Minter-McVey Vows Read

Before a fireplace banked with coral gladioluses and white chrysanthemums, Miss Helen A. McVey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. McVey, was married September 7 to W. J. Minter, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Minter of Salem. The Rev. Leonard Jones of West Salem Methodist church performed the ceremony which took place in the West Salem home of the bride's parents at 7 o'clock. The bride's only attendant was her sister, Miss Ruth McVey, who wore a gown of white lace over pink and carried a colonial bouquet. Miss Dorothy Beasley lighted tapers and Miss Dorothy Butts played the wedding music preceding the ceremony. The bride's father gave her in marriage and also attended the groom.

Miss McVey chose white satin for her wedding gown, fashioned with Colonial neckline and fingertip veil caught by a lace crown. She wore heirloom lace gloves and carried a spray of yellow roses and white stephanotis. Her only ornament was a gold and diamond lavelier, a gift of her uncle. For her daughter's wedding Mrs. McVey chose a coral gown with a gladiolus and rose corsage and Mrs. Minter wore flowered voile and corsage of gladioluses and roses. The couple will live in Salem after their wedding trip. Both graduated from Salem schools and the groom served in the navy for three and a half years.
