

Au Revoir Parties Slated

Au revoirs will be said in the next few weeks to two popular young Salem girls, who will be leaving for the east for extended stays.

Miss Beth Siewert, daughter of Mrs. A. A. Siewert, will fly east to Philadelphia on September 22 for an indefinite stay. She will be the guest of Miss Shirley Butler, who returns to her home in Philadelphia after a year's stay in the capital. Miss Butler leaves for the east next week. Miss Siewert plans to continue with her vocal lessons on the east coast. She has been secretary at the local Red Cross office here.

Mrs. Siewert has invited a few of her daughter's friends to a luncheon next Wednesday afternoon at her North Winter street home.

Tuesday night Mrs. Robert Brownell is planning a bridge party for Miss Siewert at her Cascade Drive home. Mrs. William Mallotte Smith will be a luncheon hostess on September 19 at the H. G. Smith home for the traveler. Mrs. Alan Siewert is also planning a party for her sister-in-law prior to her departure.

Honor Miss Peters

Miss Anna Peters will fly east September 27 to New York City for a week's visit with a former Salem resident, Mrs. J. Walter Kliff. From there Miss Peters will go to Atlanta, Georgia, where she will take special laboratory work for six weeks and then on to New Orleans for a month's study. She will be away until the first of the year. Miss Peters is laboratory technician at the Salem Clinic.

Tuesday night Miss Peters was feted at an au revoir party when her bridge club entertained at dinner at Silver Creek Falls lodge. Later the group returned to the home of Mrs. Irving DeFrance for several hours of bridge. Covers were placed for Miss Peters, Mrs. DeFrance, Mrs. Robert Keudell, Mrs. Ardell Newell, Mrs. Donald Ream, Mrs. William De-Few, Mrs. Norval Edwards and Mrs. Morris Stewart, a guest.

Dean and Mrs. Melvin Geist, Mrs. Howard Maple and daughter, Marcia, will be among those in Portland Saturday night for the San Francisco Opera company's presentation of "Faust," starring Pinza, Mrs. U. S. Dotson, Miss Betty Dotson, Miss Brenda Glass and Miss Barbara Ortmann will be in Portland Friday night for "Madam Butterfly" at the Auditorium.

Mrs. Ralph Mapes will entertain informally tonight at her D street home in honor of Mrs. Robert Hauser. The evening will be spent informally with a late supper served by the hostess with covers placed for thirty. The guests will honor Mrs. Hauser with a shower during the evening.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles Pomeroy will have as their weekend home guests Mr. and Mrs. John Blair of Lakeview. Saturday night the Pomeroy's have invited a few friends to a buffet supper at their Center street home in honor of the visitors.

Mrs. W. F. Ewalt of Ohio, Illinois, is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Ralph Dobbs, and grandson, Paul Jones, while Mr. Dobbs is in Chicago. Mrs. Ewalt will return east the end of the month.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Harbison and their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Juza and daughter, Sally Jo, of Lebanon have returned from a ten-day stay at Neskowin.

Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic will meet today at 10:30 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Louise Hall, 540 Water st., for all-day sewing. Sack lunches will be served.
