

Detroit Folk Entertain for Many Visitors

DETROIT—Mrs. Viola Garber and son, Jerry of Portland came Monday to visit the Walter Balls. Mrs. Carl Ekelin of Corvallis has been spending some time with her husband who inspects lumber for the West Coast Lumber Co. in Detroit. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Seifert and daughter, Nancy who lived here several years ago visited the Earl Parkers this week. They will return to Arizona as the climate there is improving the health of Mrs. Seifert. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Champion and Emmett Dorothy of Detroit and Ted Dorothy of Mill City have returned from Onawa, Iowa, where they attended the golden wedding anniversary of Dorothy's parents. The Fred Cornu family of Pratum, came by way of South Santiam highway Sunday and visited his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Johnson.

Hayesville—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Day were in Prineville last week for the rodeo.

BACK!... AND BETTER THAN EVER

(Alt) Heidelberg the beer everyone is demanding

COLOGNE BREWERY, INC. - TACOMA, WASH.

Valley Briefs

Keizer—The school board met this week with the architect, Fredrick Eley, to make further plans for building additional rooms. Eley also served as architect in building original unit.

Rosedale—School will open September 8 with Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Ed Caldwell as teachers and Mrs. L. C. Frederickson, janitor. Oil burning stoves have been installed but so far no plans have been made for serving hot lunches.

Amity—Mrs. Ethel Fournier, deputy postmistress is convalescing at Willamette hospital in Newberg, after a surgical operation for toxic goiter.

Silverton—Born at the Silverton hospital, August 23, a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Denison.

Unionvale—Mr. and Mrs. Ari Launer and children spent Saturday and Sunday at Delake. Mrs. Launer's brother and family, the Erwin Stoutenburgs of Portland visited them there.

Turner—The Rev. R. M. Gatte, pastor of Turner Methodist church, left this week for Ohio where he will attend the Sigma Chi convention. While away the Rev. James Royer will preach August 31 and Dr. Norman Huffman on September 7.

Hayesville—Marshall strawberries are bearing again in most patches with enough berries found to make jam again.

Keizer—Oscar Olson, janitor of the school has been doing extensive refinishing and painting.

Turner—Mrs. George Farris returned this week after several days in Salem visiting her son and family Mr. and Mrs. Grant Farris.

Hayesville—Spending a few days at the Al Stettlers are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Weyer who have been on an extended vacation trip as far east as Illinois. They left Los Angeles July 5. Weyer is a manual training instructor in Los Angeles schools.

Unionvale—Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Stoutenburg of Portland visited their daughter, Mrs. Clark Noble and family over the weekend.

East Salem—Guests this past week of Mr. and Mrs. John Woodburn, Lancaster drive were her brother, Clark Craig and his wife, Harold Woodburn, his wife and son, Jonnie of Seattle.

Amity—Fred L. Schumacher, who recently purchased the residential property of Mrs. Walter Fuller, has moved here with his family. They have two small daughters and he is associated with the Amity Lumber company.

Grand Island—Mrs. Worth Wiley and Mary were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wenger of Portland.

Unionvale—George Strawn and Bud spent Saturday and Sunday at Depoe Bay.

Rickreall—Descendants of Samuel, Isaac and Solomon Allen will celebrate the centennial of the brothers arrival here at Camp-pog park, Sunday, August 31. W. B. Allen of Rickreall is president of the clan.

Unionvale—Jean Magee took little David and Danny Ritte back to their home in Seattle. They left Wednesday and she returned home Friday. The boys had spent several weeks with the Magees.

Unionvale—Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Rutchman were Mr. and Mrs. Lester Thomas and family of Salem and Mr. and Mrs. Don Yung of West Salem.

Unionvale—Alice Hardy of Unity was a weekend guest of Joyce Crawley.

Four Corners—Charla Allen, 3 years old, is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Brown, Elma avenue. Mrs. Brown flew to Los Angeles and brought her home, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Allen, (Faith Brown), plan to come up later to take their daughter home with them.

Grand Island—Mr. and Mrs. Arnet White and son of Toledo visited Sunday with her mother, Mrs. C. A. Rockhill.

Unionvale—Portland guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Wright were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bash and son and Mrs. Mary Chatfield.

Grand Island—Worth Wiley is attending the Oregon State Farmers' three day convention in Corvallis this week. He is one of the directors of the association and was appointed to present various awards for achievement to members, Monday. He flies to Corvallis each day, and Monday his son Don accompanied him to be an FFA judge in the Benton County fair.

