

Miss Gorton Now Mrs. Hanks

Brunette Wilma Gorton, daughter of the O. W. Gortons, became Mrs. Elaine Hanks at a nuptial mass Saturday morning at 9 o'clock at St. Joseph's Catholic church. The benedict is the son of Mrs. Terese Hanks and D. A. Hanks of Boise. The altar was banked with arrangements of hydrangeas, fern and tapers where Father Gerald Linahan officiated. Wayne Meusey sang before the bridal party entered and was the organist.

Mrs. William Vernon Wheeler (Janette Elaine Kuebler) who was married on July 6 at the Johnson Memorial Seventh Day Adventist church. The bride is the daughter of the E. L. Kueblers and the groom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. H. D. Wheeler of Inglewood, Calif. The couple will live at College Place, Wash. (Josten-Miller).

On the arm of her father, the bride walked down the center aisle wearing a handsome gown of white broadcrist satin designed with a full skirt which ended in a train. The fitted bodice was fashioned with long sleeves and a net yoke edged with a band of the brocade. Her fingertip length tulle veil cascaded from a band of white lace. She carried a prayer book marked with a lavender orchid.

Proceeding the bride to the altar was her sister, Mrs. John Wehrli (Jean Gorton), the matron of honor, and Mrs. James Gorton, jr., and Miss Rosemary Hanks as bridesmaids. The honor attendant wore a shell pink nylon sheer-tricot over satin and the bridesmaids dresses were pink and blue nylon sheer respectively. They were full skirted with cap sleeves and low necklines. The girls all wore white lace mitts and open crown hats with bows in back to match their frocks. They carried fan shaped bouquets of larkspur and pink carnations tied with pink and blue ribbon.

Attend the Groom

Charles Greene stood with the groom as best man and seating the guests were Tom Cooper, Monte McCargar and Herbert Savage.

Mrs. Gorton selected an aqua dress printed in black and white with draped skirt and three-quarter length sleeves. She wore a black hat and accessories and corsage of pink roses. Mrs. Hanks attended her son's wedding in a black two-piece ensemble with pink hat and accessories and corsage of pink carnations.

A wedding breakfast for the newlyweds was held at the Gorton home and in the afternoon they greeted their friends at a reception at the Salem Woman's club between 1:30 and 3 o'clock. Miss Ruth Barber cut the cake. Miss Artie Phillips presided at the coffee urn and Miss Barbara Kent was at the punch bowl. Mrs. Frank Imper served the groom's cake. Miss Joyce Gorton passed the guest book and Miss Cecelia Greene and Miss Jean Weger were in charge of the gift table.

The couple went north to Victoria, B. C., on their wedding trip. For traveling the new Mrs. Hanks donned a Kelly green wool suit with fitted jacket designed with peplum, black hat and accessories. Pinned to her suit was a lavender orchid. Mr. Hanks and his bride will reside at 1391 Elm street in West Salem.

Seen and Heard...

By Ieryne English

MOVING TIME . . . The Hunt Clarks and three children are making plans to move this month to their newly built home on Culver Lane . . . a three acre place with a lovely view overlooking the mountain range to the east . . . Although no cherries this year, the Clarks are keeping the name, "Cherry Hill," for their place. Another Salem landmark to be sold is the old Henry Thiesen place on Court street, recently owned by their daughter, Mrs. O. K. DeWitt, who now lives up on the Santiam above Lyons. . . The DeWitts have been packing and storing furniture. . .

The Daniel J. Frys have purchased the lovely old Fry home on South High street from his mother's estate. . . They have extensive plans for remodeling and decorating. . . the large verandas have already been removed. . . This will be a landmark to be restored by the family instead of sold. . . The Edwin Armstrongs, who have been living in the Fry home, have leased a house on North 18th street and hope to be moved by the end of the month. . . Mrs. Raymond Walsh, who has had rooms upstairs, is house-hunting and until accommodations are found is with her daughter, Mrs. Joseph Craig. . . She has stored her lovely antiques for the time being. . .

BEACH BOUND . . . are the Werner Browns and James Waltons, who have new summer homes under construction at Neskonung. They hope to be moved in by mid-August, so as to enjoy the remainder of the summer at the beach. . . The Brown's one story modernistic home is next to the Robert Herrall's house, which was finished in the spring. . . The Walton's summer home is located just south of the Purvine house. TO COME NORTH . . . for a visit in August are Mr. and Mrs. George Abbott and son, who are in Whittier, California now, while he is completing work on his master's degree at the University of Southern California. . . They will be with her sister and family, the Leon Barricks. . . The Abbotts plan to return to Nevada City, California, in the fall, where he will teach.

