

A Holiday Ahead...

Many visitors are guests of Salem folk this weekend with Labor Day and the opening of the State Fair drawing crowds to the city. Mrs. Duane Gibson is hostess to her nephew and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. John Edwards of San Francisco, who plan to visit here all week. Mr. and Mrs. Gibson entertained at their country home Saturday night with a dinner in the Edwards' honor. Today she and Mrs. Frank Crawford have bidden a group of friends to dinner at Silver Creek Falls lodge to compliment the visitors.

Mrs. Sidney Kromer has as her houseguest over Labor Day, Miss June O'Reilly of Seattle. Miss O'Reilly, who is to arrive today by train, is Mrs. Kromer's sister.

Spending Labor Day at Neskwim are the Mr. and Mrs. William Phillips and their sons, Don and Jim, Miss Joan Randall and Mr. and Mrs. William Phillips, Jr. Also vacationists at Neskwim are the Roy Keenes of Corvallis.

Church rites performed on August 24 united Miss Aileen Sechrist, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Sechrist, and John Stanford Feike, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Feike of Los Angeles. The First Congregational church was the scene of the rites. (Jesten-Miller).

Cutting the cake following their wedding Saturday, August 23, at the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Gibson, are Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hunt. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hunt. The bride was Miss Janet Gibson before her marriage. (Jesten Miller).

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bailey pictured at the Ronald Jones garden near Brooks, following their wedding ceremony Sunday, August 24. The bride is the former Lorraine Murdock, daughter of Mrs. C. A. Murdock and Mr. Bailey is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bailey of Brooks, and a nephew of Ronald Jones. (Jesten-Miller)

They'll Say 'I Do'...

September's first weekend will be a busy one for brides—five popular girls are announcing their plans today, for weddings next Saturday and Sunday.

Planning her marriage for Saturday, September 6, at 8 o'clock in St. Paul's Episcopal church is Miss Harriet Hawkins, daughter of Mrs. Taylor Hawkins and Harry Hawkins of Portland. Her bridegroom is William S. Duncan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Duncan of Silverton.

The Rev. George H. Swift will read the rites and Josephine Albert Spaulding will be soloist, with Miss Ruth Bedford at the organ. Lighting aisle tapers will be Miss Virginia Covert and Mrs. Maurice Fitzsimmons.

Miss Hawkins' uncle, W. R. McMurray of Portland, will give her in marriage. She has asked Mrs. Carlton McLeod to be her matron of honor and the Misses Gretchen Nicolai and Nancy Kellahey of Portland, bridesmaids. Best man for Mr. Duncan will be Raymond Dahl of Silverton, and ushers are the bride's cousin, Dr. W. R. McMurray, Jr., of Portland, Frank Brown of Salem, Donald Renwick and Wallace Adams of Silverton.

Butte-Spaulding Rites

Among nuptials planned for Sunday, September 7 are those of Miss Barbara Spaulding and Robert Butte, who will be united in marriage at 3 o'clock at the First Congregational church. The Rev. Seth Huntington will perform the ceremony. Miss Spaulding is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Loren Spaulding and Mr. Butte is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Butte.

Lighting candles before the ceremony will be Mrs. Robert Peterson of Portland and Mrs. Robert King. Flower girl and ring bearer will be Diane and Jerry Hutcheson of Albany. Closing the bridal aisle when the wedding party enters will be Miss Jean Walling of Portland and Miss Patricia Fish.

The bride has chosen Mrs. Philip Schnabel Jr., of Lewiston, Idaho, to be her matron of honor. Bridesmaids are to be Mrs. Roger Emery of Junction City and Mrs. Jack Matheny of Portland. Best man will be Carl Butte, the groom's brother, and ushers are Kenneth Hosler of Naperville, Ill., Robert N. Phillips Jr., and Robert Marton.

Ean-Nelson Plans

Revealing her choice of attendants today for her marriage to William Ean of Portland, is Miss Janice Nelson whose nuptials will be performed by the Rev. George H. Swift Sunday, September 7, at St. Paul's Episcopal church. Miss Ruth Bedford will play the wedding music at the three o'clock ceremony.

Following the reading of wedding rites the couple will greet guests at the West Leffelle street home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Nelson. Mr. Ean is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Ean of Portland.