Unionvale—Carol Sue Launer who is ill with an infection is improving.

Turner—Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Miller, Jimmie, Calvin and Carol Ann, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Miller left this week for Sacramento, Calif.

Hayesville—Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Henry and daughter Ruth Mary, Pullman, Wash. are spending a week at the Chester Doolittles.

Unionvale—Fred Withee, sr. was surprised Friday when his cousin, Eugene Howe of Weatherford, Okla. stopped to see him. Howe's wife and son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Mason Howe were with him and are on a month's vacation trip visiting relatives along the way. Howe is manager of the Federal Savings and Loan Association in Weatherford and has a real estate business; his son teaches in the high school.

Amity—Born to Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Jackson, August 25, a son, Lloyd Lee-Roy, weight eight pounds six ounces.

Turner—Mrs. Nellie Gunning has been vacationing at Nelscott, and visited her sister-in-law, Mrs. Jennie Moore in Salem.

Hayesville—Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Hall, and the twins, Judy and Larry returned Sunday from several days at the coast.

Amity—Born at the Dr. Law maternity hospital August 23, a son, Dan Edwin, to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Linchewid, of Bethel (Polk county), weight eight pounds four-teen ounces.

Hayesville—The A. D. Long family spent last week at Walla Walla, with her father and sister.

Keizer—Eighteen young people of the Community church, accompanied by pastor, Lee Wiens, went to Colorado lake near Albany for a picnic Saturday.

Detroit—Tex Richard, who worked here about 11 years ago spent the weekend at Breitenbush Springs and called on old friends

Californians Visit Aumsville

AUMSVILLE—Mr. and Mrs. John Fisher of Norman, Okla. are visiting his sisters, Mrs. Lee Highberger and Mrs. Omar Roberts. Fishers came here from Los Angeles, where they had been visiting.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Twilius and family visited in Seattle a week while their Coffee Shop was re-modeled. Leota Bradley of Eugene visited her mother, Mrs. A. E. Bradley last week. Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Bradley of Santa Rosa, Calif. are visiting his mother, Mrs. A. E. Bradley this week and Mrs. Bradley will return to Santa Rosa with them for a visit.

Mrs. Lee Hughes left the Deaconess hospital Sunday and is staying with parents, the Joe Hughes in Salem and will be there until their four pound, 12 ounce daughter weighs five pounds and can be released from the hospital.

Clear Lake District To Vote on Warrants

CLEAR LAKE—Aug. 27—Clear Lake school district 122 will hold a special election Tuesday, September 2 to vote on the issuing of warrants to be added to next year's budget for transportation to Salem senior and Parrish junior high schools.

The warrants are to come from district funds. Polls at the school will be open from 8 to 9 p.m. and all property owners in the district are eligible to vote.

Valley Obituaries

THOMAS BRUCE HOOD ALBANY—Funeral services were held Wednesday for Thomas Bruce Hood, 64, who died in Long Beach, Calif., August 22, following a heart attack. The Rev. Edgar Luther conducted services, burial in Riverside. Born March, 1883, in Canada, Bruce Hood came to Albany with his parents in 1887 and lived here until 25 years ago when he went to California and lived at Redlands. He was not married. Survivors are two brothers, Guy and Irvin Hood, Albany; five sisters, Mrs. Mable Barber of Taught, Mrs. Millie Henshaw and Mrs. Ida Hutchins, Albany; Mrs. Laura Trulova and Mrs. Alma Terhune, Portland.

CLARENCE COX ALBANY—Clarence Cox, 64, a resident of Albany since 1932, died in a local hospital August 23, following a heart attack. Funeral services were held Tuesday, August 26, the Rev. Gordon Jaffe in-charge, burial in Riverside.

Born in 1883 in South Dakota, he had lived in Kansas City and Wichita, Kan. before coming here. He was a veteran of World War I, and was a storekeeper and accountant.

Survivors are four nephews and six nieces all of Montana or Washington, and one brother, Frank Cox in Hawaii. His wife died in 1928.

NORMA McCLAIN O'HAIR ALBANY—Friends here have received word of the death of Mrs.

Fiddlers Contest At Santiam Fair, Mehama, Sept. 20

STAYTON—An old time fiddlers' contest will be held at the Fall Festival of the Santiam Valley grange at Mehama, Saturday, September 20.

