

WOMEN'S SECTION

Welcomed as newcomers of the Willamette university faculty set are the Jerome Lillies. Mrs. Lillie is pictured here with their three children, Jay, who is seven, Nancy, five, and Dinah, three. Mr. Lillie is head football coach at Willamette. Last year the Lillies lived in Honolulu, where he coached at Punahou high school, prior to that they made their home in Portland. The Lillie family resides at 1665 Madison street. (Kennell-Ellis).

Social Calendar Filled With Many Events...

A variety of events take the social spotlight during the ensuing week with dances, teas, luncheons and receptions slated.

Highlighting next weekend's social calendar will be the Town club's first formal dinner dance of the season in the Mirror and Marine rooms of the Marion hotel Saturday night at 9 o'clock. A buffet dinner will be served with dancing following to the music of Walter Weber and his orchestra from Oregon State college. Kenneth Potts is president of the club, Mrs. Emery Hobbs, secretary; and W. T. Waterman, treasurer.

One of the larger parties being planned to precede the dance will be given by Mr. and Mrs. Peery T. Buren and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hamilton. Guests have been invited to call between 7:30 and 9 o'clock at 1125 North Summer street. Assisting the hosts informally will be Mr. and Mrs. Charles Barclay.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Devers of Portland, former Salem residents, will be among the out-of-town guests at the dance and will be weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Hughes.

Mrs. White to Fete Club

Mrs. George A. White has invited members of the Town and Country club to Portland on Thursday afternoon for luncheon and bridge at the Army-Navy club. Attending will be Mrs. George Emigh, Mrs. Homer Goulet, sr., Mrs. William McGilchrist, jr., Mrs. Linn C. Smith, Mrs. Homer Smith, sr., Mrs. Frederick Lampert, Mrs. Earl Snell, Mrs. T. A. Livesley, Mrs. Prince W. Byrd, Mrs. Karl Steiwer of Jefferson, Mrs. Clarence Keene of Silverton, and Mrs. H. T. Clark of Portland.

Reception for Moores...

Dr. Brooks Moore, new minister of the First Methodist church, and Mrs. Moore will be honored at a reception Wednesday night, October 22 in the Carrier room of the church between 8 and 10 o'clock. The Moores came here during the summer from Idaho Falls, Idaho, where he served as pastor of Trinity Methodist church.

In the receiving line will be Dr. and Mrs. Moore, Dr. and Mrs. Roy A. Fedje, Walter Winslow, Dr. and Mrs. Waldo Zeller, Mrs. J. Edgar Purdy and Miss Esther Ebersole. Mrs. Herbert Rahe will introduce to the line.

Mrs. Harold Jory and Mrs. Daniel Schulze will pour the first hour and Mrs. Steve Anderson and Miss Elva Boone the second hour. Serving will be Mrs. Vinton Green, Mrs. Lucille Wardell, Mrs. Robert C. Irwin, Misses Mildred Yetter, Patricia Long, Mary Margaret Will, Marilyn Hall and Peggy Barrick.

Assisting about the room will be Mrs. O. E. Welling, Mrs. Vernon Wiscarson, Mrs. A. J. Crose and Miss Beryl Holt. Arranging the reception are Mrs. Clark M. Will, Mrs. Stearns Cushing, jr., and Mrs. Herbert Rahe. Mrs. John TeSelle is in charge of the program.

Recently moved here from Albany are Mrs. Clifford Robinson and children, Ray and Ann. Mr. Robinson, former Albany high school principal, is now director of secondary education for the state department of education. The Robinsons have purchased the former Daniel Hay home at 561 Rose street. (Kennell-Ellis).

Benefits Slated...

By Jeryme English
Statesman Society Editor

Various organizations choose the fall months to give benefit parties to enable them to carry on their philanthropic work during the year.

One of the larger affairs to be given this season will be the annual benefit tea by the Salem General hospital auxiliary, headed by Mrs. John Carson. The affair will be on Thursday, November 6 at the North Capitol street residence of Supreme Court Justice and Mrs. George Rossman. The interested public is invited to attend with calling hours between 3 and 6 o'clock. Proceeds will be used to purchase equipment for the hospital.

Co-chairmen of the tea are Mrs. Chandler Brown and Mrs. Taylor Hawkins. Mrs. Emery Hobbs is chairman of the ticket committee and has asked her workers to come to her Jefferson street home Tuesday afternoon to address letters which will be sent to each member. Her committee includes Mrs. Wallace Hug, Mrs. Robert Needham, Mrs. John McCullough, Mrs. John Hughes and Mrs. John Hay. Tea will be served late in the afternoon by Mrs. Hobbs.

