

4 Salem Men Nominated for Commissions

Four Salem men and seven others from nearby towns were nominated by President Truman for recess appointments as commissioned officers in the regular army and the regular air force, according to the Associated Press Friday.

The local men are Capt. William S. Bodner, 1030 Norway st.; 1st Lt. Orrin R. Tatchio, 210 Liberty rd.; 1st Lt. Blaine O. Vogt, and Capt. Winstlow R. Willis, 1640 Roosevelt st.

All appointments must be confirmed by the senate when it reconvenes. The men were among approximately 5,900 chosen from 40,000 officers and former off-cers of the national guard, officers of the reserve corps and army of the U. S. who applied for commissions under the second regular army integration program. Except for a group of medical officers and a small group whose applications were not completely processed, this will be the last increment of officers taken into the regular army under the provisions of public law 281, which expires December 31, 1947. This list brings to almost 28,000 the number of officers nominated under the two integration programs. Including officers already in, there will be approximately 40,000 regulars after this group is confirmed by the senate.

More Signals Heard From Minesweepers

PEARL HARBOR, Oct. 10—(AP)—Search planes today heard a weak radio signal—the sixth—from three castaway seamen off Palmyra, and Hawaiian sea frontier officers expressed optimism that the men, missing 17 days, would be found soon. The three are aboard four 14-shed-together minesweepers which drifted away from the vicinity of Palmyra September 24 after their tug put into that atoll for food and fuel.

U.S. to Return Gold to Italy

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10—(AP)—A store of gold worth $28,000,000, captured by the U. S. Fifth army corps from Germans who had stolen it from the Bank of Italy, was made available tonight to the Italian government. The gold cache was found in May of 1945 at Fortezza, Italy, where the retreating Germans had hidden it. Great Britain and the United States agreed tonight to turn it over to the non-communist Italian government, providing it with additional assets needed to continue purchases of wheat and fuel during the winter.

Oregon Couple Accused of Defraud Suit

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 10—(AP)—An Oregon couple formerly employed by a wealthy Nevada widow were accused today, in a suit filed in federal court, of defrauding the widow of $35,000 through a promise of marriage.

The First National bank of Reno, Nev., filed the complaint as executor of the estate of James Monroe Butler and Florence Rose Butler, his widow, who the bank said committed suicide after the purported fraud.

The complaint asserted that Ted Howerton, a cowhand on the Butler ranch in Cwy county, Nev., and Howerton's wife, Mary, a cook on the ranch, "agreed between themselves to have said Ted Howerton endeavor to gain the affections of Florence Rose Butler, to have him make love to her and secure control over her actions and conduct."

The complaint alleged that Howerton promised to divorce his wife and wed Mrs. Butler, and that Mrs. Butler paid $35,000 to Mrs. Howerton in exchange for the latter's promise not to sue for alienation of affections.

Mrs. Butler, the complaint continued, committed suicide last month after the marriage failed to materialize. The bank seeks recovery of the $35,000 and interest from the Howertons.

Portland Crash Fatal to Three

PORTLAND, Oct. 10—(AP)—The death of a third man hurt in a tragic head-on collision last night boosted Portland's traffic fatality total for 1947 to 40 persons today.

Paul Bjornson, 28, Vernonia, died in a hospital this afternoon from effects of the accident which killed Ralph H. Greenfield, 19, and Percy Bjornson, 36, late last night. Three other members of the Bjornson family—Paul Bjornson's wife, Pauline, his baby daughter, and John Bjornson, 34—were seriously hurt.

The Bjornson car collided with one which Greenfield and Charles E. Majewski, 20, both sailors from Tongue Point, were riding. Majewski was reported in critical condition today.

Detroit Men Get Token of Appreciation

Nine cases of Oregon's finest fancy-packed fruit and preserves recently were delivered to eastern friends of the Willamette valley by Guy N. Hickok, manager of the First National bank in Salem.

As another token of Detroit-Salem friendship, Hickok presented a certificate of honorary membership in the Salem Chamber of Commerce to J. R. Miller, president of the National Automotive Fibers company of which Oregon Flax Textile in West Salem is a subsidiary. The certificate conveys the local chamber's appreciation of Miller's cooperation with Salem industry.

The fruit was a gift from the Salem chamber of commerce to Miller, H. Crawford and secretary-treasurer, respectively, of National Automotive Fibers, and E. A. Welker, president of the Welker Machine company of Detroit.

These men have been annual visitors to Salem on their inspection tours to flax fields and plants in the valley. Business prospects for Oregon flax were not discussed during his visit and entertainment by the Detroit officials, Hickok said.

Mr. and Mrs. Hickok drove back from Detroit in a car just off the assembly line. They stopped in Chicago and Iowa to visit friends and relatives.
