

Miss Joan Post a Bride

Miss Joan Post became Dean Meador's bride at a pretty autumn wedding Saturday night at St. Paul's Episcopal church. At 8 o'clock the Rev. George H. Swift performed the nuptials before a setting of white yellow and bronze chrysanthemums. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Post and was given in marriage by her father. The benedict is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl S. Meador of Patoka, Ill. Miss Ruth Bedford was the organist.

For her wedding the bride chose a pearl grey dressmaker suit, the jacket fashioned with a round collar and silver buttons. Her grey felt hat was adorned with matching satin bow and her shoes were grey. Her other accessories were black. She carried a small round puff bouquet of white orchids and variegated leaves.

Mrs. Clark Carlton (Jean Post) of Corvallis was her twin sister's only attendant. She wore a kelly green dressmaker suit with black hat and accessories and carried a small round bouquet of gardenias and variegated ivy.

Mr. Carlton stood with the groom as best man. Seating the guests were Robert Mitchell of Medford and Fred Briggs of Corvallis.

For her daughter's nuptials Mrs. Post wore a black dress with draped skirt, black hat with satin ribbon trim and black accessories. Her corsage was of green cymbidium orchids.

The newlyweds greeted their friends at a reception in the parish house. Mrs. R. B. Thatcher of Seattle and Mrs. Howard Post presided at the coffee urns and Miss Georgia Roberts was at the punch bowl. Mrs. Harry Lucas cut the bride's cake. Serving were the Misses Gwenda Boyer, Wilma Noyes, Robert Meyer and Charlotte Post. Mrs. L. V. Leffler and Miss Donna Lochead were at the gift table.

After a honeymoon trip north the couple will be at home in Corvallis while he is attending Oregon State college.

but... When we wore long, narrow skirts last time, we had trouble with our stride, we don't have that trouble now. Can it be that we've taken to walking like a lady?

Kandy Kid... It's like old times to see the windowful of candy at Schaeffer's except you get the 10c varieties for about half a dollar. Emil himself tells us he just got a shipment of two and a half tons to keep him through Christmas.

Well chilled... Just as we dashed over to turn off the torch singer howling over our radio, we were attracted by an interesting line, listening with unbelieving ears we heard it again, "No breeze to cool the flame of love." Well, if that's the function of breezes, there must have been a lot of lovers not on speaking terms around here this past week.

Apropos... When a quartet of college boys sang for the delegates to the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs district meeting at Newberg Tuesday they included a medley of lovesongs. The spokesman explained we should each consider the songs sung to us individually. He forgot, I think, that among them was one all-too-appropriate-to-many-of-us-clubwomen line "Oh you beautiful doll, you great big beautiful doll."