LUNCHEON NOTES . . . at Normandy Manor on Thursday when Mrs. Ralph Campbell entertained for her house guest, Mrs. William Gosser of Portland, here with her two children until they receive their port call to leave for Munich, Germany, to join Mr. Gosser, who is with the war department. . . Mrs. Gosser, chic in a mocha brown suit with balloon sleeves and pearl bracelet, hat of brown plaid with cinnamon chiffon drapes at the side. . . She formerly lived here, is having a grand time seeing her old friends. . . Also down from Portland for the occasion were two college friends of the hostess and honor guest, Mrs. Dwight Parr, who also lived here at one time, and Mrs. Sidney Smith, both smartly dressed in tailored suits and straw chapaneux.

Among those present . . . Mrs. Merrill Ohling striking in a burgandy red pleated skirt with white jacket and black straw hat. . . Mrs. Wallace Bonesteel in a starlight blue silk. . . A chateausse pleated skirt dress with black straw picture hat chosen by Mrs. Kenneth Bell. . . and sophisticated in all black were Mrs. Ralph Hamilton and Mrs. William G. Stacey. . . Mrs. Frank Prime tanned from vacationing at their summer place at Devils Lake. . . and wearing a grey silk with printed bodice and open crown straw adorned with flowers the shades of the print. . . A pretty print and large, brimmed hat on Mrs. F. W. Poorman. SOON TO BE HOME . . . Returning to the states the latter part of July will be Miss Marion Morange, associate professor of French at Willamette university. . . She has had a fellowship at the Sorbonne in Paris the past year. . . Before returning to Oregon she will spend a week at Middlebury college, Vermont, where she will receive the degree of Doctor of Modern Languages at the completion of her project. . . In her studies she has had the rare privilege of visiting the art studio of the former wife of the late Eugene Dabit, a modern French novelist, who she is using as the center of her study of the populist movement. . . She was most hospitable, allowing Miss Morange complete use of a cupboard full of materials. . . She writes that she has had enough to eat, but there is no heat in her home. . . while studying she is bundled up as if going to a football game. . . Miss Morange has taken excursions to Saint-Germain-en-Laye, the Oise Valley and visited the Cathedral at Chartres.

MOVING TIME . . . The Hunt Clarks and three children are making plans to move this month to their newly built home on Culver Lane . . . a three acre place with a lovely view overlooking the mountain range to the east . . . Although no cherries this year, the Clarks are keeping the name, "Cherry Hill," for their place. Another Salem landmark to be sold is the old Henry Thiesen place on Court street, recently owned by their daughter, Mrs. O. K. DeWitt, who now lives up on the Santiam above Lyons. . . The DeWitts have been packing and storing furniture. . .

MOVING TIME . . . The Hunt Clarks and three children are making plans to move this month to their newly built home on Culver Lane . . . a three acre place with a lovely view overlooking the mountain range to the east . . . Although no cherries this year, the Clarks are keeping the name, "Cherry Hill," for their place. Another Salem landmark to be sold is the old Henry Thiesen place on Court street, recently owned by their daughter, Mrs. O. K. DeWitt, who now lives up on the Santiam above Lyons. . . The DeWitts have been packing and storing furniture. . .

MOVING TIME . . . The Hunt Clarks and three children are making plans to move this month to their newly built home on Culver Lane . . . a three acre place with a lovely view overlooking the mountain range to the east . . . Although no cherries this year, the Clarks are keeping the name, "Cherry Hill," for their place. Another Salem landmark to be sold is the old Henry Thiesen place on Court street, recently owned by their daughter, Mrs. O. K. DeWitt, who now lives up on the Santiam above Lyons. . . The DeWitts have been packing and storing furniture. . .

Home Rites Today

The Kingwood Heights home of Mr. and Mrs. Barney Van Onsenoord will be the setting for a lovely mid-summer wedding this afternoon at 3 o'clock when Miss Bonnie Barton and Donald D. Baker exchange their marriage vows. Dr. Chester W. Hamblin will perform the nuptials before the fireplace which will be banked with arrangements of white gladioluses and greens. Miss Glenn Allen will be the soloist and Miss Janet Miller will play the organ accompaniment and wedding march.

