

Firesides, Ball Are Slated

One of the highlights of International weekend on the Willamette university campus will be the International ball Saturday night in the school gymnasium from 8:30 to 12 o'clock. The Y.M.C.A. is sponsoring the dance and Bob Johnson's orchestra will play for the affair.

The ball is a costume dance and prizes will be given for the outstanding costumes. Informal attire is in order if a costume cannot be obtained.

Ballroom dancing will be interspersed with such dances as the Schottische, Rye Waltz, and the Heel and Toe Polka. Entertainment will feature numbers by the Fannow boys and Hawaiian students.

Fireside to Follow Game

Following the Willamette-Pacific game tonight there will be open house firesides at each of the sororities and Lausanne hall. The parties will carry out themes of different countries in connection with the International weekend.

The functions are co-sponsored by the fraternities who drew for the sorority they would work with and the independent men who will assist Lausanne and Frederickson halls.

Chi Omega and Phi Delta Theta will decorate the Chi O house as a sidewalk cafe scene in France. The Pi Phi and Betas are carrying out an Oriental theme at the Pi Phi house. Delta Gamma and Sigma Chi are cooperating in giving the Deere house an English, Irish and Scottish atmosphere.

While Alpha Chi Omega and Phi Alpha are decorating the A Chi O house with a Switzerland theme. Lausanne, Frederickson and independents have chosen to depict a Hawaiian scene.

The firesides will feature dancing and refreshments and will be served at all houses at 10:45.

Law School Dance Tuesday

Student body members of the Willamette university law school entertained with a dance for the law school faculty and students Tuesday night at the Marion hotel from 8:30 to 11:30. Glenn Williams and his orchestra played for dancing. The Halloween motif was carried out in the decorations.

Arthur Wilson, vice-president of the law school student body, was in charge of the affair. Assisting were Frank McKinney, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Lalv, Richard Pickell and Harold Adams.
