Title-Bound WU's Face Stiff Foe in Improving Stagg Team

The most important football party of the local season, the one which might easily mean the retention of the Northwest conference pennant for Willamette university, unfolds itself tonight on Sweetland field when the Bearcats take on the aspiring and fast-improving Pacific U. Badgers. The kickoff is due at 8 o'clock, and a throng of around 4000, a fourth of it Pacific rooters, likely will sit and stand in on it.

JV's, SHA's Go Scoreless

A very wet field plus evenly-matched strength resulted in the Salem high Jayvees and Sacred Heart Academy playing to a scoreless deadlock last night on Leslie field. The score duplicated last year's effort when the two teams also battled to no decision.

Both clubs' managers thrusts which just felt short. The JV's put on a drive in the second quarter which was stopped on the Academy 10. The SHA's were halted a similar distance from their opponents' goal line in the third period.

Angels Topple Silverton '11'

SILVERTON, Oct. 30 (Special) Capitalizing on breaks when they came, Mt. Angel's Preps tonight scored a 14 to 12 Willamette Valley league football win over Silverton's Silver Foxes. In the first part of the game Larry Traeger of the Preps scooped up a Silverton fumble on the 26 and riddled 74 yards to score. Jim Nosack added the extra point with a line smash. Silverton scored in the second quarter when Ray Myers crashed over center for six yards. Carl Wickham of the Foxes tacked early in the third period on a twisting run around right end, but then the Preps came right back in the thriller to drive to another score by Traeger around right end. Again Nosack made good with the conversion.

The offense-studded game saw Silverton compile 329 yards to Mt. Angel's 222. The Verdell Ragsdale Preps made 14 first downs. The Foxes, coached by Jerry Gagneau and Muri Anderson, had 12.

Lynam Okehs Dorsetti Tiff

As Lynam, not Jackie Nickols falls heir to clashing with Joe Dorsetti in next Tuesday night's mat main event at the armory, Matchmaker Elton Owen announced last night. Coast junior heavy champ Nickols, after watching Dorsetti kick and claw to the win in this week's elimination tournament here abruptly refused to give the unlikely roughman a chance to capture the coveted title belt. Dorsetti battered Lynam in the final match of the tournament.

His proposed title match bloomed, Owen took the next best signing the incensed Lynam for a full 2-of-3 faller with the squat villain. It will topnotch a card of four bouts. Owen will assign the three prelims later.

Huskies Await Powerful Troy

SEATTLE, Oct. 30 (AP) Although the weatherman took the bright look and said the midweek rains might dissolve before game time, Coach Pest Welch juggled the University of Washington line today to get his heaviest mudders ready for action Saturday against the football powerhouse of Southern California.

The Southern California team is

Weekend Expected to Bring Improved Waterfowl Hunting

PORTLAND, Oct. 30 (AP) - The week's stormy weather was expected today to improve waterfowl hunting this weekend.

The state game commission predicted particularly good luck in the Chewaucan marsh area of Lake county, where birds were reported flying low and few hunters present. The Summer lake public shooting ground also reported favorable waterfowl conditions.

Pheasants were fairly plentiful in Malheur county and in parts of the Columbia basin, particularly around Irrigon and Hermiston. Quail hunting was reported fair in most of the open areas.

Duck Coaches To Talk Here

University of Oregon Coaches Jimmy Aiken and John Warren will be the honored guests this morning at the Salem Breakfast club gathering at Marion hotel, 7:30 o'clock. Aiken will be the principal speaker. It will be Warren's first visit to Salem since he was named Duck basketball coach.

The club has designated the breakfast as "University of Oregon Day" and the local chapters of the U of O Dad's club and alumni groups will lend a hand with the proceedings.

The breakfast is open to the male side of the general public.

Hauks Primed For Corvallis

Facing a "must" game, Salem high's Vikings wound up heavy workouts yesterday and today will engage in light tapering-off drills in preparation for Saturday night's Big Six loop grid against the Sweetland field Spartans on Sweetland field.

Casualty in yesterday's session was second-string guard Wilfred Logan who suffered a leg fracture and will be out for the season.

Big worry for the Viks and Coach Harold Hauk is Sammy Baker, Spartan fullback who's gained a state-wide reputation as a ball-lugger. A good many of the local's practice moments this week have been spent on defensive maneuvers aimed to stop Baker.

Hauk plans to stick with the same starting line-up which faced Astoria.

