The "Jack Wilson and Senator Player Appreciation Night," we're sorry to report, isn't as to be in the beginning. Original plans for the big sendoff party healthy a baby as it was hoped next Thursday night would have Mgr. Wilson taking home a new car and the players pocketing a wad of cash and various presents. Such were the plans at the beginning. That Series Again here it is again for consideration: The Ex-Senator "Stars," play the current townies in that 2-of-3 series at Waters immediately following the season. The office "cut." On a $3,000 crowd morrow night. that cut would amount to $600. Portland ..... The balance of the gate could be split on a 60-40 basis-sixty Kruger. per cent to winning team and 40 to loser, which would amount to well over $50 per game for each Senator player. In fact, the "Stars" would make even a better deal for the Senator players if they want it.

Such is the idea and we think you'll agree it's a good one from any angle-particularly since the "Stars" and their Frankie Dierickx. Duke Windsor, Wally Flager, et al, proved by their 1-0 win over the Negro barnstormers here last Sunday they can provide competition enough. 'Hot Rods' Coming

Sorties: No midget auto racing during the fair next week, but on the last day of the big party Promoter Jimmie Ryan and Director Leo Spitzbart will present a "hot rod" program on the Lone Oak strip. . . . ## Salmon Fishin' Best

PORTLAND, Aug. 28 .- (AP)-The trout fishing prospect appeared none too favorable today, but the state game commission's weekly fishing bulletin predicted improved salmon catches for the weekend. The outlook by districts:

Portland area-Good sturgeon catches reported at several points along Columbia in Columbia county, and some harvest trout catches in Columbia near Lewis river mouth. Salmon catches expected to improve in Columbia next week. Willamette valley-Lane county angling spotty, with only few limit catches. Evening fishing best. Triangle and Fern Ridge lakes producing nice bass and catfish catches. Coastal area-Salmon and trout fishing in Clatsop county should improve this weekend. Lincoln county poor for trout, and no large salmon runs yet. Seabass angling from south jetty of Yaquina bay very good. Tillamook county: Some cutthroat trout taken in upper Big Nestucca river; Little Nestucca yielding some bluebacks; Wilson river poor for trout.

Dove and Pidgeon

Season Opens Monday PORTLAND, Aug. 28 -(AP) Oregon first game bird hunting opens next Monday when the 15-day dove season and the 30day pigeon season begins. Bag limits a day or in possession are eight pigeons and ten doves. The pigeon season covers the entire state. Doves, however, may be shot only in 16 counties: Lake, Klamth, Deschutes, Jackson, Josephine, Coos, Curry, Crook, Wasco, Sherman, Jefferson, Hood River, Wheeler, Gilliam and Morrow.

Pesky Salmon Put up Great Fight-But Mr. Wiley Winner

Bob Wiley, Salem, came back from a fishing trip with a 35pound salmon which he hooked by mistake and brought to gaff after a 10-minute swim in pursuit. Wiley and witnesses aboard the 39-foot yawl, Beachcomber. said it happened like this: Wiley, halting fishing for a moment, propped his rod against the rail and turned away. A salmon struck. Overboard went the rod. Wiley dived after it. Underwater, he grabbed the rod and tried to reel. The salmon

WARRENTON, Aug. 28-(AP)- swam furiously away. Wiley skidded like a surfboard, "I played him under water, or maybe he played me," said Wiley. The battle went on for 10 minutes. Then the Beachcomber caught up with the panting Wiley and hauled him aboard. He hauled the salmon after him. It was, apparently, a good omen. Within an hour, Wiley's soaked rod had snagged another 35-pound Chinook and a 47-pounder, one of the largest caught this season.
