Home Rites Today

At a quiet home ceremony this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock Miss Gerry Wolf, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred D. Wolf, will become the bride of Robert Wayne Johnson, son of Mrs. Melvin Northey of Medford and grandson of Mrs. W. F. Johnson of Salem. Dr. Daniel Schulze will perform the nuptials.

The couple will exchange their vows before large windows in the living room of the Wolf home on Fisher road. The improvised altar will be banked with burgundy and white chrysanthemums.

Mr. Wolf will give his daughter in marriage. Of white marquisette is the bridal gown fashioned with bishop sleeves, a full skirt and fitted bodice. The gown is enhanced with lace which edges the sweetheart neckline and the hemline of the skirt. Scallops of lace extend down the front of the dress. She will wear a Juliet cap of white lace and pearls and carry white roses. The couple will be unattended.

A reception will follow the rites. Miss Leila Johnson and Mrs. Theodore Chamberlain of Portland will preside at the bride's table. The couple will leave later in the afternoon for a wedding trip and for going away the bride will don a pastel blue wool jersey dress with black accessories. Mr. Johnson is with the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. in southern Oregon, where the couple will live.
