

St. Paul's to Be Setting For Rites

Miss Margaret Paxson will receive her golden circlet from Budd Coons this afternoon when the couple's marriage takes place at St. Paul's Episcopal church at 3 o'clock. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen S. Paxson and will be given in marriage by her father. The benedict is the son of Mrs. Ivy Coons.

The Rev. George H. Swift will perform the nuptials before a setting of white gladioluses, chrysanthemums and asters flanked by white tapers in candelabras wound in ivy. The alternate pews will be marked with clusters of gladiolus blossoms and white ribbon. Miss Elizabeth Nelson will be the soloist and Miss Ruth Bedford the organist.

Miss Peggy Sears and Miss Patsy Nickens will light the tapers before the bridal party enters. Their dresses are of pastel blue marquisette and they will wear wrist bands of yellow and white flowers.

The honor maid will be Miss Suzanne Small, who will wear a yellow marquisette frock fashioned with tucked bodice, cap sleeves, high neckline and a full skirt. She will carry a bouquet of yellow and lavender chrysanthemums with white stephanotis. Preceding her to the altar will be the bridesmaids, Miss Joanne Fitzmaurice and Miss Jane Carson, who will wear orchid and aqua net frocks respectively. Their dresses are made with high, round necklines, full skirts and fitted bodices with a ruffle forming cap sleeves. Their bouquets will be of orchid chrysanthemums and stephanotis. All the girls will wear halo hats tied in back with a bow and ribbon streams to match their frocks.

Bride to Wear Marquisette
The petite bride will wear a marquisette bridal gown designed with a full skirt terminating in a train. At the waistline is an insertion of wide lace embroidery and the bodice is made with a square yoke edged in narrow lace, below which is a wide ruffle in front and back. A beaded crown will hold in place her double veil of illusion which is fingertip length. She will carry a prayer book marked with white orchids.

Dr. Max Coons of Selma, Calif., will stand with his brother as best man. Seating the guests will be Max Maude, Fred Bynon, III, Richard Schlicker and Edward Salstrom.

Mrs. Paxson has chosen a chocolate brown afternoon dress with cascade drape, gold studded belt and keyhole neckline for her

Miss Leona Rex Will Marry

Exchanging marriage vows tonight will be Miss Leona Rex, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Rex, and Gordon Hofstetter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hans Hofstetter. The ceremony will be performed at St. Mark Evangelical Lutheran church with the Rev. M. A. Getzendaner officiating at 7:30 o'clock. Miss Barbara Schultz of Portland will sing and Professor Maurice Brennan will be the organist. Miss Evelyn Hilfiker, wearing a pink taffeta gown, will light the altar candles.

The bride, who will be given in marriage by her father, will wear an ivory slipper satin gown designed with full skirt ending in a train. The bodice is made with a peplum embellished with pearls and the sweetheart neckline is edged in pearl design. The sleeves are long and tiny buttons extend down the back. Her fingertip length tulle veil will be held in place by a seed pearl crown. Her only ornament will be a strand of pearls, a gift of the groom. She will carry a Bible, a gift of her mother, which will be marked with gardenias, roses and stephanotis.

Miss Joyce Siegenthaler will be maid of honor for her aunt and bridesmaids will be Mrs. E. E. Siegenthaler, sister of the bride, and Miss Beverly Hofstetter, sister of the groom. The honor maid will wear pink taffeta and the attendants' frocks are of water-fall blue. The dresses are made identical with collars and tiny buttons down the front of the fitted bodices. The full skirts are ruffled in back forming short trains. They will wear matching mitts and flowered headresses. Their old fashioned nosegays will be of pastel flowers.

Brother is Best Man
Janet Bean, the flower girl, will wear a floor length blue satin frock and carry a miniature nosegay. Gary Siegenthaler will be ring bearer.

Grover Hofstetter will stand with his brother as best man and groomsmen will be Rodney Hofstetter and Melvin Rex. Ushers will be Woody Carson, LuVerne Bell and Eddie Edlund.

Mrs. Rex will attend her daughter's wedding in a cinnamon brown suit with deep brown accessories. Mrs. Hofstetter will wear a grey suit with brown accessories. Their corsages will be of gardenias and roses.

After the ceremony a reception will be held in the Hofstetter home on Hood street. Mrs. L. J. Stewart will preside at the coffee urn and Mrs. Arlie Bean at the punch bowl. Mrs. G. E. Jaqua will cut the cake and Mrs. H. M. Boesch will serve the ices. Miss Marie Sherman will pass the guest book and Mrs. L. V. Urban will be in charge of the gifts. Assisting will be Johnny Rex and Leon DuBois.

Mr. Hofstetter and his bride will leave on a month's honeymoon trip to California and Mexico, returning to Salem to make their home. For travelling the bride will wear a brown suit and brown hat trimmed with chartreuse feather and chartreuse accessories.
