

Nuptials to Be Read Today

Miss Loretta McNamee and William E. Smith will exchange their marriage vows at an afternoon ceremony today at the St. Paul Catholic church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. McNamee and the benedict is the son of R. D. Smith, all of St. Paul. Father James Maxwell will officiate at the 2:30 o'clock nuptials. Joseph and Robert McNamee will sing and Mrs. F. R. Coleman will be the organist.

Of white satin is the bridal gown, fashioned with a full skirt terminating in a train, a lace-bertha, low round neckline, long sleeves and buttons down the back. Her fingertip length veil will cascade from a crown of seed pearls and she will carry a white mother of pearl prayer book marked with an orchid. Her father gave her away.

Miss Margaret McNamee will precede her sister to the altar as her only attendant. She will wear a yellow tulle frock and matching shoulder length veil. She will carry a pastel colonial nosegay.

Frank McNamee, brother of the bride, will be best man and ushers will be Bernard McNamee and Eldon Smith, brothers of the couple.

A reception will be held in the Community hall. Mrs. Bernard McNamee will cut the cake and pouring will be Miss N. A. McNamee. Elizabeth Flynn, serving will be Miss Patricia O'Connor and Miss Agnes McKay. Mrs. Dan McNamee will be at the punch bowl.

After a wedding trip the couple will be at home in Salem at 3111 Sunnyview avenue. For going away the bride will wear a pink wool suit with black hat and accessories.

Miss Lively Betrothed

From Portland comes the news of the engagement of Miss Betty Lively, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy G. Lively, of Salem, to Bruce Douglas Fraser, son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Fraser of Portland.

The engagement was announced at a late summer tea for a group of sorority sisters at the Portland Heights home of the Bernard K. Franks. Miss Janet Frank and her mother, Mrs. Bernard K. Frank were hostesses for the tea.

Both Miss Lively and her fiancé attend Oregon State college, where she is a member of Sigma Kappa sorority and he is a member of Delta Upsilon fraternity. Wedding plans are being made for next June.

Visitors in Capital

Dr. and Mrs. B. F. Williams have had as their house guest the past three weeks Mrs. Frank H. Gore of San Antonio, Texas. She left Saturday morning for the south by way of Chicago and New Orleans.

Mrs. Gore is a world traveler, having been to nearly every country and province including the orient, South and North America, Europe, Asia and many of the islands. Before arriving in Salem she had been to Jasper national park, Banff and Victoria, B. C. for six weeks. Mrs. Gore has an interesting collection of over 200 dolls, representing the different countries and provinces she has visited. Each doll is dressed in native costume, many of which had to be made to order.

Also a visitor at the Williams home the past week was W. O. Jones of Menlo Park, Calif., who recently received his doctor's degree in philosophy at Leland Stanford university. He came north on a fishing trip.

Prof. and Mrs. Maurice Brennen and son, Bruce, have returned from a ten day motor trip to Glacier National park.

Miss Bentley Is Installed

STAYTON—Gowned in white and surrounded by her officers, Jeannine Bentley was installed and crowned worthy advisor of Acacia assembly of Rainbow for Girls Wednesday.

The regular meeting was held first and Miss Bernice Raph entertained with an electric guitar number and at the conclusion, Miss Kay Cunningham sang, accompanied by Mrs. Kathryn Weddle.

Miss Rose Sheffer acted as installing worthy advisor in the absence of Miss Naomi Morgan, who enrolled at OSC this week. The parents of the newly installed worthy advisor, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bentley, were escorted to the east and Mrs. Bentley was presented a corsage.

Mrs. Wayne Henry, mother advisor of Chadwick assembly of Salem, was present and presented the assembly with its charter which is No. 40.

A gift mother advisor's jewel from Mrs. Maude Spaece, former resident of Stayton, was also presented by Mrs. Henry. The jewel is to be passed on from year to year. Mrs. Suel Tuel, mother advisor, accepted the charter and the jewel.

Refreshments were served following the installation. Friends were present for the open meeting from Mill City, Scio, Mehama and Lyons, as well as from Salem.

SILVERTON HILLS—Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Maulding have received word from their daughter, Mrs. L. W. Coughanour (Marjorie Maulding), that she and her husband are moving from Boston to Bethany, W. Va., where Mr. Coughanour has accepted an appointment as assistant professor of chemistry at Bethany college. He recently completed his work at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology for the degree of doctor of science.

Mrs. Melace H. Ellis will open her home on the Garden road to members of the Zonta club Thursday night for a dessert supper at 7:30 o'clock. Assisting hostesses will be Mrs. C. W. Stacey and Mrs. E. E. Wooten.