Beavers Make Park Appeal

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 30 (AP) The Portland Beavers of the Pacific Coast baseball league appealed formally today to save their ball park from the wrecking axe. The appeal went to City Commissioner Kenneth L. Cooper, who earlier had ordered the park demolished within 30 days as a fire hazard.

It automatically stays the wrecking order.

The Beaver baseball management asked a hearing before the entire city council. Cooper said he would recommend November 19 for the hearing.

undefeated and untied, playing host to Rainier.

In district 8, unbeaten and untied Jefferson will face a Commerce team that has made a career of providing surprises.

Shades of something or other: When Bill Bevins pitched his three innings in the Elks charity game in Oakland last Sunday, the third baseman on his major league All-Star team was the once quite accused Cookie Lavagetto! Which is sort of rubbing things in a bit, wpt? But then Bill brings home tidings that the Dodger heart wrecker is really a fine gent and that he deserved his game-winning hit in the world series "because he was trying to win just as hard as I was." ... Incidentally, that was mighty fine news about the Bevins arm "feeling fine" after Sunday's try. That series injury might have been serious, very serious. ... Since writing of the intercollegiate football potentialities of Woodburn's Bob Hall the other day, we have been reminded from Molalla that Don Winslow has "two or three kids" who also are choice timber for the post-prep gridirons. Our tipster doesn't mention names, but since he is Mike Deller, former coach and principal at Molalla, we're inclined to believe he is speaking wisdom. ... It's three months after, but Salem Senator faithful still get a laugh when they remember the Senator-Spokane riot at Spokane, forfeited to Salem, and that the same Spokanes were later nosed out of the pennant by a single percentage point. A costly riot, yes? ... Fortunate fellow, Al Williams the tattooed tough guy in Matchmaker Elton

SPORTSLIGHTNER

DR. PAUL STAGG
Owen's grappling group, Williams was booked for an exhibition bout with other rasters to the GI fronts in Europe during the war. At the last minute he was "bumped" from his plane. A few hours later the air wagon crashed, killing all its occupants. ... Speaking of the matadors, we hear one Gorgeous George Wagner aims to return to the Oregon grounds soon, if he's wanted. Promoter Owen doesn't know yet whether he wants the unpredictable character back or not, for Georgie, his valets and his gaudy bathrobes (now numbering 46, "he said") is capable of causing many worries and woes to such as grappling matchmakers. ...

Some coaches carry for luck the left hind leg of a rabbit. Killed at midnight in a graveyard, others, like remembered Babe Hollingberry at Washington State, deck out in a pet piece of tattered clothing to lure the good graces of the grid gods to their side. A member of the latter group is Dr. Paul Stagg who tonight sends his hopes and his Pacific U. Badgers against our Willamettes on Sweetland field. The son of the famed Amos Alonso sports a battered "lucky hat" to soothe his superstitions. And since becoming boss at Pacific this year, Stagg has been presented with numerous "lucky feathers" by enthusiastic alumni rooters, all to fit in the hat band. Dr. Stagg's influence at Pacific has been indeed great. We hear that never before in history have Badger followers and

O'Connor Suspension Brings Fast Reactions

CHICAGO, Oct. 30 (AP) - President Will Harridge of the American league today projected his organization into the controversy raging between A. B. Chandler, commissioner of baseball, the Chicago White Sox and Leslie O'Connor, suspended general manager of the Sox.

Pimlico Turf Event Slated

BALTIMORE, Oct. 30 (AP) - Four of the turf's brightest stars were entered today in the 11th running of the famed Pimlico special of tomorrow afternoon, but for all the talk you hear about a horse named Armed it might just as well be another of those 1942 Whirlaway walkovers. Armed, Calumet's greatest six-year-old, has been beaten before at Pimlico but usually in a "big one."

The other three in the special, where the winner drags down the $25,000 pot and the others get only a mile and three-sixteenths worth of exercise, will be Armed's stablemate, Ferret, William G. Helis' Cosmic Bomb and Walter M. Jeffords' Loyal Legion.

Harridge called a special meeting of league club owners, or their representatives, to be held in the Hotel Cleveland at Cleveland tomorrow to "consider" the action taken against the White Sox and O'Connor. Harridge revealed that Chandler had requested the removal of O'Connor from baseball's executive council presumably because Chandler was of the opinion that since O'Connor remains under suspension he could not serve. The council is composed of Chandler, Warren Giles, general manager of the Cincinnati club, and the presidents of the American and National leagues, Hazzegard and Ford Frick.

"The commissioner's request for O'Connor's removal will be taken up at our Cleveland meeting tomorrow," President Harridge said. "Every American league club will be represented to consider the suspension of the White Sox organization and its general manager."

