Mlenek

Mrs. Louis Mlenek, 71, late resident of Woodburn, died at a Salem hospital, Friday, August 8. She is survived by her husband; three granddaughters, Miss Dora Dooper, Woodburn, Mrs. Emanuel Marsh, and Mrs. Gabriel Marsh, both of Salem; nine great grandchildren; and two sisters, Mrs. Mary Kellogg, St. Paul; and Mrs. Elizabeth Phillippi, of Louisiana. Rosary was held Saturday, August 9, at 7:30 at Ringle's funeral home at Woodburn. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

Scotts Mills—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sypher and family left this week for Fountain, Colo., to make their home. They sold their local property to Mr. and Mrs. Louis Edwards of Portland. The Syphers, who have lived here for the past four years, owned the place known as the August Percy place.

FURNACES For All Size Homes

An important problem in the installation of a furnace is its location in the home. It is only by correct location that a furnace will provide maximum efficiency. The selection of the proper place for a furnace is the job of a heating engineer. When we install a Pacific in your home, we know you will get maximum enjoyment of the features which make the Pacific a superior furnace. Pacifics are efficient, clean and economical. Built by master craftsmen, they are built right and we install them right.
