

Doris Hall Wed, Church

Miss Doris Irene Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen G. Hall became the bride of Harold Briceken of Independence at a ceremony read August 7 at the Calvary Baptist church. The Rev. Charles Durdeen officiated.

The bride wore a white gown made with satin bodice and a skirt of fine marquisette over satin. There was a sweetheart neckline and a fingertip length veil which was held by a head-dress of net. Her colonial bouquet was centered with an orchid.

Mrs. Marion Wilson, the bride's sister, attended her, wearing blue organza and carrying a bouquet of mixed flowers. Bridesmaids, Mrs. Maxine Melton and Alice E. Asden wore orchid, and Eleanor Wilson and Marilyn Wilson wore yellow. Best man was L. J. Melsha, the bride's brother-in-law, and ushers were Donald Hall and Jack Hardwick of Jefferson. Miss Willetta Hirsch and Louise McDaniel lighted the tapers.

Mrs. Meish, sister of the bride sang before the ceremony. Mrs. Hall was gownned in a flowered black dress and Mrs. Briceken in blue, both wore pink rosebuds.

A reception was held at the Melsha home following the ceremony. Assisting the mothers in serving were Miss Evelyn Hirsch, Miss Alice Hirsch and Mrs. Adam Hirsch.

Five years old Wednesday was Calliejean Lightner, who celebrated her birthday with a party at the Broadway street home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Al Lightner. She and her friends, Dolores Peterson and Kathleen Wilson and Calliejean's small brother, Allen, spent the afternoon in games, and later birthday cake and ice cream were served.