Prizes of $10 for first; $5 for second; and $2.50 for third will be offered and many old time fiddlers have been contacted who have expressed desire to compete. At the recent meeting of the grange, plans were completed for the festival. Present were Lloyd Sletto, chairman of the fair board; Olin Spiva, head of the agricultural division; Mrs. Albert Julian, home economics; Tony Moravec, publicity and advertising;

Celene Taylor, flowers; Fern Sletto, 4-H and bazaar; May Patton, bazaar; Bee Hiatt, 4-H; Frank Basl, fruits; Blanche Wagner, fancy work; Leora Stevens, 4-H; George Berry, seeds; Ed Taylor, group exhibits; John Lambrecht, livestock; Garnet Basset, canning; Mrs. Dallas Franklin, baking.

According to Moravec, invitations to act as judges of the exhibits have been accepted by O. E. Mikesell, Viola Hansen, home demonstration agent, and John Norma O'Hair at Bremerton, Wash. Mrs. O'Hair was a former resident of Albany, spending her girlhood here. She was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. A. McClain. Her father at one time was Albany city marshal.

Hansen, 4-H club leaders of Linn county; Harry Riches, county agent of Marion county; Anthon Riney and Constance Hampton of Marion county 4-H club headquarters.

BIRTHDAY OBSERVED HAYESVILLE—Sunday a group of friends gathered at the Lyle Carrows for Herschel Robertson's birthday. Their new outdoor fireplace and barbecue were duly initiated with the dinner cooked on it. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Robertson, his cousin, Alton Robertson and wife of Newburg, Mr. and Mrs. George Stroutz and Junior, Bob Carrow and the Carrows.

WOMEN CANNERY WORKERS NEEDED NOW

NIGHT SHIFT, 7:00 P. M. PHONE 24197

United Growers, Inc.

Four Miles South of Salem at Liberty

BACK TO SCHOOL....

with feature styles from

THE MAN'S SHOP

We're ready fellows, with every featured style for your back to school wardrobe. You can shop The Man's Shop with perfect confidence that your selection will be right—in Style, in Quality and in Value.

AVI JACK

The season's outstanding jacket. Here's an item that has become almost a necessity for school wear. The color is light tan. Constructed of fine water-repellant poplin. Two styles: wool knit bottom or plain. Bright cotton flannel lining for extra warmth.....

$8.95

DAYS

College Cords

$5.95

SHIRTS

In button down Oxfords—Here's a shirt that ranks first in popularity year after year on every college campus. No shirt can be more serviceable. No collar style is smarter. Colors are blue, tan, green and white.

Colors $4.50
White $3.95

They're back again, men and never has an article of clothing had a warmer welcome. Light cream in color, heavy duty zipper front, bar tacked at all points of strain, heavy duck pockets. Sizes for all—ranging from 29 to 36 waist—in all lengths.....

Other Back-to-School Items in Fine Selections Include:

Suits by Kuppenheimer and other famous makers— from

$50.00 to $75.00

Covert Topcoats $40.00 and more
Nunn Bush and Edgerston Shoes $10.45 to $17.95
Sweaters by Jantzen Gantner and others $5.50 to $10

Interwoven Socks. Per pr. 55c to $2.00
Textron Pajamas in cotton $5.00
Coopers Jockey Shorts 85c to $1.50

THE MAN'S SHOP

MOXLEY AND HUNTINGTON The Store of Style, Quality and Value

416 STATE ST.

SALEM, ORE.

See . . Woody Furniture Co.

FOR YOUR DREAM KITCHEN!

BE YOUR OWN DESIGNER

...with a KENTILE floor!

Why envy those smart floors you see in model kitchens? You can have one with Kentile. It's tile-set—combine colors as you wish. We'll help you plan the design. Yes, and lay it for you!

Kentile's a real investment in economy, low cost and wears for decades, always looks new. Kentile's colors go clear through—need only simple mopping to keep fresh. And it's the modern floor that's practically stain, dirt and scuff proof.

Just ask us anything about Kentile—we've got the facts.

Asphalt Tile Is No More Expensive Than Inlaid Linoleum!

In the majority of kitchens because there is little or no waste—you get plus value as it will wear at least three times as long as standard inlaid linoleum.

TELEPHONE SALEM 6414

LOOK UNDER YOUR CAR

3-M UNDERBODY PROTECTIVE COATING protects against

- ★ RUST
- ★ CORROSION
- ★ GRAVEL ABRASION
- ★ DRAFTS and FUMES

VALLEY MOTOR CO. Phone 3158 375 Center Salem