

Ohlings Are Hosts For At Home

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Doughton Ohling celebrated their silver wedding anniversary at a beautifully appointed at home Tuesday night at their South High street residence. Several hundred friends called between 7 and 11 o'clock to congratulate the couple. The couple received in the living room and for the occasion Mrs. Ohling chose a becoming stone blue crepe model with peplum lined in fuchsia.

The serving table in the dining room was covered with an ice blue satin cloth centered with a silver epergne filled with white asters, chrysanthemums, carnations and bouvardia. Garlands of smilax edged the cloth and the corners were caught with small colonial bouquets of white bouvardia tied with silver ribbon. White tapered in crystal candelabras flanked the centerpiece. At one end of the table was the tiered wedding cake. Bouquets of asters, chrysanthemums and zinnias were arranged about the rooms and on the piano was a striking arrangement of orchid chrysanthemums in a porcelain pitcher. Punch was served in the recreation room.

Assisting the hosts during the evening were their two daughters, Miss Sara Ann and Miss Alice Louise Ohling, Dr. and Mrs. Chester A. Downs, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Bonesteel, Dr. and Mrs. William L. Phillips, Dr. and Mrs. W. Wells Baum, Mr. and Mrs. G. Frederick Chambers, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Barr, Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Ohling of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Doughton, Mr. and Mrs. C. Ronald Hudkins, Mrs. Leona Johnson, Mrs. Margaret Rosecrans, Mrs. Paul Morse, Miss Dorothea Steusloff, Miss Bettie Olson, Miss Phyllis Freres and Miss Suzanne and Miss Joan Burns.

Dr. and Mrs. William L. Lidbeck will be hosts for an informal at home Saturday night at their country place in compliment to the doctors of the Oregon State hospital and their wives.

Mrs. Leon Lassers presided at a desert luncheon Tuesday afternoon at her North 17th street home in compliment to members of the Theatre Arts group of which she is president this year.

Baldocks Return

Being welcomed from an extended trip in the east and south are Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Baldock, who arrived in the capital by plane Monday night. The couple's marriage took place in Wichita Falls, Texas, on September 6.

From Texas the travelers went on to Tennessee to visit in the Great Smoky mountains. They traveled north to New York where Mr. Baldock attended a meeting of the national association of state highway officials, of which he was elected president. In New York City the Baldocks had a reunion with a group of her former Puerto Rico friends, who were visiting in the east at the time.

En route west the couple stopped in St. Louis, Mo., to see her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Roswell Beach and Sharon. After several days in San Francisco the Baldocks flew home. They are now at home at hte Royal Court apartments.

Hello Again

Cake Should Have Sugar

The Morocco chocolate cake, appearing Tuesday in these columns, was strangely lacking in sweetness. So here we repeat it, with, we hope, the complete and proper ingredients.

We always blame those mistakes on that mysterious character "the proof reader" just as the good cook blames her cake failure on the oven thermometer or the new cake flour she was trying out.

- MOROCCO CHOCOLATE CAKE
- 2 1/2 cups sifted cake flour
  - 2 teaspoons double acting baking powder
  - 1/4 teaspoon soda
  - 1/4 teaspoon salt
  - 1/2 cup shortening
  - 1 1/2 cups sugar
  - 3 eggs, well beaten
  - 4 squares unsweetened chocolate, melted
  - 1 1/4 cups water
  - 1 teaspoon vanilla

Sift flour, baking powder, soda and salt three times. Cream butter, sugar, add eggs and beat thoroughly then add chocolate. Add flour alternately with water, beating until smooth, add vanilla. Bake in two greased tins (9 inch) in moderate oven (350 F.) 20 minutes, or until done.

Mrs. Donald H. Jacobs entertained a group of friends at a party at her home on Monroe avenue Monday night. Guests were Mesdames William Hall, Eugene Walters, John A. Olson, Glenn Laverty, Shirley Smith, William Addie, Alden Addie, Nora Paynter, Cora Paynter, Fred Paynter, Opal Baker, Orval Prunk and Valerie Juel.
