

Old Timers Tell Tales At Amity

AMITY — The 30th annual meeting of the "Amity 30 Year club" was held Oct. 24 in the auditorium of the union high school building. Chester Mulkey, president, presided. Mrs. Mildred Wyatt of Salem led the group in singing. Mrs. Edith E. Jones of Salem gave the invocation. Mrs. Edna Strout had charge of the program which featured tall stories of old timers of Amity. James D. Woodman of Hillsboro, former Amity barber, Mrs. Cora Lamson Brassfield, Tacoma, Wash., a teacher in the Amity schools in the early '80s; W. L. Graham, Delake, Ore.; E. B. Jamison, Los Angeles, also a former principal of Amity schools in the '90s; Cora Waddell and Belle Wood of Amity, all entered the contest. Mrs. Brassfield and Mr. Woodman tied for honors, and each received a myrtlewood gift.

Mrs. Matilda Jones (Aunt Tillie), now living at Monmouth, and Mrs. Barbara Stultz of Amity were the oldest members present, having passed their 83rd birthdays. E. B. Jamison of Los Angeles received the prize for having traveled the longest distance to attend the meeting.

Officers elected to serve in 1948 are: A. B. Glandon, president; S. E. Howard, vice president; Bessie Sorenson, secretary-treasurer, all of Amity.

Silverton Legion Plans Armistice Day Activities

SILVERTON — Delbert Reeves post, American Legion, will support work of the local national guard and community chest campaign, members voted.

Following a talk on the Silverton hospital and the new wing, Dr. A. Gredian explained needs of the organization and the post voted to sponsor a hospital benefit dance in the near future.

Lt. Richard Elund, national guard, told of the organization and asked the support of the post. Wesley Grogan, first vice commander, has resigned because of business reasons, but his successor was not named.

Supper at Legion hall November 10 at 6:30 for all veterans and their families is planned. The party will be a no-host affair with a program following in place of the usual Armistice day forenoon program.

Silverton Church Units Meetings Scheduled

SILVERTON — Lutheran Sunday school teachers' training course, at Trinity church for the last five weeks, shifted to Canby and will open there Monday at 8 p.m.