Fall Fashion Bridge

The annual fall fashion bridge benefit sponsored by the Salem Junior Woman's club will be an event of Monday, October 27 at the clubhouse at 8 o'clock. Proceeds from the benefit will go to the YWCA building fund. Miller's will present the fashion show. Guests are asked to bring their own table accessories and tickets may be obtained from club members. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Wallace Wilson, 5192.

Mrs. Sam Campbell heads the directorate for the benefit and assisting are Mesdames Carl Halvorson, John Hann, Fred Gast, Wallace Wilson, Cedric Reaney, Ralph Atwood and Charles Fearing.

Pioneer Post Benefit

A number of reservations have already been made for the bridge benefit for which members of Pioneer Post, 149, American Legion will give on Friday night at the Legion hall at 8 o'clock. This is the first large affair to be given by the all women's post since its organization. Proceeds will be used for the post charity and community service fund. Sylvia Kraps is general chairman of the benefit. Guests are asked to bring their own table accessories.

Among those making reservations are Messrs. and Mesdames B. E. Owens, Allan Carson, William Dyer, Claybourne Dyer, Loren Mort, I. N. Bacon, Merle Travis, William L. Phillips, E. J. Scellars, Rex Kimmell, Homer Smith, Vern Miller, Paul Hendricks, F. W. Poorman, Charles Sprague, J. E. LeClere, Leo Johnson, Carl Fritts, Donald Ballantyne, William Joyner, E. A. Guenther.

Mesdames Earl Cooley, William Burghardt, Walter Barsch, Tom Wolgamott, Merle Smith, Margaret Scott, Abner Kline, J. H. Meusey, Misses Josephine Baumgartner, Susan Faherty, Alberta Shoemaker, Bernice Lee, Sylvia Shreve, Lorraine Meusey.

Anyone wishing reservations may call any post member or the commander, Miss Mildred Christenson.

Mu Phi Epsilon Tea...

Invitations are in the mail this week for the silver tea being given by the Phi Lambda chapter of Mu Phi Epsilon, guests have been asked to call between the hours of 3 and 5 o'clock on the afternoon of October 26 at the Bruce Spaulding home on Fairmount Hill.

General chairman of the tea is Katherine Schissler, president. Other committee heads include Aldene Gould, refreshments; Geraldine Schmoeker, music; Mrs. Denise Murray, invitations; and Paume Bristlin, clean-up.

Mu Phi Epsilon, a national music honorary for college women, has an active chapter on the Willamette university campus. Proceeds from the tea will be used to carry on the work of the organization.

New residents of Salem are the Lee Bishops, formerly of Medford and Portland. Mrs. Bishop is pictured here with their youngest daughter, Marcia Lee, who is six. They have an older girl, Beverly, who is a sophomore at Oregon State college. Mr. Bishop is the new business manager at radio station KSLM. The family residence is at 1179 Elm street. (Kennell-Ellis).

Charming newcomer in the capital is Mrs. Arthur Burton, wife of Dr. Burton, who is head of the psychology department at Willamette university. The Burtons came from Sacramento, Calif., but last year were at Fossil, Idaho, where he was on the faculty of the University of Idaho. The Burtons are residing at 1530 Trade street. (Kennell-Ellis).

Mrs. Al Schuss and daughter, Valerie, who are welcomed additions to the young married set in the capital. The family moved here in the summer from Portland. Mr. Schuss is general manager of radio station KOCO. They are residing at 995 North Winter street. (Kennell-Ellis).

Home again for the Roger Ky Putnams, who have settled back in Salem after several years absence during the war years. The past year they have been in Portland. With Mrs. Putnam here are their two children, Roger Ky and eleven months old Marcia Lynn. Mr. Putnam is now with Parke, Davis and Co. The Putnams have purchased a home in Manbrin Gardens. (Kennell-Ellis).

Shrine Dinner Dance...

First formal social affair of the season for members of the Salem Shrine club of Al Kader Temple will be the dinner dance in the Mirror room of the Marion hotel Friday night. The social hour will begin at 6:30 o'clock with dinner, program and dancing following. Potentate Carl Donough of Portland and Mrs. Donough and other officers and their wives of Al Kader Temple are expected to be here for the occasion.

T. M. Medford, president of the Salem club, will preside. The program includes numbers by radio artists, Downing and Robinette, tap dancing by the Parker twins from Portland and solo numbers by Michael Carolan, tenor, and Bob Gwynn, baritone, Willamette university students. Guy Albin's orchestra will play for dancing.

Hosts for the dinner dance are Messrs. and Mesdames Roy Houck, William J. Braun, William H. Adams, Stanley B. Perrine, Malvin Rudd, Vernon Wiscarson, Gilbert O. Madison, James Olson, Willie E. Brown, Peter C. Davis and Captain and Mrs. Walter Lansing.