Mr. Van Onsenoord will give the bride in marriage. For her wedding she has chosen a navy blue afternoon dress designed with a peplum which terminates in a cascade ruffle to the hemline in back. The cap sleeves are scalloped and her only ornament will be a strand of pearls. She will wear a wide brimmed open crown navy straw hat and navy and white accessories. She will carry a prayer book topped with white gladiolus blossoms and stephanotis.

Miss Shirley Post will be the bride's only attendant and will wear a beige crepe afternoon dress with ruffle trim and cap sleeves. She will wear a white hat and accessories and her flowers will be gardenias and tulsipans roses. Victor Veyelle will stand with the groom as best man.

Mrs. Van Onsenoord will attend the nuptials in a brown polka dot silk afternoon gown with brown accessories and a corsage of gardenias. Mrs. Dean F. Goodman will wear a black gown with gardenia corsage for her son's marriage.

A reception will immediately follow the ceremony. Mrs. Warren Baker is in charge of arrangements and will cut the bride's cake. Mrs. Arnold Krueger will preside at the punch bowl. Serving will be the Misses Patricia Macnamara, Jean Doolittle and Lola Mae Windecker.

For traveling the bride will wear a brown dress with gold trim, beige topper with gold buttons and white accessories. Mr. Baker and his bride will make their home in Salem. He will attend Willamette university in the fall.

Nuptials at St. Joseph's

At a 10:30 o'clock ceremony Saturday morning at St. Joseph's Catholic church Miss Maxine Woodruff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Woodruff, became the bride of Waldron Hillpot, jr., son of Mrs. Juanita Gallegos of Denver, and Waldron Hillpot of Salem. Father Gerald Linahan performed the nuptials and Wayne Linahan performed the nuptials and Wayne Meusey was the soloist and organist.

The bride selected a pastel green wool suit, the jacket fashioned with dolman sleeves and tie front for her wedding. She wore a white horsehair braid hat, white accessories and carried a pastel nosegay. Mr. Woodruff gave his daughter in marriage.

Miss Maeyle Woodruff was her sister's honor maid. She wore a grey tulle with pink hat and accessories and carried a mixed nosegay. Gordon White was best man and ushers were Wendell Macklin and Dale Woodruff.

Mrs. Woodruff wore a teal blue gabardine suit with white accessories for her daughter's wedding and the groom's mother, who came west for the ceremony, chose a grey wool dress with black accessories.

The newlyweds greeted their guests at a reception in the Marine room of the Marion hotel. Mrs. W. P. Hillpot cut the bride's cake and Mrs. Earl Viesko presided at the coffee urn. Serving were Miss Phyllis Sanders and Mrs. John Meier. Mrs. Charles F. Davis had charge of the gift table and Miss Ella Lovre passed the guest book.

Mr. Hillpot and his bride have gone south to California on their honeymoon. They will reside in Salem at 705 Ferry street. The groom is in business here with his father.

Betrothals Revealed

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Otis Lightfoot are telling of the engagement of their daughter, Miss Pauline Alice Lightfoot, to Robert Gilbert McBride, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. McBride of Olathe, Kansas. The wedding will take place in Salem this fall.

The bride-elect is a graduate of the University of Oregon and her fiancé is a graduate of Olathe schools. He recently returned from Germany, where he has been serving as a lieutenant in the occupational army. The couple will make their home in Kansas.

Miss Lynch to Wed

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Lynch of Silverton are announcing the betrothal of their daughter, Jane, to Stanford A. Gotter, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Gotter of Hillsboro.

Miss Lynch is employed by the state tax commission and Mr. Gotter is a driver for Pacific Greyhound. The wedding will take place this fall.

Winifred Byrd Visits

Miss Winifred Byrd, formerly of Salem but now of North Hollywood, is visiting her aunt Mrs. L. H. McMahan for several weeks. She arrived by plane a week ago.

Miss Byrd, sister of Clarence Byrd, has not visited in Salem for many years. She is a pianist, and teacher of piano of considerable fame.

Barn Dance Set For August

One of the most enterprising of community groups around is the Roberts Grange, which puts on several outstanding events each year to raise funds for its various enterprises.

This time it is to be a barn dance, at the Flying E ranch home of the Lee U. Eyerlys on August 9. There will be old time dances, a caller and an orchestra. The dance is open to the public.

