

Miss Dudley Bride of Mr. Wenger

Nuptial vows were exchanged Saturday night by Miss Dorine Dudley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Dudley and Charles Wenger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Wenger, who were married by candlelight at the Jason Lee Methodist church by Dr. Louis Kirby.

Lighting the white tapers were Miss Charlotte Foster, in pink chiffon, and Howard Wenger, brother of the groom. Mrs. Otto Yunker sang before the ceremony and Mrs. Ruth A. East was organist.

Miss Dudley's bridal gown was of white satin with fitted bodice, round marquisette yoke edged with a ruffle of satin, sleeves ending in points at the wrists, and a full skirt edged with satin ruffles, with a court train. Her floor-length veil was caught by a crown of orange blossoms and she carried a cascade of white gardenias.

Her maid of honor, Miss Hazel Munson, wore a gown fashioned with a pink chiffon overskirt over taffeta, with a wreath of matching pink flowers. She carried blue delphiniums and pink roses in a fan-shaped bouquet.

Bridesmaids, Miss Elaine and Miss Norma Wenger, sisters of the groom, wore identically designed gowns of pale blue and pale pink and carried matching bouquets of white delphiniums and pink roses. Flower girls were Ann Kaufman and Gay Lee Kappinger, wearing floor length gowns of yellow and carrying baskets of pastel flowers.

Best man was Joseph Lowry of Portland and Richard Wenger, brother of the groom, Byron and Ferd Zurcher, the groom's cousins, were ushers.

The bride's mother attended the wedding in a black two-piece net gown with black taffeta, peplum and black accessories. The groom's mother was gowned in navy blue. Both wore identical corsages of gardenias and pink rosebuds.

Assisting at the reception at the church, following the ceremony, were Miss Ruth Snyder, Miss Mildred Satter, Mrs. Gordon Black, Mrs. George Smyth and Miss Retha Flowers.

The new Mrs. Wenger wore a two-piece dark beige suit, with side drapes, on her honeymoon. Her accessories were of saddle brown and her corsage of gardenias.

The couple drove to southern California for a two week stay, after which they will be at home in Salem.

Salem Girl Married at Church

Bride of tonight is Miss Katherine Germunder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Kassel Germunder, who will be married to William Kraus, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kraus of Aurora, at 8 o'clock at the First Congregational church. The Rev. Godfrey Matthews will officiate at the ceremony and Ronald Craven will sing, accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Craven.

In pale blue satin, maid of honor Miss Patricia Grenfell, will precede the bride down the aisle. Her gown is fashioned with cap sleeves, and she will wear lace mitts and a Dutch cap to match. Her flowers will be a fan-shaped bouquet of blue delphiniums.

Miss Germunder's bridal gown is of white satin, with sweetheart neckline, drop waist gathered in scallops, long fitted sleeves ending in points at the wrists, and a court train. Her veil is of illusion, fingertip length, and is held in place by a Mary Stuart cap. She will carry a triangular bridal bouquet of pink and white roses.

Identical gowns of pink satin, to match the maid of honor's gown, will be worn with lace mitts by the two bridesmaids, Miss Sally McClelland and Miss Dorothy Glascock, both cousins of the bride. Best man is Stephen Kraus of Eugene and ushers are George Eversaul, Portland and Reginald Reynolds, Hillsboro.

The bride's mother will wear a black dress suit with turquoise trim and black accessories. The groom's mother will wear teal blue, trimmed in seed pearls. Both will wear gardenia corsages.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception will be held in the fireplace room of the church. Mrs. Charles McClelland, who will pour, and Mrs. James McClelland, who will cut the bride's cake, are aunts of the bride. Assisting will be Mrs. Stephen Kraus, Mrs. Leland Sarff, Miss Virginia Case, Miss Maria Dare, Miss Olga Wikberg and Miss Sylvia McClelland.

For her wedding trip the bride will wear a forest green suit, with fitted skirt and cardigan jacket. Her accessories are brown and her corsage will be of yellow rosebuds. The couple will be at home in Salem after a week at the coast.

Miss Carl to Be Married August 16
