

Garden Rites Are Today

Before a garden archway at the home of her parents, Miss Irene de Vries, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William de Vries, will become the bride of Raymond Kenneth Lilley, son of Mrs. Ray Bell of McClellandtown, Pa., at four o'clock ceremonies today. The bride's two brothers, the Rev. Roland F. de Vries of Redwood City, Calif. and the Rev. Maurice L. de Vries of Oroville, Calif., will perform the doubling ceremony.

Mrs. Raymond Andrews will sing and Mrs. Adam Hersch will play.

In turquoise taffeta, Miss Helen Christiansen of Seattle will be the honor maid. She will carry a garland of asters and wear a floral headdress. Miss Bette Ann

Wright will be bridesmaids in pink taffeta gowns and will carry gerlands of asters.

The bride has chosen white satin for her wedding gown, fashioned with fitted bodice edged with pearl beading, and a short train. Her veil is fingertip length, and falls from a coronet of seed pearls. The bridal bouquet is of rubrum lillies, centered with a white orchid.

Flower girl is Ruth de Vries, who will wear a yellow dotted-swiss. Two small ring-bearers are Lawrence de Vries, the bride's nephew and Roland Boyce of Portland. Forming the white-ribboned aisle and carrying colonial nosegays of garden flowers will be the Misses Beverly Gourley, Emma Lou Sappingfield, Elmetta Hansen, Willetta Hersch, Elsie de Vries, Betty Jean Harbor, Guinevere Phillips and Maxine Hansen. They will also assist at the reception.

Mrs. de Vries, the bride's mother, will wear a gown of dark blue crepe with a corsage of gardenias.

Following the wedding a reception will be held in the garden. Assisting will be Mesdames J. J. Foster, O. D. Brunkow, of Manzanita, Harold de Vries, Arthur de Vries, Rudolph de Vries, Ronald de Vries, Maurice de Vries and Miss Wilma de Vries.

The bride will wear a gabardine costume suit of green with brown accessories for her wedding trip. A white orchid will be pinned to her shoulder. After motoring to British Columbia for a week the couple will make their home in Seattle. Miss de Vries graduated from Seattle Pacific college in June, and will teach in Seattle this fall while Mr. Lilley completes his senior year at the college.

Miss Gibson Now a Bride

Before the fireplace, banked with woodwardia fern and lavender and white gladioluses, Miss Janet Gibson became the bride of Herbert Hunt Saturday morning at 10 o'clock nuptials performed in her parents' South High street home by the Rev. Charles Durden. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Gibson and her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hunt. Miss Lois Gillings played the wedding music.

On her wedding day, Miss Gibson wore a beige suit fashioned with long fitted jacket, with cocoa brown accessories and a hat with cocoa brown feathers and ribbon. She wore a lavender Catalaya orchid corsage.

Attendant of the bride was Miss

Shirley Kenagy who wore a brown shepherd check suit with brown accessories and a corsage of lavender orchids. Best man for his brother was Frank Hunt.

For her daughter's nuptials Mrs. Gibson chose a gown of gannet crepe and wore a corsage of orchids. The groom's mother wore a black gown with an identical corsage.

Assisting at the reception immediately after the wedding were Mrs. W. C. DePew, pouring, Mrs. Elmer Currie, cutting the bride's cake, and the Misses Joyce Reeves and Mary Lou McKay, serving. Mrs. Frank Hunt greeted guests at the door and Miss Joan Schwabbauer passed the guest book.

The couple will be at home in Salem following a week's automobile trip.
