Bill Beard each got three hits and Bud Peterson moved a notch closer to the charmed 300 circle with two blows in six trips. Mel Nunes got but one hit, a double, but batted in five runs. Kubiak hit in three and Beard two.

Mossor whiffed but three and walked a half dozen. The two teams go at it again Sunday in a twin-bill slated for seven o'clock. Despite the win, Salem failed to gain on either Bremerton or Spokane, running 1-2 in the league at present, but did add a half game to their margin over the fourthplace Victoria Athletics.

Both tonight's game and the Wednesday clash start at 8:15 o'clock. and the Wednesday clash start at 8:15 o'clock.

Caps Battle Valsetz Tonight, Trotters Next

Salem's Capitols face a busy week in their Myrtle Bowl acreage, starting tonight with a State league game at 8:15 o'clock with the Valsetz Loggers. On Wednesday night the famed Harlem Globetrotters visit Myrtle Bowl to play Mgr. Johnny Kolb's crew. The Trotters in an earlier visit to Waters park trounced the bearded House of Davids. Then on Thursday night the Caps play host to the State league second half leading McElroy's nine of Portland.

Tonight's mix is a must for the locals, as they have already dropped one game in the league's second half play, that to Mc-Minnville last week. Another loss will erase the Caps as a title threat, whereas a win will keep them in the thick of the scrap. Skipper Kolb has three hurlers to toss at the Loggers - - Bill Hanauska, Lee Fallins or Red Miller. Valsetz has a pair of capable lefthanders in Charley Sauvain of Oregon State college and Woodburn prominence and Ed Johnson. Sauvain likely will get the starting call. The Loggers are loaded with Oregon State players.

Tuesday Mat Card Lined Up

The second half of the double main event and the 8:30 o'clock opening preliminary now booked up, Tuesday night's weekly mat party at the armory awaits only the Match maker Elton Owen announced last night. Already having signed Villager Tony

Ross and Tennessee Toughie Stockey Kneilsen for a rematch, after Ross flattened the bearded nasty last week, Owen has handed Jack (Tiger) Kiser and Lee (Steenko) Karlinko the other main eventer. Both main events will be 2-of-3 fallers, limited to 45 minutes. The Kiser-Karlinko brawl will be the first of the pair. The prelim, another 2-of-3 faller but limited to 30 minutes will offer Al Szasz, the Hungarian swifty against freshly returned Tex Hager, himself no slouch in the speed department. Hager, a populaire here long ago, has been going great in the midwest grappling area and returned to his homeland only last week. The barrel-chested little guy always has been a crowd-pleasing operator, and so has Szasz. Theirs should be a snappy mix. Both mainer, and particularly the rematch, likely will be dingdongers leaning to the mayhemish side. Kneilsen bashed open Ross' brow last week but despite the blood Anthony came back to end the toughle's long win

Hunting Rules Set for Fall

Dates and Regulations Announced at Hearing

PORTLAND, July 12-(AP)-The state game commission today tentatively set hunting season dates and authorized a concurrent deer and elk season for southeastern Oregon Oct. 1-20.

Following two days of hearings here, the commission set the deer season for Oct. 1-20 in all but 13 closed areas in the state, and authorized an Oct. 1-20 elk season for that portion of the state east of The Dalles-California highway and south of the John Day highway from Redmond to Nyssa.

The western Oregon elk season for Clatsop, Columbia, Lincoln and that part of Lane county north of the Siuslaw river was set for Oct. 25-Nov. 2, inclusive.

The pheasant season was scheduled for Oct. 22 to Nov. 2 in eastern and southern Oregon with the Willamette valley again closed to hunting. The bag limit was set at three cocks a day and not more than six in possession.

The valley quail season for eastern and southern Oregon counties was set for the same dates, with the bag limit at five a day and ten in possession. The waterfowl season was scheduled Oct. 22-Nov. 5, inclusive and Dec. 24-Jan. 6, inclusive. There will be no antelope hunting.

that night blanked any club in the WIL. Just an indication of his stuff: Woody Salmon batted in the ninth as a pinch hitter and Peterson blew three fast ones right by H. Woodrow, which just isn't done by everybody. Salmon swung at all three but didn't come close. We truly hope Pete potsesses that kind of stuff when tolling for the Wilsons . . . When Al Schuss hit the airlanes the other night with his first Senater broadcast he was holding "best wishes" telegrams from both Red Barber and Dixie Walker, Brooklyn Dodger assoclases. Al worked with the famed broadcaster Barber on Brooklyn games and Walker is the Dodgers' fair-baired outfielding boy....

He's one of the more unglamorized players on the nine, but in our estimation wee but muscular Mel Nunes is easily the top third sacker in the WI roundup. We have a few aye ayes on that from the Waters customers also, we're sure. Night after night Mel manufactures dandy plays at the third station and although his batting average isn't ever .306 he is one of the best EBI men on the club. Mel and Bill Beard are tied for the lead in this important venture, over the 56 mark Considering this is his first year as a third baseman-Mel has played second mostly—the hard hustling Centerville, Calif., 22-year-old is doing a great job. And for such a wee guy—he stands but 5-614 — Melvin Ed-ward can and does bash some mighty clouis new and then, witness his six home runs, three triples and 26 doubles. Yes, we'll take Nunes as our top WI third sacker. . . . .

Re the league's power buys, Bill Barlsoff's 40 home rums for a new record last season may not last through this one. Victeria First-baseman Jack Hurshman, a Yankee farmhand, has 15 circuit clouts to date, with al-most two months of the season left to go. . . . The Yankees must've thought nicely of Bob Jensen's baseball future, for they paid San Francisco $19,000 for him and then farmed him to Victoria. The Seals, having had a string on the bullet-throwing righthander for years, would have lost title to Jessen automatically had they tried to farm. him out a fourth time. Three is the limit. . . .
