

Sisters Marry at Double Rites

MT. ANGEL — Two bridal couples were united in marriage at a double wedding ceremony during a single nuptial high mass in St. Mary's church Saturday, September 27 at 10 o'clock, when Miss Bettie Dumen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Dumen, Mt. Angel, became the bride of Eugene Kuther of Ferdinand, Idaho, son of Mrs. Antoinette Kuther of The Dalles, and her sister, Miss Frances Dumen, became the bride of Willard Faulhaber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Faulhaber of Mt. Angel. The Rev. Damian Jentges, O.S.B., officiated at the double ring ceremony during the wedding mass sung by the Mt. Angel choir. Miss Helen Keber was the organist and Miss Pauline Saalfeld the soloist.

Given in marriage by their father, Vincent Dumen, both brides were in identical white satin gowns with sweetheart neckline, fitted bodice, sleeves that came to a point at the wrist, and circular skirt. Lace trimmed finger-tip veils of illusion fell from a ruffe trimmed with seed pearls. They carried white prayer books and pearl rosaries, with a single pink rose on the prayerbook.

Miss Catherine Dumen was maid of honor for her sister, Frances, and Miss Kathryn Kuther, sister of the groom, was maid of honor for Miss Bettie Dumen. Both were dressed in identical pink dotted swiss frocks with matching picture hats and both carried nosegays of pink and white sweet peas. The bridesmaid, Miss Mary Jean Faulhaber, sister of Willard Faulhaber, wore a dress of white marquisette and a picture hat of white net. She carried a nosegay of pink and white sweet peas.

Best man for Mr. Kuther was Gregg Dumen, brother of the brides, and Walter Faulhaber was best man for his brother. Ushers were Cletus Kuther of Ferdinand, Idaho, and Ted Eitel, Sublimity, cousin of the brides. John and Vincent Dumen, brothers of the brides, served the Mass.

Covers for the wedding breakfast served at the Mt. Angel Hotel, their families, and the pastor, Rev. Damian Jentges, O.S.B. Serving were the Misses Betty Hassler and Lola Travis.

At the reception held in the Memorial Hall in the afternoon, Miss Mary Lou Faulhaber, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Agnes Dumen, sister of the bride, passed the guest book. Cutting the cake were Mary and Agnes Dumen, and Mrs. Ed Miotke and Mrs. William Spier, both of Portland, poured. Serving were the Misses Louise Lulay, Maxine Schwab, Betty Hassler, and Lola Travis, all of Mt. Angel.

At the gift table were Miss Mary Dumen, Portland, sister of the brides, and Mrs. Wilfrid Faulhaber, Mt. Angel, sister-in-law of Willard Faulhaber.

Mrs. Wallace Carson has invited members of her bridge club to her Leslie street home Wednesday afternoon for a one o'clock luncheon.

Miss Joan Lochead To Wed

Wedding bells will ring on Saturday, November 29 at St. Paul's Episcopal church for Miss Joan Lochead and Hubert Lee Williamson of Long Beach, Calif. The couple's engagement and news of their approaching marriage was revealed at a smartly arranged open house Sunday afternoon for which Miss Lochead and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Lochead, were hosts at their North Summer street residence. A large group of friends and the college contingent called between 3 and 7 o'clock.

Pale green napkins with the couple's names printed in gold revealed the news. The party was arranged in honor of Mr. Williamson's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Jack W. Buhler of Corvallis, formerly of Long Beach.

Assisting about the rooms and in the dining room were Mrs. A. O. Pitman and Miss Nancy Pitman of Hillsboro, Mrs. Patrick Thyme of Burbank, Calif., Miss Dorothy Orr of Eugene, Mrs. F. W. Shepard, Miss Betty Jean Manoles, Mrs. Harvey Quistad, Mrs. Courtney Jones, Miss Joan Randall, Miss Donna and Miss Gail Lochead. The centerpiece was a heart of red roses and violets flanked by white tapers in silver candelabras.

Miss Lochead is a graduate of Salem high school and attended the University of Oregon and Willamette university. Her fiancé, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Williamson of Long Beach, graduated in June from the University of Oregon where the couple first met.

His fraternity is Sigma Phi Epsilon. During the war he served in the navy for three years. He is now in business with his father in Long Beach, where the couple will live.

MT. ANGEL — St. Mary's church was lighted by cathedral candles, and decorated with white asters and greenery, for the wedding September 23, of Miss Dolores Boehmer, to Edward Zollner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Zollner of Silverton. The Rev. Vincent Koppert, O. S. B., officiated at the nuptial high mass, and read the marriage vows, at 8:15 o'clock. Miss Helen Keber played the wedding music, St. Mary's choir sang the mass, and Miss Eustelle Bauman sang.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Boehmer, sr., and was given in marriage by her father. Her gown of white satin was fashioned on princess lines, with French lace panels from shoulder to hemline in front and back, yoke and top of long satin sleeves of lace for drop-shoulder effect, sweetheart neckline, self-covered buttons down the back, and long train edged in the same lace. Her double fingertip veil of tulle finished with lace, was held with a cornet of seed pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of all white rosebuds, and carnations and bouvardia, and wore a double strand of pearls, gift from her oldest brother, Hugo.

Mrs. Gordon Winchcomb of Salem, sister to the bridegroom, was matron of honor, and wore a yellow taffeta dress, and carried a nosegay of yellow and white carnations. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Aloy J. Seifer, sister of the bride of Silverton, wearing pink chiffon, and Miss Betty Hassler in teal blue. They wore picture hats to match their dresses, and carried nosegays of pink, blue and white carnations.

Best man for Mr. Zollner was Harold Boehmer, brother of the bride, and ushers were Jack McCullough and Richard Scharbach both of Silverton. Seating the guests were Tony Kahut of Woodburn and Gordon Winchcomb.

A breakfast was served at the newly-built home of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Boehmer. Mrs. Carl Hogan of Silverton, assisted her daughter.
