SOCIAL NEWS BUDGET . . . has an autumn tang these days . . . Once Labor day departs into the limbo . . . summer goes with it . . . for the principal topics of conversation these early fall days include . . . whose going off to college . . . the hectic rush weeks ahead . . . mothers busy getting their young ones ready for school . . . the "first grade ones" the most excited . . . Captains, leaders and workers being called for the coming Community Chest drive . . . Mrs. L. V. Benson, the woman's division chairman, busy at her phone and almost ready to put out an "SOE" sign for workers . . . Dates will soon be announced for the Community Concerts . . . and dancing clubs are setting their winter dates . . . all women's clubs are beginning their seasons this month . . . so it looks like we're about to jump into the busy winter social whirl . . .

AS TO COLLEGE . . . Dozens have chosen Oregon, Oregon State and Willamette this year . . . so many that we won't try to list the coeds and Joe College men in the past, lest we forget someone . . . Also have noted that not as many are going to out-of-state schools as before . . . But Stanford will claim four young Salem men, Tom Brand, who has just returned from a summer in Germany with his parents, Richard Page, Ted Baum and Mark Hatfield . . . Jo Ann Tweedie flew south Saturday to register for her junior year at Mills college at Oakland . . . Rosemary Gaiser returns for her senior year at Pomona college . . . Martha Steunfel will be a sophomore at the University of California at Berkeley . . . and Barbara Upjohn will be at UCLA . . . To graduate school . . . Edith Moxley, who received her degree from the University of Oregon in June, left Friday for Columbus, Ohio, where she will take graduate work in ceramics at Ohio State university . . . She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Fred Moxley . . . They are driving and enroute will stop at Livingston, Montana, to visit relatives . . . After Edith gets west Mrs. Moxley will return to work . . . The past year Edith has had her own ceramics studio at her home.

HONORS TO . . . Mildred Roberts Dawes, who has been chosen to play in the violin section of the Portland Symphony orchestra this winter . . . the orchestra has been newly organized and will hold its first concert in eight years in October . . . Mildred has given up her teaching and will devote her entire time to the orchestra . . . Werner Jensen is the conductor, having had experience with many large symphonies . . . Mr. Jensen, the husband of Ann Harding, the actress, was with the Salt Lake City Symphony last year . . . Friends of Edouard Hurlimann, former conductor of the Salem Philharmonic and with the Portland Symphony, will conduct the symphony orchestra in Bakersfield, Calif., this winter . . . He has been in Los Angeles engaged in radio work . . .

HOME AGAIN . . . are Jane Walsh and Mary Catherine Wilhelm of Eugene . . . the coeds had a summer packed full of experiences in New York City . . . They sublet an apartment in Greenwich Village, where they met with all nationalities and different classes of people . . . Then job hunting, which they found wasn't so easy . . . they read the want ads for a week and tracked them all down . . . almost gave up when two turned up . . . It was working in a candy shop for Jane and in a toy factory for Mary Catherine . . . Although not high paying jobs they were able to pay for their entertainment . . . Their itinerary included many sight-seeing trips . . . weekend visits to Washington, D.C., Philadelphia and Boston . . . a steamship ride up the Hudson along with 5,000 others . . . A visit to one of the sessions of the United Nations meeting at Lake Success . . . Attended fifteen stage shows . . . saw the Brooklyn Dodgers and Boston Red Sox play . . . A favorite rendezvous of the girls was to walk through Times Square daily to see the mass of people, almost unbelievable so many could congregate in one place . . . and it was really jammed the night after the 40 & 8 parade . . . Jane plans to be home part of the winter and take extension Bride-elect Darlene Gardner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter D. Gardner, whose engagement to Douglas B. Armstrong, jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas B. Armstrong, was told at a party Wednesday night. The wedding is planned to take place this winter. (Kennell-Ellis).

