Every time I wanted the car, the gas tank was empty. Funny thing ... since we switched to Chevron Supreme Gasoline, I seem to go farther between refills. (That's Chevron Supreme's long mileage).

Carburetors and things are so bewildering! I felt futile when the car balked. Now, Chevron Supreme starts it in a flash, (Its vaporizing ability is controlled to suit the seasons, Mrs. Harrison).

I blossom on Chevron Supreme Gasoline-it's actually a number of gasolines blended to give premium performance in smoothness, power and driving ease under every road condition, in any weather!

All the Harrisons say, a good word for Chevron Supreme

Chevron Supreme is wonderful for week-end jaunts because it's climate-tailored to fit driving conditions wherever I go ... besides, the Chevron National Credit Card helps hoard my allowance!
