

Miss Janice Nelson Now Mrs. Ean

Fall colors, gold and bronze, were selected by Miss Janice Nelson for her wedding Sunday afternoon to William Lee Ean of Portland, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Ean. The 2 o'clock nuptials were solemnized at St. Paul's Episcopal church with the Rev. George H. Swift officiating. Miss Ruth Bedford was the organist. The altar was banked with baskets of white gladioluses, gold and bronze chrysanthemums and dahlias flanked by white tapers.

The petite, blonde bride entered on the arm of her father, Carl E. Nelson, who gave his only daughter in marriage. Of cream fallie was the bridal gown fashioned with a full skirt slightly entrained and enhanced with cording. The fitted bodice was designed with Peter Pan collar, buttons down the front and peplum edged with the cording. From a lace headress cascaded her fingertip length veil of ivory illusion. She carried a bouquet of white Ophelia roses and magnolia greens.

Proceeding the bride to the altar were Miss Marianne Low and Miss Mary Fairchild of Bend, as bridesmaids, and Miss Edith Moxley, the honor maid. Their dresses were of old gold velvet and designed identical with low round necklines with wide collars, short sleeves with cuffs and buttons down the back. The full skirts were gathered. They carried gold and bronze chrysanthemums and dahlias tied with leaf green satin ribbon. Their head-dresses were of the same flowers and tied with green satin streamers.

Attends the Groom
Wayne Strohecker of Portland stood with the groom as best man and seating the guests were Reed Nelson, the bride's brother, Donald Wells of Corvallis, Hugh Brown of Newberg and Robert Christian of Playa BelRay, Calif. Mrs. Nelson selected a teal blue crepe afternoon gown with draped skirt, black hat and accessories for the nuptials. Her flowers were white roses. Mrs. Ean attended her son's wedding in a navy blue gown accented with pink, pink feather hat and corsage of rubrum lilies.

The newlyweds greeted their guests in the drawing room of the Carl Nelson home on Fairmount Hill. Mrs. Stuart Nelson presided at the coffee urn and Mrs. J. E. Law cut the bride's cake. Assisting were Miss Andrea Manerud of Eugene, Miss Carol Crowther of Portland, Miss Margaret Bellinger, Miss Phyllis Fisher, Miss Florence Duffy and Mrs. Hugh William McElhinny. When the couple left on their honeymoon the new Mrs. Ean donned a winter green gabardine suit with beige felt cloche with feather trim, brown accessories and Kolinsky fur. After a fortnight's motor trip the couple will be at home in Corvallis where he will attend Oregon State college.

FOUR CORNERS — Marantha Missionary circle, Four Corners Baptist church met with Mrs. Oliver Rickman. Mrs. Frank Ferrin is president. Talks on foreign missions were given by several members. Part of the book, "That They May Hear," was reviewed by Mrs. Richardson. During the social hour members worked on the quilt. Refreshments were served to Mrs. Frank Ferrin, Mrs. Leuthal Holman, Mrs. William Gould, Mrs. S. H. Cable, Mrs. Cecil Snook, Mrs. E. A. Snook, Mrs. H. Hammond, Mrs. W. S. Campbell and Mrs. Harold Dixon, a guest.

Jason Lee Woman's Society of Christian Service will meet Wednesday at the church at 11 a. m., followed by a luncheon at 12:30. In the afternoon devotions will be read by Mrs. Ray Lively and the lesson will be presented by Mrs. H. B. Carpenter and Mrs. Harry Irvine. All women of the church and community are invited to attend.

Celebrating her third birthday September 3 was Priscilla Gabel who was hostess to a group of her playmates at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gugel. Present were Betty Mae Davis, Kenneth Haffner, Gloria Little, Linda and Donna Gephart and the hostess.

Down the Aisle

by Jerry English
PERFECT IN DETAILS were the church weddings on Saturday and Sunday when Harriet Hawkins became Mrs. William Duncan and Janice Nelson changed her name to Mrs. William Ean . . .

St. Paul's Episcopal church was overflowing with guests on Saturday for the Duncan-Hawkins nuptials . . . hardly room for the bridal party to enter . . . many late arrivals . . . Because of the stormy weather, quite a wait for cars . . . the foyer of the church and entrance hall at the Hawkins home, where the reception was held were well crowded much of the time . . . Lovely white flowers at the church and clusters of the blossoms tied with pale yellow ribbon marking the alternate pews . . . The attendants so pretty in their cornflower blue velvet hooped skirted frocks . . . and for contrast carrying fan shaped bouquets of red gladioluses . . . Harriet, in a classic style white satin gown, so radiant and happy . . . later she and Bill mingling with the guests at the reception, enjoying it as much as they . . .

