

Miss Riney Married Saturday

Bouquets of white asters and gladioluses decorated the altar of the First Congregational church Saturday night for the wedding of Miss Delphine Riney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Riney and Thomas C. Stevenson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude H. Stevenson. The aisle was lighted with tapers and the alternate pews were marked with clusters of flowers tied with satin ribbon.

Dr. Charles Durden officiated at the 7:30 o'clock ceremony. Miss Donna Linch was the soloist and Jean Hobson Rich the organist. Mrs. Donald Beecroft and Miss Dorothy Boyes, who lighted the tapers before the bride party entered, wore identical mist blue marquisette frocks.

Mr. Riney gave his daughter in marriage. For her wedding she selected a white gown fashioned with a full marquisette skirt which ended in a train and a lace bodice. The dress was made with a sweetheart neckline, long sleeves and buttons down the back. A lace peplum encircled the waistline and wide flounces of the material accentuated the hips. From a Juliet cap of seed pearls cascaded her fingertip length tulle veil. Her only ornament was a strand of pearls and she carried a white prayer book marked with purple orchids.

Honor Matron Wears Pink

Mrs. Delmer Dewey, the former Jeanne Gooden, a bride of August was the honor matron. She wore a bon bon pink bengaline frock styled with cap sleeves, fitted bodice with buttons down the front, Peter Pan collar and full skirt with panier effect. Her matching picture hat was of maline and she wore long pink gloves of the maline. She carried a fan shaped bouquet of pink and white gladioluses and asters.

Edwards Dietz stood with the groom as best man and seating the guests were Lyman Sundin, Donald Zosel, Carl Ostrin and Robert Dunn of Dallas.

For her daughter's nuptials Mrs. Riney chose a forest green silk crepe gown with apron drape effect in front, a black hat and accessories. Mrs. Stevenson attended her son's wedding in a claret crepe gown fashioned with drape in back and black accessories. Their corsages were of gardenias. The newlyweds greeted their guests at a reception in the fireplace room. Mrs. Robert W. Gormsen presided at the coffee urn and Mrs. Robert Burns cut the bride's cake. Serving were Miss Betty Vorseth, Miss Barbara Brundidge and Miss Vera Shinn. Miss Louise Hill of Yakima was in charge of the gifts and Mrs. Donald Beecroft passed the guest book.

For traveling the bride donned a black and white salt and pepper check suit made with a long jacket, black hat and accessories and an orchid corsage. Mr. Stevenson and his bride will return to Salem to live and have an apartment on North 13th street.

Women of Rotary will hold its first meeting of the fall Monday afternoon with a one o'clock luncheon at the Gold Arrow, 1590 Fairgrounds road. Mrs. Arthur D. Hay, president, will preside and committee appointments will be announced. Mrs. Farley Mogan, who recently returned from Frankfurt, Germany, where she has been living the past year and a half, will be the guest speaker. She will talk on "A Woman's View of Europe Now."
