'Life Begins At 40,' Says Mrs. Dunlavy

(Story and picture on page 1) BROOKS, Ore., Oct. 9 — (AP) Mrs. Betty M. Dunlavy, 40, who is now suing for her 15th divorce, expressed hope today that the "right man" might still come along.

Flipping pancakes in the restaurant she owns here, the attractive brunette said 15 unlucky trials have not turned her against marriage.

"I have no prospects for No. 16 and I'm not looking," she told reporters. "But," she added cheerfully, "they do say life begins at 40."

Mrs. Dunlavy, whose divorce suit against 32-year-old John S. Dunlavy on a charge of cruel and inhuman treatment is now pending in circuit court, also professed these convictions:

"Variety is not the spice of life. One husband — if a girl could just find the right one — might be better.

"Men are not alike. They're all different," said Mrs. Dunlavy emphatically.
