Bonds to Make Debt Payment

A large part of funds derived from the sale of veterans' terminal leave bonds in Oregon will be used to pay off debts, for payments on homes and farms and for other substantial purposes, officials of the state veterans affairs department asserted Monday.

Only a small percentage of the money received from the bonds will be used for vacations and luxuries, these officials said. It also was noted by these officials that a considerable part of the total would be used for retiring state veterans' loans previously obtained for the purchase of farms and homes.
