Solons Blanked 3-0, But Hold Second; Coasters Open Grid Practice Monday

Costello Nips 'Moss' in Duel

By Al Lightner

The town Senators opened their last-ditch stand for the WIL pennant by losing 3-0 to the Spokanes at Waters field last night, but other developments in this, the grandaddy of all sweltering flag chases in 1947 baseball, still finds the Solons sole occupants of second place this morning. They are on the No. 2 rung only by the width of a whisker, two percentage points up on the now deadlocked Spokane and Bremerton teams. Bremerton fell from the top perch by losing a pair to Vancouver Saturday, and those same Caps, on the come for the past month are now out in front by a game and a half. Victoria split a pair with Tacoma Saturday and fell three games

In today's super-crucials around the league the Spokes tangle with the Salems in a seven o'clock goes to Tacoma for a pair and Victoria goes to Bremerton for two more. For Salem tonight it will be Lefty Ken Wyatt and Vince Lazor, Wyatt seeking his 17th win and Lazor his 16th.

Respective flinging aces Bob Costello and Wandell Mossor hooked up in a sharp duel in last night's opener before 2813 paid, and although both were nicked for but five hits apiece it was the spectacled and swift Costelle who emerged winner. It was his 20th win of the season and he became the first WiLer to reach the coveted "charm circle" of pitching this season. Mossor was after No. 19, but had to swallow his ninth loss instead.

It was a bitter gulp too, for Lefty Wandell whiffed 14 of the enemy, walked only two and yielded but one earned run. That one, scored in the fourth, was a of the situation he up and balked of the situation he up and balked it in. He caught his spike in the rubber on the mound. Were it not for the mishap the southpaw would have escaped all harm for he whitfed the next two batters to retire the side.

For eight heats it became more and more evident that the balk would be Mossor's undoing by a the red-hot Vancouver Capilanos 1-0 count. But came the ninth, the took over the top-slot with two lefty's really one bud inning of "clutch" victories over the erstthe struggle, and two more Spo- while kane runners, erossed on an out- Tars, 4-2 and 9-2. The outcome field error and doubles by Jake left the Caps 11/2 games up on Phillips and Bud Hicks. Mossor did get enough Indians out in between the doubles that no runs would have scored had it not been for the inning-opening boot.

As the Salems could do practically nothing with Costello's swift and swerve, it would have made little difference had the chances to score but were foiled every trip. In the third Marty Krug led off with a sharp single which almost beheaded Costello as it zoomed toward center field and Mossor himself followed up with a single to right Park. with a single to right. Bud Peterson fouled out attempting to bunt and Al Spaeter struck out. Then Lou Kubiak walked to load the bases. Bob Moore popped up to end the threat.

In the fifth some brilliant Spokane defense again denied Salem. Phillips took Mossor's long liner to right while on the dead run to open the inning, Peterson singled, Spaeter went out and Kubiak again walked. Moore amashed a long drive into right center but George Schmees, on the gallop, hauled it down aid that was that. In the sixth Eddie Barr walked and moved up on Bill Beard's bunt. Mel Nunes bounced what looked like a sure hit to left but Hicks cut it off and threw to third to get Barr who had spike trouble himself and stumbled off the bag.

Mossor's 14 whiffs hiked his total to 211 for the season, one of the league highs. . . . Schmees, involved in the Spokane riot last Sunday, was a big target for the more vociferous clients and was hooted at every turn. He didn't help himself much by striking out thrice. . . . The Spokes gleaned had only time enough to tell that but five hits, but lo, three were cloubles. . . . The turnout swelled the attendance total to 95,106. . . SPOKANE (31 SALEM (0)

Amerks Lead Cup Play!

FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Aug. 30-(P)-The high hopes of Australia's Davis cuppers went smash again today, and the huge international tennis trophy appeared to be safely stowed away in the land of its origin for at least another year after the two Californians, Jack Kramer and Ted Schroeder, battered their way to victory in the opening singles matches.

Kramer opened the flood gates with a crushing 6-2, 6-1, 6-2 win over curly-haired Dinny Pils, the Australian champion, and Schroeder then came through with the second half of Uncle Sam's famous one-two punch as he charged the net off and on for more than two hours and humbled Jack Bromwich, 6-4, 5-7,

Erstwhile service station magnate Don Madison is currently or a lengthy hunting excursion in the wilds of northern Canada, and even if he doesn't down the caribou, moose, etc., he's after Donald shouldn't go hungry for quite a spell after the knuckle sandwich Tony Ross gave him ta the armory last Tuesday night. Somewhat of a special cop on the premises during rassling nights. Madison has many times flirted with danger by trying to keep peace among the gladiators when they spill onto the armory floor. He made a grab for Anthony Q. last week as A. was battling rasslers and spectators alike, and for his pains got a right sharp whack on the choppers. . . . Another spectator during the rip-roarious Owen party last week was Dean B. Cromwell, the great USC Trojan track coach, but he was content to just watch the proceedings, not join 'em. Again spending August at his Turner acreage, Cromwell his ace sprinter, 6-foot 2-inch, 146-pound Mel Patton "should Le even better next year." And in case you missed it, Patton was the best in the land last spring

DEAN B. CROMWELL and on a number of occasions flirted with the world records for both the century and 220. Note also Patton's physical measurements.

And note too that the distinguished Mr. Cromwell still sports an item which is as much a part of him as his nose-a bow tie . . .

Umps McDonald Was in Rhubarb Too Messrs. Nenezich and Abbey can never be elected to public office in Spokane following their forfeit mess in the Salem-Spoke game that Sunday afternoon, but those two aren't the only ones catching hallelujah from the WIL customers these trying days. In Wenatchee the other night Umpire McDonald, minus police protection, was handled so roughly by the crowd following a game that he emerged with a cut nd bloody face. (So you want to be an umpire, eh?) . . . Speaking of Rassler Ross above, he has turned from hero to A-1 heel when occupyin his tights, and has in doing so taken on the wrath of the customers. But after watching Anthony, as a cleanie, get himself bruised and battered time after time at the I cal garden, you can't blame the guy much for now dishing it out instead of
