MICO-METER FUND COUNTERED

The approximately 1,100 hand-operated parking meters, which were replaced by automatic meters this week after six-months trial, collected a total of $48,424.77, City Treasurer Paul Hauser reported Thursday. The city retained half the revenue, the other half being turned over to the Mico-meter manufacturer under contract provisions for payment by the city. Additional revenue from the automatic parking meters installed before this week brought the six-months revenue total to $49,778.14, the treasurer said.

3 True Bills Returned by Grand Jury

Three indictments, one of them secret, were returned as true bills Thursday by the Marion county grand jury, and four not-true bills were returned.

Meanwhile, Leonard and Neda Chastain, 550 Water st. waived grand jury indictment on two counts of forgery, pleaded guilty before Circuit Judge George R. Duncan and sentence was set for November 8, following pre-sentence investigation by the state parole board. They were arrested October 16 by Salem city police.

Two True Bills Disclosed
The two true bills whose defendants were disclosed charged Ben Cressy, 330 E. Bush st., who was arrested September 12, with obtaining money under false pretenses and Bruce Thaxton Anderson with escaping from the state penitentiary.

Cressy allegedly issued and cashed a worthless $50 check at Johnson's store in Salem in early September.

Anderson, who was a trusty, escaped July 25 from the prison farm and was recaptured September 12 of this year in New York, where he had served a prison term. His sentence from Gilliam county was three years for larceny.

Devers Refutes Increase in Auto Speed on Beaches

Reports that J. M. Devers, attorney for the state highway commission, had authorized a speed of motor vehicles on the Oregon beaches in excess of 25 miles an hour, were denied by Devers here Thursday.

Devers said the state law provides for a maximum speed of 25 miles an hour on the Oregon beaches which can be reduced by the state highway commission under certain conditions.

The attorney said the highway commission has made no change in the maximum speed fixed by the legislature up this time.
