ABOUT THE PICTURES...

Interested faces of weavers pictured on this page indicate that those attending the National Weavers conference for two weeks at Lausanne hall on the Willamette campus are too engrossed in the work to take time out to pose for pictures.

Pictured at the top are Mrs. Osma Gallinger, director of the conference, and her daughter Josephine Couch, threading a loom and using a creel. They brought both from their weaving school in Guernsey, Pa.

Mrs. Clara McNulty of Kansas State college, a national authority on lace making, shows how to make bobbin, or pillow lace. Absorbed in her demonstration are Mrs. H. C. Epping (left) Mrs. Frederick Hill Thompson, Mrs. William Burghardt and Mrs. Frank Healy, all members of the Salem Weaver's guild.

Instructor Mrs. Donald B. Young (left) of Washington, D. C., gives fine points of preparing warp to pupils, Mrs. Roy Davidson and Miss Alice Cray Brown of Salem and Mrs. Arthur Fox (right) formerly a member of the local guild but now of North Bend.

Completely oblivious to the photographer was this group of weavers watching Mrs. Lorraine P. Kessenich of Milwaukee, Wisc., spin wool. Left to right the watchers are Mrs. Clifford Farmer (only face showing), Mrs. Jerald Backstrand, Mrs. Breyman Boise, Mrs. Lewis Anderson and Mrs. H. J. Thomas. The spinning wheel came originally from Norway and has been in the family of Mrs. Anderson's husband for over a hundred years. (Photos by Statesman Women's Department)

A bride of August 15 is Mrs. Ralph Stinnett, the former Patricia Hedges, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hedges. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Stinnett of Turner. They were married at the First Presbyterian church. (Jessen Miller)

Is Wed in Chapel...

On Saturday night at 7 o'clock, Miss Patricia Waters became the bride of Jackson Reiser Hazelett, at a ceremony performed in the chapel of St. Helen's hall. The Rev. Arthur A. Vall-Spinosa, rector of the school, performed the rites.

Candles arranged at the end of the pews were lighted by Mrs. Donald Parker and Mrs. William Young, who carried rubrum lilies and wore rose colored frocks.

Reid Shelton sang Schubert's "Ave Maria" and Malotte's "The Lord's Prayer," and was accompanied by Mrs. A. W. Stone.

The bride entered on the arm of her father, Frank Waters of Salem. She wore a wedding gown of white lace made with marquisette yoke and a peplum in front, ends of which narrow at the hips and extend into an edging of the court train. The fingertip veil is of French imported illusion and made with three tiers. The Juliet cap of matching lace is enhanced with bugle beads.

Miss Ann Conely of Klamath Falls, matron of honor, wore an American Beauty rose crepe gown with cap clevecs and a peplum coming to a point at the back. She carried rubrum lilies, and wore a Juliet cap matching her gown.

Miss Elinor Robinson of Los Angeles, the bride's cousin, was bride's maid. She wore a gown made identical to that of Miss Conely, except hers was pale pink.

Best man was David Lewis of Astoria and ushers, Donald Poulson, McMinnville, James Lafky, Eugene, Leo Hask and Evan Williams, Portland.

Mrs. Waters attended her daughter's wedding in a aqua crepe dinner dress and a matching braid in her hair. Mrs. Reiser Blessinger of Portland, mother of the bridegroom, wore a royal blue moire gown, pale pink gloves and a matching headress. Their corsages were of white gladiolus.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in Scadding hall. Mrs. Robert Schlegel of Banks, cut the cake, Miss Minerva Just and Mrs. Dean Thomas served the punch and Miss Jeanne Robinson of Portland served the groom's cake. Margaret Allen of Salem was in charge of the dream cakes and the guest book and Miss Patricia Miller of Portland arranged the gifts.

Mrs. James Boydson, Corvallis, Miss Joan Thomas, Port Orford, Miss Jean Newman, Hillsboro, Miss Arline Boehl and Miss LaFyne Showay of Portland, Miss Barbara Clawford and Betty Boettcher of Salem served.

The bridal couple left for a honeymoon in the mountains. The new Mrs. Hazelett wore a black-brown suit of wool crepe, with narrow lapels and a fitted waist. There are flared inserts on the sleeves, and the skirt is tiered. Her accessories caught the suit, and her hat was a brown felt off-the-face model with mixed biege feathers. Her flowers were Mrs. Peter Finch roses.

