The Cleveland Indians, 13-6, with Allie Reynolds of the Yanks becoming the first Amerk hurler to hit the 16-win mark. The astounding Philadelphia A's fortified themselves on the first division as Dick Fowler pitched them to a 7-0 victory over the St. Louis Browns via a four-hitter. Detroit's Tigers bowed to the Washington Senators, 5-3. Boston at Chicago was postponed because of rain.

Rocha, Anderson Take Pro Jobs

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 23—(AP)—Two of Oregon State college's basketball stars the past few years—Ephraim (Big Red) Rocha and Edland Anderson—have been signed by the St. Louis, Mo., team of the professional league of the basketball association of America. Ken Loeffler, coach of the St. Louis Bombers, reported tonight that Rocha, who led Pacific Coast conference northern division scoring and set a new one-game record with 37 points last year, and Anderson, a forward, would play this season.

Fervent Cracks Mark For Three Year Olds!

CHICAGO, Aug. 23—(AP)—Fervent, leggy chestnut colt owned by Warren Wright's Calumet farm, today turned in the fastest mile and a quarter ever run by a three year old on an American track to win the $93,250 American derby at Washington park. Piloted by Jockey Douglas Dodson, Fervent stepped the distance in 2:00 3/5.

Amerk Swim Records Cracked; 'Zim' Wins

CHICAGO, Aug. 23—(AP)—A Dutch girl with a stomach ache twice bettered the American 200 meter breast stroke record and America's top Olympic prospect set a new American 400 meter free style mark in the national AAU women's outdoor swimming meet today. Nel Van Vliet of Hilversum, a suburb of Amsterdam, won the breast stroke crown with a 2:58.6 clocking in the finals after "loafing" to a qualifying 3:03.4, both of which bettered a 15-year-old American record of 3:06.3.

Upholding American prestige, Ann Curtis of San Francisco captured the 400 meter free style for the fifth straight year with a 5:21.5 time, shaving five-tenths of a second from the American record of 5:22 set by Nancy Merkl of Portland, Ore., in 1939. It was the second record-breaking performance by Miss Curtis in as many days in the tall, blonde star's try for a triple slam in the three-day meet.

In the day's fourth event Suzanne Zimmerman of Portland

City Officials' Telephone Call Numbers Set

With completion Saturday of connections to outside stations, including the city shops and out-laying fire stations, City Manager J. L. Franzen announced the complete list of extension numbers for the new city switch-board.

The number to be called in contacting any of the city offices, except for fire alarms, is 2-4191. In reporting a fire, persons should call 3144 or 3145.

After dialing for a city office at 2-4191 the following extension numbers will facilitate the operator in obtaining the proper connection, Franzen said:

Fire department: Chief W. P. Roble, 21; central headquarters, 22; North Salem sub-station, 4; East Salem sub-station, 5 and South Salem sub-station, 6.

Police department: Chief Frank A. Minto, 14; Secretary and Police Matron Dorothy Kennedy, 15; police sergeant's desk, 16, and detectives' office, 17.

City Treasurer Paul H. Hauser, 20.

City Recorder Alfred Mundt, 18 and 19.

City Manager J. L. Franzen, 11.

City barns: Office, 1; shop, 2, and radio 3.

City Engineer J. H. Davis, 12 and 13.

Crash Puts Salem Woman in Hospital

Fannie L. Douglas, 2390 S. Commercial st., is confined to Salem General hospital with injuries to her side resulting from an automobile-truck collision at North Front st. and Highland ave. shortly after noon Saturday, according to city police reports.

Mrs. Douglas was in a car driven by her brother, Jake Andrew Pauls, of the same address, and the truck was driven by Clarence Russell Thompson, Salem route 9, police said. Thompson received first aid for a small cut above the left eye. There was only slight damage to the car.

Women Form State Council

Mrs. Myra Wrenius of Albany was elected chairman of the Oregon council of Toastmistress International at a meeting of representatives of the Oregon clubs in Salem Saturday. Mrs. Franke Wallace of Tillamook was named vice chairman. Lois Hamer of Salem, secretary; and Katherine Chidester of Klamath Falls, treasurer.

Vera Hansen of Springfield, a past international president, was present at the council meeting and helped with the organization. Tillamook was tentatively agreed upon as next meeting place for the council. Meetings were held in the Salem Woman's club building and luncheon was served at Nohlgren's restaurant.

Henkel Leads Oregon Pingers

VANDALIA, O., Aug. 23—(AP)—Oregon scores in the National doubles championship at the 48th grand American trapshoot today were headed by the 95 chalked up by Merle G. Henkel, Portland.

Others: J. W. Shaw, Portland, 94; E. W. Fesse, Medford, 74; H. E. Hanson, Eugene, 65; Robert L. Ray, Eugene, 69; C. D. Ray, Eugene, 68; G. L. Jantzer, Medford, 68; M. W. Ray, John Day, 60.

kept pace with Miss Curtis as a meet double-winner by retaining her 100 meter back stroke crown with a 1:17.6 triumph, one-fifth of a second slower than the meet record. Yesterday Miss Zimmerman recaptured her 200 meter back stroke crown.
