If you are one who is all hopped up over the new worlds Jerry Lillie is sure to conquer in his first fling with Willamette's Bearcats, better pause and listen a spell, mister. Roughly, there should be little conquering done by the Cats this time, and it won't be Lillie's fault. Drop around and take a peek at the material the man has to work with and we're sure you'll understand after one look. Gone are most of the capables who carried the load last year. And in their places this time mostly are green yearlings who are bound to find the stride from high school to college footballing a long one indeed. Too, Lillie was counting upon the return of a couple of 1946 standouts in Halfback Johnny Slanchik and Fullback Al Wickert. But neither have yet returned. Also, Lillie had no erack at spring training with his squad, so consequently has to both learn to know his men and their capabilities and teach them his brand new T-formation system. all in the brief 18 days allowed for practice. look over the 1947 National

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Sept. 13-(AP)-Notre Dame again has all the makings of national football champions. Twenty-nine lettermen from last year's unbeaten team which scored 40 touchdowns and yielded only four are back. Seventeen have departed, including such dependables as Backs Gerry Cowhig, George Ratterman and Jim Mello and line stalwarts as Jack Zilly, Bob Skoglund and John Mastrangelo. But the Fighting Irish still have their usual depth in material at all positions, possibly with the exception of quarterback. This highly important job in Frank Leahy's famed T formation will again be manned by All-American Johnny Lujack, brilliant passer, kicker, field general and defensive demon. Behind him, however, the talent runs dangerously thin. Frank Tripucka and Russ Ashbaugh would be used in case Lujack is injured, but neither measure up at this time to the standard required of a T-master.

Rowland a 'Bleater'

Of PCL Boss "Pants" Rowland's ambitions to get his league a major rating, Detroit's H. G. Salsinger and New York's Arthur Deley have this to say in their respective sheets: "Rowland is now the very vociferous gent who serves as president of the Pacific Coast league. That strange noise you occasionally hear booming across the Rockies is the voice of Rowland, screaming that his circuit be accorded major league status. But that's the stuff dreams are made of and Pants makes a very good impression on the people who pay his salary by his insistent bleating." And we'll betcha Rowland still is bleating 10 years from now.

Layne Looking Great

Bad news for Oregon's intended revenge come Saturday, September 27. in Multnomah stadium. The U of Texas athletics tattler is peddling such phrases as "brilliant All-American Bobby Layne of the Longhorn backfield is taking to the new Texas T-formation like a duck to water. Layne should be even more terrific this season than he has been in the past at Texas." And from the looks of the likes of that, the Duck's we're thinking of had best be hoping much water does fall at Multnomah that red-letter day. . . .