Miss Edith Moxley will be the bride's honor attendant. Bridesmaids are Miss Marianne Low and Miss Mary Fairchild of Bend. Mr. Ean will have Wayne Strohecker of Portland as his best man, and ushers are Donald Wells of Corvallis, Reed Nelson, the bride's brother, Hugh Brown of Newberg and Robert Chrisman of Playa Del Rey, Calif.

To Wed at Church

Telling friends of romantic plans is Betty Zo Allen whose marriage to Wayne Struble will be solemnized next Sunday at St. Paul's Episcopal church. The Rev. George H. Swift will officiate at the 8 o'clock nuptials. Miss Ruth Bedford will be organist and the bride's cousin, Corydon Blodgett, will sing the Lord's Prayer.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Dr. C. L. Blodgett, Miss Allen is the daughter of Mrs. Zona G. Allen. Mr. Struble is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Struble. Following the wedding ceremony the couple will greet guests at a reception in the parish house.

Miss Allen has asked Miss Jane Acton to be her maid of honor and Miss Jean Fidler to act as bridesmaid. Bruce David of Portland will stand with Mr. Struble as best man. Ushers will be John Petty of Gladstone, and Travis Cross, Larry Baer and Albert Costello.

Miss Bates to Wed

Another bride-elect to announce wedding plans for next weekend is Miss Caroline Bates, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Charles E. Bates who will marry Kenneth L. Prince, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Prince at nuptials performed Saturday at 8 p. m. at the First Congregational church. The Rev. Seth Huntington will officiate and soloist will be Edith Fairham, with Jean Hobson Rich at the organ.

Miss Bates has chosen Miss Jean Conner, her cousin from Portland, as her maid of honor, and the Misses Evelyn Hilfiker and Zarelda Prince, the groom's sisters, as bridesmaids. Lighting tapers will be Miss Sara Ann Ohling and Miss Rosabelle Ross. Best man will be Lumir W. Novotny and ushers Fred Sauville, Portland, William McGrath and Stanley Bates, the bride's brother.

Miss Hale Engaged...

Mr. and Mrs. Paul A. Hale are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Miss Patricia Hale, to Richard Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gail Jones, all of Salem.

No plans have been made for the wedding. Miss Hale expects to continue her studies at Oregon State college. Mr. Jones, who recently spent a two week's leave here with his parents, is in the navy and stationed in South Carolina.

WOMEN'S SECTION

A Reception...

Two hundred invitations are in the mail this week bidding medical personnel and governing staff of the Salem Deaconess Hospital to a reception honoring Miss Margaret A. Darby, new superintendent of nurses at the hospital. The reception will be held Sunday, September 7, at the Chris Seely residence on Court street, between the hours of four and eight p. m.

Asked to receive guests will be Miss Darby, her assistant superintendent, Mrs. Edna B. Tatro, Frank F. Wedel, administrator, A. C. Haag, president of the board, the Rev. Homer Leisy, vice-president of the board, Floyd K. Bowers, secretary-treasurer, Irwin F. Wedel, assistant administrator and the Rev. Sam P. Neufeldt, hospital chaplain.

The tea table will be decorated with an embroidered cloth, red gladioluses and fall flowers and crystal candlebraces with white tapers. Pouring the first hour will be Mrs. Frank F. Wedel and Mrs. A. C. Haag; the second hour, Mrs. Homer Leisy and Mrs. Floyd Bowers; the third hour, Mrs. Irwin F. Wedel and Mrs. Sam P. Neufeldt and the last hour, Mrs. W. P. Barto and Miss Florence Cameron. Assisting about the rooms will be nurses of the hospital.

Mrs. James Hatfield, the former Billie June Grimm, who was married in the chapel at St. Paul's Episcopal church at 8 o'clock Wednesday night. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Grimm and her husband's, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hatfield. (Jesten-Miller).

At St. John's Church...

Exchanging vows Saturday night before an altar banked with pastel gladioluses were Miss Ramona Lenaburg and James Barnard of Corvallis, whose nuptials took place in St. John's Lutheran church. The Rev. H. W. Gross officiated at the 8 o'clock ceremony. Soloist was Mrs. William Fischer with William Fischer at the organ.