The Salem Central WCTU will hold its annual picnic luncheon on Tuesday on the lawn of the Eugene Proett home, 1064 Oak st., at 12:30 p. m. A special farm home program will be given at 2 o'clock. All interested friends are invited to attend and bring picnic baskets and table service.

NOTICE!
Bishop-Moderne Studio
Newly Decorated
Come in and see our work.
520 State St. Phone 5722

As advertised in MADEMOISELLE

It's neat
It's sweet
It's a Cobbie

A wonderful little shoe by Gold Cross. Clever and casual and campus-wise . . . right down to its nimble Neolite sole. Career girls love it, too. Perfect dream on your foot. It's Fit Tested.

GOLD RED CROSS SHOES
AMERICA'S UNCHALLENGED SHOE VALUE

Miller's

CLUB CALENDAR
MONDAY
Marion auxiliary, VFW, meet at VFW hall, 8 p.m.
Salove club meet at YWCA, 8 p.m., picture of Oregon scenery, to take vocational aptitude tests.
Deaconess hospital auxiliary meet with Mrs. F. F. Wedel, 12:30 no-host luncheon.
TUESDAY
Salem Central WCTU annual picnic with Mrs. Eugene Procott, 1064 Oak st., 12:30 p.m.
WEDNESDAY
Young Matrons club meet at YWCA, 7:45 p.m. W. C. Dyers speaks on Christy Festival.

Betrothals Revealed

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Otis Lightfoot are telling of the engagement of their daughter, Miss Pauline Alice Lightfoot, to Robert Gilbert McBride, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. McBride of Olathe, Kansas. The wedding will take place in Salem this fall.

The bride-elect is a graduate of the University of Oregon and her fiancé is a graduate of Olathe schools. He recently returned from Germany, where he has been serving as a lieutenant in the occupational army. The couple will make their home in Kansas.

Miss Lynch to Wed

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Lynch of Silverton are announcing the betrothal of their daughter, Jane, to Stanford A. Gotter, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Gotter of Hillsboro.

Miss Lynch is employed by the state tax commission and Mr. Gotter is a driver for Pacific Greyhound. The wedding will take place this fall.

Winifred Byrd Visits

Miss Winifred Byrd, formerly of Salem but now of North Hollywood, is visiting her aunt Mrs. L. H. McMahan for several weeks. She arrived by plane a week ago.

Miss Byrd, sister of Clarence Byrd, has not visited in Salem for many years. She is a pianist, and teacher of piano of considerable fame.

Barn Dance Set For August

One of the most enterprising of community groups around is the Roberts Grange, which puts on several outstanding events each year to raise funds for its various enterprises.

This time it is to be a barn dance, at the Flying E ranch home of the Lee U. Eyerlys on August 9. There will be old time dances, a caller and an orchestra. The dance is open to the public.

The Salem Central WCTU will hold its annual picnic luncheon on Tuesday on the lawn of the Eugene Proett home, 1064 Oak st., at 12:30 p. m. A special farm home program will be given at 2 o'clock. All interested friends are invited to attend and bring picnic baskets and table service.

NOTICE!
Bishop-Moderne Studio
Newly Decorated
Come in and see our work.
520 State St. Phone 5722

As advertised in MADEMOISELLE

It's neat
It's sweet
It's a Cobbie

A wonderful little shoe by Gold Cross. Clever and casual and campus-wise . . . right down to its nimble Neolite sole. Career girls love it, too. Perfect dream on your foot. It's Fit Tested.

GOLD RED CROSS SHOES
AMERICA'S UNCHALLENGED SHOE VALUE

Miller's

Chairmen Selected

Mrs. Virgil Golden, who will serve as president of the Salem branch, American Association of University Women the ensuing year, has announced her committee chairmen. Officers serving with Mrs. Golden are Mrs. Vernon Wiseman, vice-president; Mrs. Ervin Potter, secretary; and Miss Helen Fletcher, treasurer.

Chairmen are as follows: Miss Jessica Kinsey, arts; Mrs. Charles Layport, education; Mrs. C. A. Pratzke, fellowship; Miss Lella Johnson, historian; Mrs. Gordon O. Leonard, international relations; Miss Eleanor Roberts, legislative; Mrs. Stearns Cushing, jr., membership; Mrs. Curtis Ross, program; Mrs. E. A. Carleton, publicity; Mrs. Robert E. Corey, recent graduates; Miss Lenore Headley, social studies; Mrs. B. McCargar, bulletin; Mrs. Wayne Doughton, decorations; Mrs. Elmer O. Berg, hospitality; Mrs. Albert Cohen, special activities; and Mrs. Guy Hickok, student loan fund.