Reception notes . . . The spacious Carl Nelson home the setting . . . ample for the hundred or more guests . . . the rooms colorfully decorated in autumn tones . . . Exquisite was the bride's table . . . a gold satin cloth . . . an all white centerpiece with smilax extending to either end . . . in the center of the large circular cake was a crystal vase filled with white roses . . .

Guests here and there . . . some in the den where punch was served by Reed Nelson and Tom Kay . . . others strolling out onto the covered patio and terraced garden . . . even the weather man turned on a smile for the occasion . . . many ohs and ahs about the beautiful tuberous begonias in a lattice enclosure at one end of the garden and a little green house beyond . . .

More of same . . . from out-of-town came the Carlton Spencers, who only recently moved back to Eugene . . . she chic in a black suit with matching hat . . . the Spencers en route home from the bar convention in Portland . . . the groom's sister and family, the Oliver Crowthers of Portland . . . she in a becoming sapphire blue satin suit with matching flowered halo . . . From Eugene the Nish Chapmans, she in all brown, the Harold Whites, the latter in sophisticated black and Mrs. Robert Earl and daughter, Barbara, of Portland . . . All eyes on little Genevieve Nelson on her father's arm as Lt. and Mrs. Stuart Nelson arrived at the church . . . good as gold all during the ceremony and wearing a darling white dress edged in embroidered organdy . . . her blonde hair a mass of ringlets . . . and Mrs. Nelson chic in a black ensemble with a spray of feathers adorning one side of her hat . . . The Nelsons leave this week . . . he to San Diego, his new base, and she to Portland to be with her parents until Stuart finds living accommodations . . .

Spotted . . . The Hollis Huntington family . . . daughter, Crystal, in a coral wool frock, very full skirt and long . . . hyacinth blue mullin on Mrs. Fred Moxley's black hat . . . Mrs. George Arbuckle's black "five o'clock" dress massed with blue and black beads . . . and Mrs. Paul Wallace stunning in a black tunic style costume suit, black hat with veiling and gold antelope gloves . . . Janice threw her bouquet from the lovely stairway with bridesmaid, Marianne Low, the catcher . . . Only a few saw Janice and Bill leave as they dashed down the stairs and into the car for a quick getaway . . . but showered with rice by those who were on hand . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schenk and children spent Sunday at Lincoln Beach with the Wendell Webbs, their son, Stevie, who have gone over earlier for a visit. Mrs. Webb and the children plan to return to Salem next weekend following a summer's stay at the coast.

People . . . The bride's aunt, Mrs. Robert McMurray of Portland, striking in a leaf green satin dinner gown with all over design of embroidered flowers . . . In the dining room . . . The Theta house mother, Mrs. Agnes Hanson of Eugene, cutting the cake and wearing black with lace ruffling edging the long sleeves . . . Pouring . . . Mrs. Frank H. Spears in a good-looking black gown studded with brilliants . . . and Mrs. Arthur Rahn in pearl grey taffeta . . . Mrs. Robert Gormsen distinctive in white with lace yoke and cascade of lace ruffling in back . . . Excited about leaving for rush week at Oregon the following day . . . Suzanne Huggins and Helen Shepard, dashing in a red velvet coat with hood . . . Family groups . . . Mrs. Vern Miller and two of her daughters with Mrs. Willard Marshall and her eldest girl, Martha, all in pretty long dresses . . .

The gift room . . . packed most of the time, everyone wanting a glimpse of the gorgeous array of presents . . . one long table of handsome silver pieces . . . A mad dash as the young couple left amidst a hail of rice . . . guests lining the walk clear out to the street.

SUNDAY'S MARRIAGE . . . Janice and Bill exchanging vows also at St. Paul's . . . the ceremony impressive and simple . . . Janice sweet and lovely in her cream faille gown and carrying roses . . . So striking were the three attendants who preceded . . . carrying out the autumn colors . . . the girls in gold velvet dresses . . . their headresses and bouquets of bronze and gold chrysanthemums and dahlias tied with leaf green satin ribbons . . . the same flowers interspersed with white gladioluses at the altar . . . yellow boutonnières for the ushers . . . the groom dark and good-looking . . .

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Hill (Betty Jo Beardsley), who were married on August 30 in the fireplace room of the First Congregational church. The newlyweds will live in Corvallis. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Judson Beardsley of Los Angeles, formerly of Salem, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Hill of Salem. (McEwan photo.)

What's harder to wash than OVERALLS?

Double your money back if SU-PURB doesn't get your hardest wash cleaner—quicker and easier than the soap you are now using!

SU-PURB SOAP

If you're wondering if you should still save used fats, here's your answer. Clinton P. Anderson, Secretary of Agriculture, says: "It is still necessary to conserve every pound of used fat, since the over-all fat supply situation is little better now than it was last year." You see, almost everything we use requires industrial fats or their products. There just aren't enough fats in the world to go around, so every pound of used cooking fats is an American woman turn in a real help! Let's keep up the good work till the world-wide shortage is over!