Given in marriage by her father, Miss Lenaburg is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Lenaburg. Lighting tapers preceding the ceremony were Mrs. Donald Lombard and Miss Florence Lewis of Portland, both in yellow net gowns.

The bride chose a white satin gown fashioned with fitted bodice, long sleeves with points at the wrist, and court train. Her veil of fingertip illusion was held in place by a beaded coronet. She carried a wedding ring bouquet of white gladioluses centered with pink rosebuds.

The bride's sister, Miss Esther Lenaburg, was her honor maid, in a blue net gown. She carried a nosegay of white daisies centered with pink gladioluses. The bridesmaid, Mrs. James Wolfe, another sister, wore a pink net gown and carried a nosegay of white daisies centered with blue.

Small flower girl was the bride's niece, Delores Lenaburg, in white dotted swiss, carrying a miniature nosegay matching those of the attendants. Best man was the groom's cousin, John Chapman of Eugene, and ushers were James Boydston of Adair Village, and the bride's two brothers, Kenneth and Virgil Lenaburg.

The bride's mother wore a black gown with black accessories and a gardenia corsage.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held in the Parrish hall, with Mrs. Donald Reitzer cutting the bride's cake, Miss Betty Paulson pouring, and Mrs. John Chapman of Eugene, Miss Betty Vogelwohl of Sutherlin, Mrs. Darrell Schroeder and Miss Florence Lewis assisting.

For her wedding trip to Canada the bride chose a gray gabardine suit with cutaway jacket, black hat trimmed with pink, and black accessories. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds.

The couple will be at home in the middle of September in Corvallis where he will attend Oregon State college as a junior. She is a graduate of Salem schools and worked as a dental assistant for several years.

Miss Beardsley a Bride...

Before the fireplace banked with bouquets of pink and cream gladioluses, Miss Betty Jo Beardsley exchanged vows with William Hill Saturday, at a quiet ceremony in the Fireplace room of the First Congregational church. The Rev. Godfrey Mathews performed the nuptials at 4 o'clock.

Before the ceremony Reid Shelton, the bride's uncle, sang Beethoven's "I Love You" and Lizt's "It Must Be Wonderful Indeed." Brenner Luthi played the wedding music. The new Mrs. Hill is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jud Beardsley of Los Angeles, formerly of Salem, and Mr. Hill is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Hill.

The bride's only attendant was Miss Donna Lawrence, who wore a white suit with black accessories and carried a cascade bouquet of rubrum lilies. Standing as best man was Gerald Volkel.

The bride chose to be married in a pink faille tea suit fashioned with fishtail back and Peter Pan collar. Her accessories were of navy faille and she wore a small hat. She carried a nosegay of white stock and bouvardia.

The bride's parents were unable to come from Los Angeles for the wedding. The groom's mother attended in a blue-gray suit with long fitted jacket and black accessories. Her corsage was of gardenias.

Following the wedding the bride and groom received guests at the Hill home on North 23rd street. The bride's grandmother, Mrs. Russell Winchcomb, poured, and assisting with the serving were the Misses Marianne Bonesteel and Dawn Hill, the groom's sister.

For the wedding trip the bride donned a burgundy suit with black accessories. After two weeks motoring along the Oregon coast the couple will return to make their home in Salem while he attends Oregon State college. Both are graduates of Salem schools.

Women Make Plans...

The Salem Business and Professional Women's club is making plans for winter, having met during the week to arrange several important events.

The central Willamette district conference of the Oregon Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs will be held in Woodburn, October 19.

The club's fall rummage sale is scheduled for September 5 and 6 at Beaver hall, by the chairman, Mrs. John Versteeg.

Recreational meetings are to be held at the Salem Woman's club on the second Tuesday of each month. The first meeting, September 9, is in charge of Mrs. LuVerne Hardwicke, chairman of the recreational committee.

Miss Zula Gilder, chairman of the hospitality committee, is planning the business and dinner meeting for September 23, at Nohl-gren's.

Married at Jason Lee Methodist church August 23, were Mr. and Mrs. John Cotton pictured here following the ceremony which was read by the groom's father. The bride, the former Corliss Clark is the daughter of Prof. and Mrs. Herman Clark, and her husband is the son of the Rev. and Mrs. Earl Cotton. (Kennell-Ellis).