The Gamma Phi Beta alumnae will meet Monday night at the Park avenue home of Mrs. Lester Carter.

The Beauty Bar

Facial
Massage
Manicures
Karyole Cold
Wax
Karyole Safe
Wax Per-manents

Operated by Nan Williams
Phone 3225
261 1st National Bank Bldg.
Wed. Evn. Appointments

FUR STORAGE!

"Where the Best is Always the Cheapest"

- REPAIRING
- RE-STYLING
- CLEANING

All on the Premises

Miller's

are you...

Best size 32 to 44

slender average or full hip

short average or tall

Artemis

matches all your proportions in "IMAGE" figure-proportioned slips

$350

Miss Dorothy Haqerling . . . of Artemis Factory will be in the lingerie sections to demonstrate "IMAGE" slips.

Perfect fit in a slip has become of almost equal importance to perfect fit in a dress. That's why Artemis has created IMAGE . . . the figure-proportioned slip especially designed to suit you . . . regardless of what your figure type may be. An IMAGE slip molds your bust, is trim at your waist, smooth on your hips, with a straight, just-right-length hemline. For beauty, comfort and an ideal foundation for your wardrobe, choose an IMAGE slip of soft, lace-trimmed Bur-Mil crepe.

Second Floor

Miller's

*Reg. U.S. Pat. Off.

State Department To Be Organized

Mrs. N. A. Thayer, state aide of the National Department, Marine Corps League auxiliary, Mrs. C. A. Larkin and Mrs. A. W. Engelking, all of Portland, were special guests of the Salem unit, auxiliary, at the meeting of the auxiliary July 10 at the Normandy Manor. Plans were formulated for the organization of a state department for Oregon of the M.C.L. auxiliary, which will be organized July 26 and 27 when the Marine Corps League will hold its annual encampment in Salem.

Auxiliary units from Portland, Eugene, Oregon City and Salem will complete the organization at that time. Headquarters for the meeting on July 26 and 27 will be at Normandy Manor. A business meeting will be held on Saturday afternoon, a banquet for the League and auxiliary will be Saturday night at Normandy Manor, and election of officers and installation of same will be held Sunday, July 27. Mrs. Dave Furlough and Mrs. Jack Simkins will be in charge of registration of auxiliary members. Miss Goida Wheeler and Mrs. Eva Rush are in charge of decorations. Mrs. Christine Mumm is president of the Salem unit.

TURNER—Mrs. Leo Klockstad and Mrs. Howard Prohoska were hostesses at the latter's home for shower honoring Mrs. Delmer Coville, a recent bride. Guests included Mrs. G. J. Newman and Miss Jessie Walker of Woodburn, Mrs. C. E. Coville, Mrs. Henry Bower, Mrs. J. E. Brown, Mrs. Guy Chapman, Mrs. Ray Grim, Mrs. Kenneth Chapman, Mrs. W. A. Rankin, Mrs. Faye Webb, Mrs. Robert Mitchell, Mrs. L. E. Petersen and Ruby, Mrs. Dick Chapman, Mrs. Floyd Philug and Mrs. Floyd Philug, jr.

Tracy-Baker Vows Read

John K. Tracy and Miss Beatrice M. Baker were united in marriage Thursday at a high mass at St. Joseph's Catholic church with Father Gerald Linahan officiating. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Baker and wore a white suit with matching accessories for her wedding. She carried a white prayer book marked with a lavender orchid. Attending the couple were Miss Betty Schaffer and Clarence Rund. A wedding breakfast was held at the Salem hotel after the nuptials.

The couple left for Alaska where they will make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schneider left Saturday for a two weeks fishing trip on the Rogue River as guests of Dr. and Mrs. A. W. Glutsch of Medford, formerly of Salem, at their summer home.

THE BEST FUR SERVICE IN TOWN OR YOUR MONEY BACK!

- ★ STORAGE
- ★ CLEANING!
- ★ RESTYLING
- ★ REPAIRING!
- ★ HOLLANDERIZING!

Stop That Deadly Moth Now!

Miller's
SALEM OREGON