O'Connor will attend to explain his side of the controversy and to exhibit correspondence that passed between himself and Chandler over the signing of an obscure 17-year-old Chicago high school boy pitcher.

The ban prohibits the White Sox and O'Connor from taking any part in the major league draft to be held in Cincinnati Nov. 10, or from having any representatives at the executive council sessions and joint meetings of the major leagues.

Ryder Cuppers Drill

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 30 (AP) - For the first time the American Ryder cup golf team today tried out Scotch foursome play on the Portland golf club course with pairings subject to shift tomorrow as the best combinations are sought.

They went around in a steady rain that although light was adding to the more than eight inches of precipitation which already has fallen this month. The rainfall is more than five inches above normal for the same period.

The rain led to talk of possible postponement of the matches from Saturday and Sunday, but all officials agreed the delay would not be necessary unless the weather worsened materially.

Today's pairing was: Ben Hogan and Jim Demaret; Sam Snead and Lloyd Mangrum; Ed Oliver and Lew Worsham; Herman Keiser and E. J. (Dutch) Harrison; Herman Barron and Byron Nelson.

The British team toured 18 holes in Scotch foursome play this morning with James Adams and Max Faulkner having the low score -- 69 against the par 72 -- of only three cards turned in. Par was matched by the Art Lees-Henry Cotton and Reg Horne-Eric Green pairs.

Orange Swimmer 'Y' Swimmers Near Finish

Salem's Y M C A swimmers, nearing the end of the international "Down the Mississippi" swim, are in 10th place among about 70 Ys. It was learned here Thursday. The rating was as of last Saturday.

With only today and Saturday left in the contest, two local boys appeared ready to merit the 10-Mile club for swimming a mile on each of 10 days of the contest's 12 days. The youths are Archie Elliott, who made the 20-Mile club last year, and Billie Dunsborough, who made the 10-Milers.

Both are students at Pajrish junior high school.

By last Saturday, the local swimmers had reached the 996-mile mark along the 2,400-mile distance in the annual contest. Both swimming and numbers participating add points.

Links Tourney Victors Feted

The hardware was passed around at Salem Golf club last night as winners in the recent Fall Club championships were presented with awards at a special post-tourney banquet attended by over 60 members. Jimmy Sheldon, who defeated Glen Lengren for the title, was recipient of the imposing Champion's Trophy, and Lengren also was awarded, as were winners in the various flights. The flight titlists included: Winfield Needham, Frank Albrich, Millard Pekar, Pat Miklia, Glen Burright, Lawrence Alley, Bill Franzwa, A. Settlemeier and Barney Filler.

Oregon Ready For Idaho II

EUGENE, Oct. 30 (Special) Gunning for their third win in a row and second conference triumph, Oregon's Webfeet today finished last heavy drills for the clash against Idaho on Hayward field Saturday.

Coach Jim Aiken has been especially working his charges on pass defense as a precaution against the aerial talents of the Vandals' flashy Billy Williams. Williams is the big cog in the invaders' offensive machinery and is expected to toss passes all over the lot.

However, the Webfeet have their own top-flight heaver in Norm Van Brocklin, the coast's leading passer, which will likely make for a red-hot aerial duel during the afternoon.

The Oregon ground attack is also expected to play a prominent part during Saturday's action. The Ducks' running game was especially effective against University of San Francisco last week.

Unbeaten Prep Elevens Put Record on Line

By the Associated Press

All undefeated high school teams in the state will risk their records this weekend as play tightens in the eight football districts of Oregon.

The high-scoring The Dalles team, unbeaten and untied, will face the challenge of LaGrande. The Dalles, playing at home, will be favored to win by two or three touchdowns in the district 1 tussle.

In district 2, Bend and Medford collide at Medford in a game that will go a long way toward resolving the race there. Klamath Falls, the other title contestant, will journey to Boise, Idaho, for a Saturday game.

Marshfield will play host to Coquille and Myrtle Point to Grants Pass in the district 3 chase.

Unbeaten and untied University High will play Eugene in one of three important district 4 contests. In the others, Corvallis will be at Salem and Springfield at Albany.

Milwaukie, downed once, will play a middling Gresham eleven; once beaten Molalla will tackle unbeaten and untied Dallas; and once-tied Woodburn will face a twice-beaten Sandy team in district 5. Newberg will travel to West Linn and Beaver-ton to Tigard. The travelers are expected to win and continue to lead the pack in district 6. In district 7 it will be St. Helens,