Clarence has left for Washington, D.C., to continue with his studies at the Georgetown university medical school . . . They have been in Portland for the summer with his family . . . Also in Washington, D.C. for the year are the Benjamin Whisenands (Dorothy Mott) and son, Jim . . . They arrived last week, motoring cross country in their new car, a gift of his father . . . Until they find living accommodations they are at the Madison hotel in Silver Springs, Va. . . Benny will enter George Washington university medical school this month . . . News about the Steed girls . . . Elizabeth is now doing personnel work at the University of California at Berkeley . . . her work primarily deals with the veterans . . . Sister, Virginia Wittwer, husband, Wallace, and little boy hope to be home from Korea for Christmas . . . Wally has been there two years . . . but Virginia wasn't able to join him until last fall . . . He is a West Point graduate and will receive new orders after arriving in the states . . . TO CELEBRATE . . . Echo Yeater, Elise Schroeder and Mrs. Elmer O. Berg will be in Portland Monday for the Mexican Independence Day celebration at the Russian Village . . . Echo and Elise have traveled in Mexico and Mrs. Berg and her little boy recently returned from a two month stay in Mexico . . . so they are more than interested in the celebration . . . Miss Jo Anne Lang, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lang, Garden Road, flew to Denver last week to enroll for her junior year at Denver university. She took her first two college years at Willamette university.

Miss Leary, Mr. Wright Married

White chrysanthemums and asters flanked by white tapers provided the setting Saturday night at the First Congregational church for the wedding of Miss Patricia Anne Leary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Leary, to Jack J. Wright, son of Mrs. Marcelle Wright of Paris and the late Claude Wright of San Francisco.

It was at 8 o'clock that the Rev. Seth Huntington officiated before a gathering of friends and relatives. The alternate pews were marked with large white bows. Lighting the candles were Mrs. Jack Bartelt and Mrs. John Copenhagen. Miss Jean Lichty of Portland was the soloist and Mrs. William East the organist.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Keith Crane (Evelyn Berger) who were married August 10 at the First Christian church. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Harry H. Austin and the groom is the son of Mrs. Virginia Crane. The couple will live in Salem. (McEwan photo).

The bridal party included Miss Adeline Wright of Seattle, sister of the groom, as maid of honor, who wore a mist blue taffeta gown, and Misses Margaret Day, a cousin of the bride, and Miss Lois Martin, as bridesmaids, who had shell pink taffeta dresses. Their gowns were designed identical with long sleeves, tiny buttons down the back, low, round necklines and full skirts. They wore matching taffeta halos with contrasting feather tips in their hair and carried scalloped fan shaped bouquets of pink and blue roses, chrysanthemums and carnations tied with tiny pink and blue bows to correspond with their dresses. Karen Day was flower girl for her cousin and wore a floor length white taffeta dress with pink and blue bows. Ronnie Day was the ring bearer.

The brunette bride entered on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. Of white jersey was the bridal gown fashioned with a deep marquisette yoke enhanced with narrow bands of the jersey, high rounded neckline, long sleeves and a full skirt terminating in a court train. Her fingertip length veil of imported French maline cascaded from a three pointed crown set with tiny pearls. She carried a crescent shape shower bouquet of stephanotis centered with a fuchsia orchid. For "something old" she carried Miss Cora Talkington's white lace handkerchief, which six other brides have carried.

Attend the Groom Robert Hoesley was his Theta Chi fraternity brother's best man. Seating the guests were Jay Hendrick, jr., of Bremerton, James Nash of Tacoma and Everett Stewart of Seattle.

For her daughter's nuptials Mrs. Leary wore a wine velvet gown made with elbow length sleeves and sweetheart neckline. She wore white kid gloves and a corsage of Elfe roses and bouvardia.

The newlyweds greeted their guests at a reception in the fireplace room. Mrs. William J. Min-

ART WORLD

On exhibition at the Elfstrom Art galleries beginning Monday will be watercolors by Johann Swietek and black and whites by F. Loren Boulter, Salem, manager of the art gallery at Elfstrom's. The exhibit will be on display from September 13 to October 10.

Swietek was born in Austria in 1903 and studied at Krakau under Julius Falat, noted artist and teacher. His work is an example of old world conservatism, a school of art which was side-tracked in France and other parts of Europe during the ultra-modern regime.

Boulter, well known to Salem art lovers, was born in Iowa and came to Oregon in 1935. His black and whites were exhibited in a one-man show at the California Palace of the Legion of Honor in 1945. He has been a constant exhibitor at the American Drawing Annuals at the Institute of Art, in Albany, N.Y.
