

Twins Will Be Baptized

Fatsy Lou and Peggy Sue Strickfaden, four month old twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Strickfaden, will be baptized this morning during services at the First Congregational church with the Rev. Seth Huntington officiating. Godparents for the little girls will be Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ruggles of Salem and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rhine of Homer City, Pennsylvania, uncle and aunt, who are here visiting at the David H. Cameron home. A buffet luncheon at the Strickfaden home will follow the services for members of the immediate family. Covers will be placed for twins' great-grandmother, Mrs. Minnie Jane Bell of Independence, the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. David H. Cameron, and

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Nagel and son, Larry David, of Corvallis, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rhine, John Lee Strickfaden and the hosts.

Miss Shirley Durand has arrived from Rochester, N.Y., to enter her junior year at Willamette university. She will make her home with Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Blodgett and Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Utley.

Ex-King Carol, Wife Packing to Leave Brazil

RIO DE JANEIRO, Sept. 13—(P)—Former King Carol of Romania and Mme. Elena Lupescu, legally declared man and wife, were reported by attendants Friday to be packing to leave Brazil. Where and when they will go remained a secret even among their closest friends.

JANE WITHERS TO WED
LOS ANGELES, Sept. 13—(P)—Jane Withers, 21-year-old film actress, and William Moss, 27, motion picture producer, obtained a marriage license Friday.

Telling of her engagement to Howard Peterson, recently, was Miss Luella Haugen. Her parents of Mr. and Mrs. Hjalmer Haugen and his are Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Peterson of Dallas. No wedding plans have

Nuptials to Be Read

At a 2 o'clock ceremony this afternoon in the fireplace room of the First Congregational church Miss Helenmae Armstrong, daughter of Mrs. Delbert Rund, will become the bride of Loren Wiederkehr, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Wiederkehr of Jefferson. The fireplace will be banked with arrangements of white gladioluses and blue delphinium.

Delbert Rund will give the bride in marriage and for her wedding she has chosen a white gaudine dressmaker suit fashioned with long jacket, navy blue hat and accessories. She will carry a fan shaped bouquet of white flowers centered with an orchid.

Mrs. Theodore Wait will be the bride's only attendant and she will wear a mist blue suit with navy accessories and carry a bouquet of pink gladioluses and blue delphinium. Donald Gilmore will stand with the groom as best man.

Mrs. Rund will attend her daughter's wedding in a black wool suit with matching accessories and Mrs. Wiederkehr will wear a pastel blue suit with black accessories. Their corsages will be of pink and white roses and bouvardia.

A reception will follow the ceremony in the fireplace room. Mrs. Thomas Pramas will cut the cake and Mrs. Clarence Rund will preside at the coffee urn. Mrs. Dale Reeves will assist.

The couple will drive north to Lake Louise and Alaska on their honeymoon.

Mrs. Trachel, Children to Start for China

Mrs. Laura C. Trachel and her three daughters will leave Salem this week for China where they will join her husband, the Rev. J. J. Trachel, in his missionary work near Chungking, China. His family will sail from San Francisco September 19, sailing via Manila and Shanghai, thence 1,000 miles up the Yangtze river.

The Rev. Trachel, missionary for the National Holiness Missionary society, returned to China a year and a half ago after having returned to this country on the last passage of the Gripsholm during the war, following a 20-months imprisonment by the Japanese. His family had returned from China earlier.

Mrs. Trachel will be heard in a talk at the Sunday evening service this week at Evangelical United Brethren church at Summer and Marion streets.

The Trachel daughters are Helen Marie, 11, Carol Faith, 5, and Joy Elizabeth, 3.

THE LUXURY TOASTMASTER

Moves the toast up and down and forward while being toasted, making it crunchy brown all over.

Is designed to make perfect toast from all kinds of bread either fresh or dry.

Timing is accurate and easily adjustable to suit either high or low voltage.

Toasts large or small slices, even English muffins, equally well, at a speed of approximately a slice a minute.

Toast is made light or dark to suit the individual taste simply by adjusting the timing lever for lighter or darker toast.

Prevents burning toast by ejecting the toast automatically when the toasting is complete.

Heating elements will last for years but can be replaced in a few minutes if necessary.

Has a beautiful plastic base that never gets hot and will not damage the finest table.

Is easy to clean — simply lift off the chromium top and brush out the crumbs.

Will reheat cold toast in 10 seconds by placing the slice in the exit end of the toaster.

Is factory tested, with money back guarantee against all mechanical and electrical defects.

Has a generous eight foot cord with plug attached. 110 to 124 volts - AC only.