The couple will live in Salem, while Mr. Hazelett attends Willamette university.

Reception For Townspeople

Only event during the weavers conference which is open to the public, is the reception today from 5 until 9 o'clock in Lausanne hall, for which the staff of the conference and the Salem Weaver's guild will be hostesses.

A program has been planned for the evening, and an extensive display of weaving of members of the staff, local and visiting weavers has been arranged.

Among the weaving on display will be coverlets, table cloths and miscellaneous pieces by Mrs. Margaret Bergman, well known weaver from Poulsbo, Wash. and the work of members of the conference staff, Mrs. Osma Gallinger of Guernsey, Pa., Mrs. Lorraine P. Kessenich of Milwaukee, Wis., Mrs. Clara McNulty from Kansas State College, Mrs. Donnell P. Young of Washington, D. C. and Josephine Couch of St. Lawrence University.

The program includes violin music by Miss Couch, solos by Dean Melvin Geist accompanied by Mrs. Geist, solos by Reid Shelton, a greetings by Robert L. Elfstrom mayor of Salem, brief talks by members of the staff and Mrs. Lewis Anderson, president of the Salem Weavers guild. Dr. Lawrence Riggs will give a talk.

During the social hour, members of the Salem group will act as hostesses. Assisting about the rooms will be Mrs. George Alexander, Mrs. Grover Bellinger, Mrs. Jessie Chapel, Mrs. D. D. Dotson, Mrs. Lewis Johnson, Mrs. C. A. Kells, Mrs. Kenneth Long, Mrs. E. W. Morley, Mrs. Roy Pelley, Mrs. Mary James and Mrs. Bryon McElhane, Silverton, Mrs. A. J. Ullman, Mrs. F. G. Rankin, Mrs. A. C. Wilcox, Mrs. E. S. Engleham and Mrs. D. R. Harvey.

Young girls serving are the Misses Claralyn Lee, Marilyn Nichols, Martha and Muriel Steusloff, Jeanne Hoffman, Jackie Johnson and Sara Jane Backstrand.

Two Are Tokyo Bound...

Adding her name to the list of travelers is Mrs. Robert Welden, who has received word from the war department to be in Seattle on September 5, and be prepared to sail for Tokyo soon after.

Mrs. Welden and her young daughter Dees have been in Salem for some time, awaiting orders to sail. They will join Captain Welden, who is with the army air corps in Japan, and the family will live at Johnson air base.

Several parties have been planned for her pleasure during her stay in Salem.

In Vacation Time...

Extended vacations to all parts of the United States by Salem residents make news this week. Leaving today for a five week vacation on the east coast are Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Palmateer, their daughter, Lorene and Miss Winifred Palmateer of Portland, who will motor to New York City via Yellowstone Park and Quebec, stop off at Washington, D. C. and return here by way of the southern route.

Vacationers just returning are Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Benson and their sons Steven and Whitney who arrived in Salem Monday after a month's vacation in northern Minnesota at Pine Point Resort. They met Mrs. Benson's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Redlik of Great Neck, Long Island, N. Y., and her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Bell, there, and the party visited relatives in Iowa. The Bensons returned here by way of the Black Hills, Glacier and Yellowstone parks.

Flying in Friday night from Guadalupe, Mexico, were Mrs. Elmer O. Berg and son, Jerry, who were met in Portland by Mr. Berg. They were returning from a six weeks vacation in Mexico while Mrs. Berg was attending a University there.

A Dessert Supper...

Honored guest Friday night was Miss Patricia Hammack, at a miscellaneous bridal shower given for her by Mrs. W. L. Flager at her North 17th street home. Miss Hammack is to be married August 29 to Harry E. Aston jr.

Covers were placed at the dessert supper for Mesdames Lee Hammack, Harry Aston, Orren Watkins, Carl Busch, L. O. Nofsinger, Clarence Marshall, G. H. Edwards, Elmer Benz, William I. Clodt, Betty King, Melvin Lancaster, Sophie Bouch, B. K. Walker, Fred Ratzberg, Anna McDonald, E. Omstead, Glen Yeoman of Waldport, Lester Green of Valsetz and the Misses Joyce Aston, Helen Berg, Janet Head, Sally Cornelius, Ruth Gettman, Shirley Cross, Nancy Babb, the honor guest and the hostess.
