

Wedding of Miss Patten Is Today

Flighting their troth today are Miss Marilyn Patten and Albert Wickert jr., at 4 o'clock nuptials read by the Rev. Godfrey Mathews in the First Congregational church. Miss Patten is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Patten of Portland and Mr. Wickert is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Wickert.

Reid Shelton will sing the "Lord's Prayer" and "Because" preceding the ceremony and Jean Hobson Rich will be organist. The bride's only attendant will be Miss Virginia Wilcox, who will wear a wine suit and accessories of pastel gladioluses.

Miss Patten has chosen a forest green dove-tail suit, fashioned with long jacket embellished with silver buttons, straight skirt and a hat of forest green with pink feathers. She will wear pink gloves, green accessories and wear a corsage of pink roses.

Best man for Mr. Wickert will be Thure A. Lindstrom jr., and ushers will be Walter Heine and Robert Lindstrom. Mrs. Patten will wear a grey dress with black accessories and a corsage of American beauty roses. Mrs. Wickert has chosen a black two-piece dress with black accessories and a corsage of pink roses and forget-me-nots.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception will be held at the church, with the bride's aunt, Mrs. C. K. Gett of Tacoma, cutting the cake and Mrs. Donald Eschelman pouring. Assisting will be Miss Karleen Faucette of Portland. Mrs. T. A. Lindstrom, jr.,

Don't Look Now...

but . . . we note that Blondie's new three-piece suit pictured Saturday has a skirt well up to the knees. Can it be that Chic Young has not heard of the WOWs.

Street scenes . . . Hearing a loud wailing as we walked by recently, we found it only a small fellow in the barber's chair. On our way back ten minutes later the same howling was going on. There was the mother, looking pained, the barber patiently clipping hair on the run, and the father standing by with an expression in his eye which indicated that he, too, had bawled in the barber chair in his youth.

On the house . . . There's a parking meter downtown, which is stuck on 60 minutes and we, among others, have enjoyed a free hour or so there during the week. Saturday it was still stuck on 60, and we saw a man leisurely polishing his car, while enjoying an indefinite stay. Wonder how long it will take the police to find out where the meter is, which makes of the city a gracious host.

Carefree . . . In a want ad this week: "2 young, uninhibited school teachers desire an apartment, preferably in center section of town." One of our reporters says he has no apartment, but would like to meet these young, uninhibited school teachers.

Interesting, if true . . . Sometimes I wonder at the theater ads. "In all your life you've seen no portrayals to match the unquenchable love of Joan Crawford for Van Hefflin. (Isn't Joan a bit old for unquenchable love?)" "Held over, because you requested it! Howard Hughes thrill soaked saga of the great southwest, 'The Outlaw!'" (No persons under 16 admitted without adults) "Thanks Salem, for holding us over for 2 more days," the whole town loves that Gable, a pretty strong statement phodner . . . Maxine Buren.

Miss Savage To Be Wed In Evening

Wedding bells are ringing today for Miss Donna Savage and Kenneth H. Greene whose vows will be exchanged in the Carrier Room of the First Methodist church at 8 p. m. Dr. J. C. Harrison of Seattle will perform the nuptial ceremony before the fireplace banked with pastel gladioluses and asters.

Lighting the tapers before the ceremony will be the Misses Ruth Holtzman and Irene McLeod. Playing the wedding music will be Mrs. Raymond Barton and singing "Because" and "Ich Liebe Dich" will be Martha Hrubetz.

Bridesmaids are the Misses Nancy Snyder and Dorothy Polanski in gowns of pink chiffon over pink satin and carrying arm bouquets of sweetheart roses and white daisies. Miss Geraldine Ann Savage, her sister, will be her honor maid. She will wear a frock of blue chiffon over satin, with fitted bodice and full skirt. Her arm bouquet will be a semi-cascade of sweetheart roses and daisies.

Miss Savage has chosen white satin for her wedding gown, fashioned with net yoke edged with a quilted satin bertha, with sleeves of the French bell style, and a full skirt. Her veil is of fingertip illusion caught by a crown of beaded white satin. She will carry a white Bible with a single white orchid.

Standing as best man will be Robert C. White and ushers are Alvin Boyd and Randolph Francis of Portland.

Mrs. Harom Savage, mother of the bride, will wear a chocolate brown dress made with round neckline, fitted sleeves and a draped skirt. On the sleeves are inserts of green sparkling with bronze sequins. Her accessories will be brown and her corsage is of Rubrum lilies.

Mrs. Harry Green, mother of the groom will wear brown crepe ornamented with gold sequins, and brown accessories.

Assisting at the reception will be the bride's two aunts, Mrs. Albert Ramseyer and Mrs. Ellis Von Eschen, and the groom's aunt, Mrs. Floyd Bacon. The bride's younger sister will assist at the gift table.

Miss Savage has chosen to wear a grey crepe dress, red alligator shoes and bag and gray hat on the wedding trip. The couple will be at home in Salem after a week at Oregon beaches. He will attend Willamette university law school this fall in his second year.

HELPS RESTORE SPRING FLOWER BEAUTY TO FADING SKIN

If you're a woman out battling for a living in a man's world, it is frequently a real financial asset to look younger than your actual years. That's why all such women have a particularly compelling reason to try ENDOCREME. For most women, this scientific face cream can help the skin of face and throat retain or recapture firmness, freshness, smoothness, young-appearing loveliness in a way hitherto thought impossible through cosmetics. ENDOCREME alone contains ACTIVOL, an effective replacement for a certain natural feminine substance essential to skin beautification. Absorbed by the skin, it helps restore normal growth to ageing cells and tissue. Its unequalled benefits have been established by 10 years of widespread use. Many report marked results in as few as 30 days. $3.50 (plus tax), 30 days' supply.
