

Miss Miller Bride of Week

The First Congregational church was the setting for the marriage of Miss Rogene Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Loren Miller, to Donald G. Regehr, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Regehr of Dallas, Thursday night at 8 o'clock. The Rev. Seth Huntington officiated. Aubrey Tussing was the soloist and Jean Hobson Rich the organist. Lighting the tapers were Miss Mina Lee Spranger and Miss Delores Miller, who wore mist pink frocks.

Of white satin was the bridal gown, fashioned with a hooped skirt entrain, long sleeves edged in narrow lace and a high, round neckline enhanced with lace and a yoke of net. The skirt was caught up in front with a satin bow to reveal rows of lace. From a heart-shaped crown of lace and orange blossoms fell her fingertip length tulle veil. She carried a colonial bouquet of gardenias and stephanotis. Mr. Miller gave his daughter in marriage.

Miss Arlene Boyington was the honor maid and wore an aqua taffeta frock with net skirt and bridesmaid was Miss Betty Buhler, whose dress was of yellow. The girls carried circle loops edged in pleated net bows and adorned on one side with pink carnations. They wore a bandeau of the flowers in their hair.

Marvin Heibert of Dallas was best man and ushers were Delbert and Lester Miller, brothers of the bride. James Regehr, brother of the groom, and Norman Perry of Dallas.

Mrs. Miller wore a forest-green suit with black accessories for her daughter's wedding and Mrs. Regehr wore a grey suit with black accessories. Their corsages were pink roses.

A reception followed in the fireplace room. Mrs. John Abel and Mrs. Nick Wiebe of Dallas presided at the coffee urn and punch bowl. Mrs. Robert Covert cut the bride's cake and serving were the Misses Fern Fry, Barbara Barklow, and Mary Tiger. Mrs. Ralph Rawlins and Mrs. John Hoffert were in charge of the gifts and Mrs. Warren Miller passed the guest book.

For going away the bride selected a brown Glenn plaid suit with brown suede accessories, red hat and blouse and grey top coat, to which was pinned a gardenia corsage. The bride will remain here while her husband is stationed in Bremerton with the navy as a seaman first class.
